Notebooks in Cultural Analysis Norman F. Cantor, 1986-11-01 Notebooks in Cultural Analysis Norman F. Cantor, Nathalia King, 1984-11-30 Dialogue and Difference Peter Brooker, Peter Humm, 2013-10-08 First Published in 2002 Modes and categories inherited from the past no longer seem to fit the reality experienced by a new generation New Accents is intended as a positive response to the initiative offered by such a situation Each volume in the series will seek to encourage rather than resist the process of change to stretch rather than reinforce the boundaries that currently define literature and its academic study This selection of essays is an attempt to open up some of the as yet unsurveyed territory of English Studies and to introduce a new more positive tone and greater range of voices to discussions of the future of the subject

Russian Realisms Molly Brunson, 2016-09-10 One fall evening in 1880 Russian painter Ilya Repin welcomed an unexpected visitor to his home Lev Tolstoy The renowned realists talked for hours and Tolstoy turned his critical eye to the sketches in Repin's studio Tolstoy's criticisms would later prompt Repin to reflect on the question of creative expression and conclude that the path to artistic truth is relative dependent on the mode and medium of representation In this original study Molly Brunson traces many such paths that converged to form the tradition of nineteenth century Russian realism a tradition that spanned almost half a century from the youthful projects of the Natural School and the critical realism of the age of reform to the mature masterpieces of Tolstoy Fyodor Dostoevsky and the paintings of the Wanderers Repin chief among them By examining the classics of the tradition Brunson explores the emergence of multiple realisms from the gaps disruptions and doubts that accompany the self-conscious project of representing reality These manifestations of realism are united not by how they look or what they describe but by their shared awareness of the fraught yet critical task of representation By tracing the engagement of literature and painting with aesthetic debates on the sister arts Brunson argues for a conceptualization of realism that transcends artistic media Russian Realisms integrates the lesser known tradition of Russian painting with the familiar masterpieces of Russia's great novelists highlighting both the common ground in their struggles for artistic realism and their cultural autonomy and legitimacy This erudite study will appeal to scholars interested in Russian literature and art comparative literature art history and nineteenth century realist movements

Engine of modernity Masha Belenky, 2020-02-28 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license Engine of modernity examines the connection between public transportation and popular culture in nineteenth century Paris through a focus on the omnibus a horse drawn vehicle of urban transport The omnibus generated innovations in social practices by compelling passengers of diverse backgrounds to interact within the vehicle's close confines The arrival of the omnibus in the streets of Paris and in the pages of popular literature acted as a motor for a fundamental cultural shift in how people thought about the city its social life and its artistic representations At the intersection of literary criticism and cultural history Engine of modernity argues that the omnibus was a metaphor through which writers and artists explored evolving social dynamics of class and gender meditated on the meaning of progress and change and reflected on one's own literary and artistic practices
