George Herbert, 1874 Haverford Essays, 1909 The Works of George Herbert George Herbert, 1865 Haverford Essays Francis Barton Gummere, 1909 Untimely Matter in the Time of Shakespeare Jonathan Gil Harris, 2010-11-24 Selected by Choice magazine as an Outstanding Academic Title The New Historicism of the 1980s and early 1990s was preoccupied with the fashioning of early modern subjects But Jonathan Gil Harris notes the pronounced tendency now is to engage with objects From textiles to stage beards to furniture objects are read by literary critics as closely as literature used to be For a growing number of Renaissance and Shakespeare scholars the play is no longer the thing the thing is the thing Curiously the current wave of thing studies has largely avoided posing questions of time How do we understand time through a thing What is the time of a thing In Untimely Matter in the Time of Shakespeare Harris challenges the ways we conventionally understand physical objects and their relation to history Turning to Renaissance theories of matter Harris considers the profound untimeliness of things focusing particularly on Shakespeare

s stage materials He reveals that many Renaissance objects were actually survivals from an older time the medieval monastic properties that post Reformation were recycled as stage props in the public playhouses or the old Roman walls of London still visible in Shakespeare s time Then as now old objects were inherited recycled repurposed they were polytemporal or palimpsested By treating matter as dynamic and temporally hybrid Harris addresses objects in their futurity not just in their encapsulation of the past Untimely Matter in the Time of Shakespeare is a bold study that puts the mat riel the explosive world changing potential back into a material culture that has been too often understood as inert stuff The Complete Works in Verse and Prose of George Herbert Alexander Grosart, 2023-05-16 Reprint of the original first published in 1874
