Uprising of Goats Diane Glancy, 2014-08-18 A professor hears the voices of Biblical women She begins writing What was it like for Dorcas to die and be brought back to life What was it like for Philip's daughters to live with the threat of persecution after Christ was crucified What did Miriam feel when she sat in the leprosy tent What did they all say as the professor wove her own story between their voices It was Michal David's first wife who made a bolster of goat's hair for David's bed when Saul her father was trying to kill him The bolster made it look as if David were there Likewise these women's voices are not their actual voices because they were not recorded in Scripture but a similitude of what such women might have said The narrator struggles with their stories beneath Scripture Michal is maligned because she scorned David when he danced before the ark

but after the death of her sister she raised her sister's sons David hanged them all when the Gibeonites told him that Saul had broken a covenant with them They asked that Saul's male descendants be killed What was it like for Michal to see her nephews hanged What did she have to say The Interface of Orality and Writing Annette Weissenrieder, Robert B. Coote, 2015-10-13 How did the visual the oral and the written interrelate in antiquity The essays in this collection address the competing and complementary roles of visual media forms of memory oral performance and literacy and popular culture in the ancient Mediterranean world Incorporating both customary and innovative perspectives the essays advance the frontiers of our understanding of the nature of ancient texts as regards audibility and performance the vital importance of the visual in the comprehension of texts and basic concepts of communication particularly the need to account for disjunctive and non reciprocal social relations in communication Thus the contributions show how the investigation of the interface of the oral and written across the spectrum of seeing hearing and writing generates new concepts of media and mediation
