A Moving Feast Hizky Shoham,2024-12-30 Winner of the Goldberg Family Foundation Award 2021 What is the meaning of the Jewish rites of initiation known as bar and bat mitzvah in the modern age when the concept of mitzvah religious precept or obligation means so little to most Jewish adolescents Hizky Shoham offers a comprehensive anthropological history of the bar and bat mitzvah ceremonies that seeks to understand why not only have these ceremonies been preserved but are in fact celebrated by more Jewish families and demand greater financial psychological and family resources than ever before The book maps and analyzes the transformation of the rituals in the modern age and endeavors to understand their meanings for the celebrants and other participants in the diverse historical contexts in which the ceremony appeared Is it indeed a rite of initiation The book breaks new ground by placing the rise of the bar and bat mitzvah in the context of the general rise during the modern industrial age of a new system of life cycle rituals rituals that mark the passing of time by latching on to its artificial conventional milestones The child's 12th or 13th birthday functions as a temporal landmark in a personal biography that would otherwise move through homogeneous time

A Moveable Feast Ernest Hemingway,2022-08-16 In A Moveable Feast Ernest Hemingway offers a poignant memoir that captures his years in 1920s Paris a city teeming with artistic innovation and cultural upheaval The narrative is characterized by Hemingway's signature concise prose blending vivid imagery with rich introspective reflections on his life and the literary figures he encountered such as Gertrude Stein F Scott Fitzgerald and Ezra Pound This work not only serves as a testament to a defining moment in literary history but also as a personal exploration of creativity love and the bittersweet nature of memory Ernest Hemingway a Nobel Prize winning author is renowned for his sparse writing style and the exploration of themes such as war love and human endurance His experiences as a young writer in Paris amidst the expatriate community greatly influenced his worldview and literary output A Moveable Feast stands as an homage to that vibrant time illuminating the struggles and triumphs that shaped Hemingway as both a person and a writer This memoir is a must read for any literature enthusiast or aspiring writer offering invaluable insights into the artistic process and the milieu that fostered some of the 20th century's most significant literary works Hemingway's evocative recollections invite readers to traverse the streets of Paris alongside him making it an essential addition to the canon of American literature Only Connect Trevor Haywood, 2012-05-02 No detailed description available for Only Connect Fatality by Firelight Lynn Cahoon, 2017-02-28 A day of skiing may lead to a life sentence for an aspiring writer in this Colorado writers retreat mystery by the New York Times bestselling author To kick off a winter writing retreat Cat and her handyman boyfriend Seth escort the aspiring authors to a nearby ski resort hoping some fresh air will get the creative juices flowing But instead of hitting the slopes they hit the bar and before long a tipsy romance novelist named Christina is keeping herself warm with a local ski bum who might have neglected to tell her about his upcoming wedding The trouble starts when Cat's uncle the town sheriff informs her that the young man's been found dead in a hot tub Then Christina shows up crying and covered in blood Now between a murder mystery the theft of a rare Hemingway edition and the arrival of a black clad stranger in snowy Aspen Hills Cat's afraid everything's going downhill Reports of Cases Argued and Determined in the Courts of Common Pleas and Exchequer Chamber ... Great Britain. Court of Common Pleas, Henry Blackstone, A. M. Bremner, 1837 Hemingway's Widow Timothy Christian, 2022-03-01 A stunning portrait of the complicated woman who becomes Ernest Hemingway's fourth wife tracing her adventures before she meets Ernest exploring the tumultuous years of their marriage and evoking her merry widowhood as she shapes Hemingway's literary legacy Mary Welsh a celebrated wartime journalist during the London Blitz and the liberation of Paris meets Ernest Hemingway in May 1944 He becomes so infatuated with Mary that he asks her to marry him the third time they meet although they are married to other people Eventually she succumbs to Ernest's campaign and in the last days of the war joined him at his estate in Cuba Through Mary's eyes we see Ernest Hemingway in a fresh light Their turbulent marriage survives his cruelty and abuse perhaps because of their sexual compatibility and her essential contribution to his writing She reads and types his work each day and makes plot suggestions She becomes crucial to his work and he depends upon her critical reading of his work to know if he has it right We watch the Hemingways as they travel to the ski country of the Dolomites commute to Harry's Bar in Venice attend bullfights in Pamplona and Madrid go on safari in Kenya in the thick of the Mau Mau Rebellion and fish the blue waters of the gulf stream off Cuba in Ernest's beloved boat Pilar We see Ernest fall in love with a teenaged Italian countess and wonder at Mary's tolerance of the affair We witness Ernest's sad decline and Mary's efforts to avoid the stigma of suicide by claiming his death was an accident In the years following Ernest's death Mary devotes herself to his literary legacy negotiating with Castro to reclaim Ernest's manuscripts from Cuba publishing one third of his work posthumously She supervises Carlos Baker's biography of Ernest sues A E Hotchner to try and prevent him from telling the story of Ernest's mental decline and spends years writing her memoir in her penthouse overlooking the New York skyline Her story is one of an opinionated woman who smokes Camels drinks gin swears

the 1930s the first Englishman to win a race for Mercedes Benz and the last Grand Prix driver to die at the wheel before the outbreak of the Second World War Award winning author Richard Williams reveals the remarkable but now forgotten story of a driver whose battles against the leading figures of motor racing's golden age inspired the post war generation of British champions The son of wealthy parents educated at Rugby and Cambridge Seaman grew up in a privileged world of house parties jazz and fast cars But motor racing was no mere hobby it became such an obsession that he dropped out of university to pursue his ambitions squeezing money out of his parents to buy better cars When he was offered a contract with the world beating state sponsored Mercedes team in 1937 he signed up despite the growing political tensions between Britain and Germany A year later he celebrated victory in the German Grand Prix with the beautiful 18 year old daughter of the founder of BMW Their wedding that summer would force a split with his family a costly rift that had not been closed six months later when he crashed in the rain while leading at Spa dying with his divided loyalties seemingly unresolved He was just 26 years old A Race with Love and Death is a gripping tale of speed romance and tragedy Set in an era of rising tensions where the urge to live each moment to the full never seemed more important it is a richly evocative story that grips from first to last

Islam in Transition Jessica Jacobson,2006-08-21 Islam in Transition focuses on the ways in which Islamic religion still engenders powerful loyalties within what is now a predominantly secular society and how in their continual adherence to their religion many young British Pakistanis find a welcome sense of stability and permanence By presenting material collected in field work study and by using extensive quotations from interviews the author argues that in a world where concepts of identity are always being challenged traditional sources of authority and allegiance still survive Paris 2007 unnecessarily causing discomfort or worse to survivors He shows us why and how misinformation comes into existence and tends to persist over time He describes the mythical ideal biographer an imaginary creature of universal intelligence and myriad talents beyond the reach of any single human being And he suggests how its very impossibility makes the goal of writing a biography that captures the personality of an author a challenge well worth pursuing Unnatural Ability Milton C. Toby, 2023-08-08 In a mere twelve months between May 2020 and May 2021 horse racing's most recognizable face Hall of Fame trainer Bob Baffert had five horses that failed post-race drug tests Among those was the 2021 Kentucky Derby winner Medina Spirit While the incident was a major scandal in the Thoroughbred racing world it was only the latest in a series of drug-related infractions among elite athletes Stories about systemic rule breaking and doping culture both human and equine have put world-class athletes and their trainers under intense scrutiny Each newly discovered instance of abuse forces fans to question the participants' integrity and in the case of horse racing their humanity In Unnatural Ability: The History of Performance-Enhancing Drugs in Thoroughbred Racing Milton C. Toby addresses the historical and contemporary context of the Thoroughbred industry's most pressing issue While early attempts at boosting racehorses' performance were admittedly crude widespread legal access to narcotics and stimulants has changed the landscape of horse racing along with athletic governing bodies' ability to regulate it With the sport at a critical turning point in terms of doping restrictions and sports betting Toby delivers a comprehensive account of the practice of using performance-enhancing drugs to influence the outcome of Thoroughbred races since the late nineteenth century Paying special attention to Thoroughbred racing's purse structure and its reliance on wagering to supplement a horse's winnings Toby discusses how horse doping poses a unique challenge for gambling sports and what the industry and its players must do to survive the pressure to get ahead Across the Taiwan Strait Suisheng Zhao, 2013-10-23 The 1995-1996 Taiwan Strait Crisis caused the largest naval movement by the United States in the Asia Pacific since the Vietnam War Using this crisis as a starting point Across the Taiwan Strait takes an in-depth look at the relationship between mainland China and Taiwan The contributors examine the causes of conflict and explore ways to prevent future tension from deteriorating into war The political economy of Taiwan's mainland policy the politics of mainland China's Taiwan policy and the implications for U.S. security policy are also explored
