Lionel Young, III, 2021-03-15 This book is a short introduction to one of the most remarkable transformations in the modern world that many people still do not know about In 1900 more than 80 percent of the world's Christians lived in Europe and North America and nearly all of the world's missionaries were sent out from the West to the rest In a dramatic turn of events Christianity experienced a decidedly Southern shift during the twentieth century Today nearly 70 percent of the world's 2.5 billion Christians live in Africa Asia and Latin America while nearly half of all missionaries are being sent out into all the world from places like Brazil Ethiopia and South Korea This book is intended to change the way readers think about the church and challenge the way the Western Christians engage in contemporary missions

Buddhism in Indonesia Roberto Rizzo, 2024-04-16 Based on extensive original research this book explores the history and current revival of Buddhism on the Indonesian island of Java Beginning by tracing how Buddhism came to Java from India via southeast Asia it considers how Buddhism has survived and adapted as Islam and Christianity became dominant It goes on to report on detailed anthropological research both in a remote highland community Temanggung and in Java's main cities including Jakarta showing how youth activism and close community cohesion have brought about revival It includes an examination of the production of Buddhist wayside shrines Throughout it shows how Buddhism in Java has fused with local traditional practices local circumstances and trans national processes to form a unique Javanese Buddhism

India and Indonesia, 1989 Indonesia, Islam, and the International Political Economy Mark Williams, 2017-04-21 The Republic of Indonesia is a rising great power in the Asia Pacific set to become the eighth largest economy in the world in the coming decades It is the most populous Muslim majority country in the world The largest Islamic organizations and parties have supported Indonesia's participation with global markets but this has not come from an ideological support for capitalism or economic liberalization Islamic political culture has denounced the injustices caused by global capitalism and its excesses In fact support for Indonesia's engagement with the international political economy is born from political pragmatism and from Indonesia's struggles to achieve economic development This book examines the role of Islamic identity in Indonesia's foreign economic relations and in its engagement with the world order There is no single expression of Islam in Indonesia the politics espoused by Islamic parties and organizations are far from monolithic Islamic sentiment has been invoked by the state to justify heinous acts of brutality as well as by violent subnational revolutionary groups However these expressions of Islam have deviated from the dominant narrative which is in favour of international cooperation and economic development Economic exploitation political alienation financial volatility and aggression toward Muslims around the world that has caused some Islamic groups to radicalize The political culture of Islam in Indonesia is a social force that is helping to foster a peaceful rise for Indonesia However a peaceful expression of Islam is not inevitable for the republic nor can it be assumed that Islamic identity in Indonesia will unwaveringly support the global economic order regardless of what might occur in global politics

Java, Indonesia and Islam Mark Woodward, 2010-10-28 Mark R Woodward's Islam in Java Normative Piety and Mysticism in the Sultanate of Yogyakarta 1989 was one of the most important work on Indonesian Islam of the era This new volume Java Indonesia and Islam builds on the earlier study but also goes beyond it in important ways Written on the basis of Woodward's thirty years of research on Javanese Islam in a Yogyakarta south central Java setting the book presents a much needed collection of essays concerning Javanese Islamic texts ritual sacred space situated in Javanese and Indonesian political contexts With a number of entirely new essays as well as significantly revised versions of essays this book is a valuable contribution to the academic community by an eminent anthropologist and key authority on Islamic religion and culture in Java

Rethinking Power Relations in Indonesia Michaela Haug, Martin Rössler, Anna-Teresa Grumblies, 2016-07-15 Since colonial rule the island of Java served as Indonesia's imagined centre and prime example of development while the Outer Islands were constructed as the state's marginalised periphery Recent processes of democratisation and regional autonomy however have significantly changed the power relations that once produced the marginality of the Outer Islands This book explores processes of political economic and cultural transformations in Indonesia emphasizing their implications for centre periphery relations from the perspective of the archipelago's margins Structured along three central themes the book first provides theoretical contributions to the understanding of marginality in Indonesia The second part focuses on political transformation processes and their implications for the Outer Islands The third section investigates the dynamics caused by economic changes on Indonesia's periphery Chapters written by experts in the field offer examples from various regions which demonstrate how power relations between centre and periphery are getting challenged contested and reshaped The book fills a gap in the literature by analysing the implications of the recent transformation processes for the construction of marginality on Indonesia's Outer Islands
