Robert Smithson Learning From New Jersey And Elsewhere:

Robert Smithson Ann Morris Reynolds, Robert Smithson, 2003 An examination of the interplay between cultural context and artistic practice in the work of Robert Smithson Robert Smithson Ann Morris Reynolds, 1993 Robert Smithson Robert Smithson, Eugenie Tsai, Cornelia H. Butler, Thomas E. Crow, Alexander Alberro, Museum of Contemporary Art (Los Angeles, Calif.), Moira Roth, Whitney Museum of American Art, 2004 This catalogue is the major study of Smithson 1938 1973 who is most renowned as an early earthworks artist and creator of Spiral Jetty a 1 500 foot rock coil dramatically situated in the Great Salt Lake Allan Kaprow, Robert Smithson, and the Limits to Art Philip Ursprung, Fiona Elliott, 2013-05-10 This innovative study of two of the most important artists of the twentieth century links the art practices of Allan Kaprow and Robert Smithson in their attempts to test the limits of art both what it is and where it is Ursprung provides a sophisticated yet accessible analysis placing the two artists firmly in the art world of the 1960s as well as in the art historical discourse of the following decades Although their practices were quite different they both extended the studio and gallery into desert landscapes abandoned warehouses industrial sites train stations and other spaces Ursprung bolsters his argument with substantial archival research and sociological and economic models of expansion and limits Anglo-American Exchange in Postwar Sculpture, 1945-1975 Rebecca Peabody, 2011-12-31 Anglo American Exchange in Postwar Sculpture 1945 1975 redresses an important art historical oversight Histories of American and British sculpture are usually told separately with artists and their work divided by nationality yet such boundaries obscure a vibrant exchange of ideas individuals and aesthetic influences In reality the postwar art world saw dynamic interactions between British and American sculptors critics curators teachers and institutions Using works of art as points of departure this book explores the international movement of people objects and ideas demonstrating the importance of Anglo American exchange to the history of postwar sculpture

Between Art Practice and Psychoanalysis Mid-Twentieth Century Beth Williamson, 2017-07-05 The work of mid twentieth century art theorist Anton Ehrenzweig is explored in this original and timely study An analysis of the dynamic and invigorating intellectual influences institutional framework and legacy of his work Between Art Practice and Psychoanalysis reveals the context within which Ehrenzweig worked how that influenced him and those artists with whom he worked closely Beth Williamson looks to the writing of Melanie Klein Marion Milner Adrian Stokes and others to elaborate Ehrenzweig s theory of art a theory that extends beyond the visual arts to music In this first full length study on his work including an inventory of his library previously unexamined archival material and unseen artworks sit at the heart of a book that examines Ehrenzweig s working relationships with important British artists such as Bridget Riley Eduardo Paolozzi and other members of the Independent Group in London in the 1950s and 1960s In Ehrenzweig s second book The Hidden Order of Art 1967 his thinking on Jackson Pollock is important too It was this book that inspired American artists Robert Smithson and Robert Morris when they deployed his concept of dedifferentiation Here Williamson offers new readings of process art c 1970

showing how Ehrenzweig's aesthetic retains relevance beyond the immediate post war era

The Ethics of Earth Art Amanda Boetzkes, 2013-11-30 Since its inception in the 1960s the earth art movement has sought to make visible the elusive presence of nature Though most often associated with monumental land based sculptures earth art encompasses a wide range of media from sculpture body art performances and installations to photographic interventions public protest art and community projects In The Ethics of Earth Art Amanda Boetzkes analyzes the development of the earth art movement arguing that such diverse artists as Robert Smithson Ana Mendieta James Turrell Jackie Brookner Olafur Eliasson Basia Irland and Ichi Ikeda are connected through their elucidation of the earth as a domain of ethical concern Boetzkes contends that in basing their works relationship to the natural world on receptivity rather than representation earth artists take an ethical stance that counters both the instrumental view that seeks to master nature and the Romantic view that posits a return to a mythical state of unencumbered continuity with nature By incorporating receptive surfaces into their work film footage of glaring sunlight an aperture in a chamber that opens to the sky or a porous armature on which vegetation grows earth artists articulate the dilemma of representation that nature presents Revealing the fundamental difference between the human world and the earth Boetzkes shows that earth art mediates the sensations of nature while allowing nature itself to remain irreducible to human signification

SpatioTemporalities on the Line Sebastian Dorsch, Jutta Vinzent, 2017-11-20 Lines are omnipresent in our everyday experience and language They reflect and influence the spatial and temporal structures of our world view Taking Tim Ingold's cultural history of the line as a starting point this book understands lines as expressions that allow insights into cultural theoretical phenomena and thus go beyond their mere form The essays will investigate this premise from various disciplines architecture art cartography film literature and philosophy

Creative Enterprise Martha Buskirk, 2012-04-12 Intertwines a dual emphasis on evolving institutional priorities and major shifts in artistic production

Modern Sculpture Douglas Dreishpoon, 2022-10-25 Artists of any ilk can be extremely opinionated when it comes to what they do how they do it and what it might mean Sculptors are no exception Modern Sculpture Artists in Their Own Words presents a selection of manifestos documents statements articles and interviews from more than ninety subjects including an ample selection of contemporary sculptors With this book editor Douglas Dreishpoon defers to sculptors whose varied points of view illuminate the medium's perpetual transformation from object to action concept to phenomenon over the course of two centuries Each chapter progresses in chronological sequence to highlight the dominant stylistic philosophical and thematic threads that unite each kindred group The result is a distinctive artist centric history and survey of sculpture that showcases the expansive dimensions and malleability of the medium

Beholding Ken Wilder, 2020-05-14 Beholding considers the spatially situated encounter between artwork and spectator It argues that artworks created for specific places or conditions structure a reciprocal encounter which is completed by the presence of a beholder These are works which demand the beholder's share but not as Ernst Gombrich famously claimed to sustain an illusion Rather Beholding reconfigures Gombrich's notion of the beholder's share as a set of licensed imaginative and cognitive projections Each chapter frames a particular work of art from the remit of a complementary theoretical text The book establishes a transhistorical notion of the spatially situated encounter and considers the role of the architectural host in bringing the beholder's orientation into play The book engages a diverse range of practices from Renaissance painting and group portraiture to intermedia practices of installation and performance art Written within the broad remit of reception aesthetics the book proposes a phenomenological theory of beholding argued through an in depth examination of artworks and their spatial contexts selected for their explanatory potential These various encounters allocate different constitutive roles to the beholder bringing not only spatial and temporal orientation into play but also a repertoire of anticipated ideas and beliefs

Photography in the Middle: Dispatches on Media Ecologies and Aesthetics Dean Lockwood, Rob Coley, 2016-10-31

It's easy to forget there's a war on when the front line is everywhere encrypted in plain sight Gathered in this book's several chapters are dispatches on the role of photography in a War Universe a space and time in which photographers such as Hilla Becher Don McCullin and Eadweard Muybridge exist only insofar as they are a mark of possession in the sway of larger forces These photographers are conceptual personae that collectively fabulate a different kind of photography a paraphotography in which the camera produces negative abyssal flashes or endarkenment In his Vietnam War memoir Dispatches Michael Herr imagines a dropped camera receiving jumping and falling images images which capture the weird indivisibility of medium and mediated in a time of war The movies and the war the photographs and the torn bodies fused and exchanged Reporting from the chaos at the middle of things Herr invokes a kind of writing attuned to this experience Photography in the Middle eschewing a high theoretical mode seeks to exploit the bag of tricks that is the dispatch The dispatch makes no grand statement about the progress of the war Cultivating the most perverse implications of its sources it tries to express what the daily briefing never can Ports of entry in the script we're given odd and hasty little glyphs unhelpful rips in the cover story dispatches are futile dark intuitions an expeditious inefficacy They are bleak but necessary responses to an indifferent world in which any action whatever has little noticeable effect As luck would have it Photography in the Middle begins with some nasty accidents and extracts from the wreckage a few lessons learned Dusting itself off it ships out and puts up with a bunch of battle scarred big gun photojournalists in the Holiday Inn of a typical world city Later it immerses itself within the leaked files of an enigmatic police cabal which detail the surveillance of conceptual photographers Bernd and Hilla Becher an operation that even extends to the duo's dreams Further back in time in 1897 we are invited to an inflammatory yet patchily documented public lecture given by the Titan Muybridge More than any other it is William Burroughs conceived here as a war photographer who is our tutelary figure hovering over all these pages in his attempt to map emergent vectors of mediation ever more intimate forms of control and accelerants of planetary catastrophe Burroughs believed that it was necessary to both keep pace with and formulate new vectors vectors that might act as intersections with a nonhuman outside Photography has an agency of its own one that scrambles the patterns and refrains of mediation upon which human life is based glitching the human and provoking relations with external coordinates With Burroughs and other inspirations such as J G Ballard Georges Bataille Tom McCarthy and Eugene Thacker our notion of the dispatch does not offer positive knowledge of something that we can reconcile with existing rational explanations but rather the revelation of a nightside our redundancy in a photography that suspends all operations in a general blindness

Portable Borders Ila Nicole Sheren, 2015-08-15 After World War II the concept of borders became unsettled especially after the rise of subaltern and multicultural studies in the 1980s Art at the U S Mexico border came to a turning point at the beginning of that decade with the election of U S President Ronald Reagan Beginning with a political history of the border with an emphasis on the Chicano movement and its art production Ila Sheren explores the forces behind the shift in thinking about the border in the late twentieth century Particularly in the world of visual art borders have come to represent a space of performance rather than a geographical boundary a cultural terrain meant to be negotiated rather than a physical line From 1980 forward Sheren argues the border became portable through performance and conceptual work This dematerialization of the physical border after the 1980s worked in two opposite directions the movement of border thinking to the rest of the world as well as the importation of ideas to the border itself Beginning with site specific conceptual artwork of the 1980s particularly the performances of the Border Art Workshop Taller de Arte Fronterizo Sheren shows how these works reconfigured the border as an active site Sheren moves on to examine artists such as Guillermo G mez Pe a Coco Fusco and Marcos Ramirez ERRE Although Sheren places emphasis on the Chicano movement and its art production this groundbreaking book suggests possibilities for the expansion of the concept of portability to contemporary art projects beyond the region

optics and scale Since '45 Katy Siegel,2013-06-01 Since 45 details the collision of American history and modern art Since World War II New York has been the indisputable center of the art world and as Katy Siegel shows it has had a profound influence on the preoccupations that contemporary art would come to have Tracing art history over the past decades she shows how anxieties over race mass culture the individual suburbia apocalypse and nuclear destruction have supplanted the legacy of European artistic traditions Siegel's study encompasses a variety of works including Rothko's planes of color Warhol's serial silkscreens Richard Prince's cowboys Robert Longo's Men in Cities Faith Ringgold's Black Light and Laurie Simmons's dollhouses and moves fluidly from discussions of artists' works art museums and galleries to cultural influences and significant historical events Rather than arguing on nationalist grounds or viewing American culture as representative of a now devalued nation Siegel explores how American culture dominated not only American artists but created conditions that now after the full globalization of the art world affect artists around the world Since 45 will interest all readers engaged in post war and contemporary art in the United States and beyond Gordon Matta-Clark Frances Richard,2019-03-26 Bringing a poet's perspective to an artist's archive this highly original book examines wordplay in the art and thought of American artist Gordon Matta Clark 1943 1978 A pivotal figure in the postminimalist generation who was also the son of a prominent Surrealist Matta Clark was a leader in the downtown artists community in New York in the 1970s and is widely seen as a pioneer of what has come to be known as social practice art He is celebrated for his architectural environments and performances and the films photographs drawings and sculptural fragments with which his site specific work was documented In studies of his career the artist's provocative and vivid language is referenced constantly Yet the verbal aspect of his practice has not previously been examined in its own right Blending close readings of Matta Clark's visual and verbal creations with reception history and critical biography this extensively researched study engages with the linguistic and semiotic forms in Matta Clark's art forms that activate what he called the poetics of psycho locus and total semiotic system Examining notes statements titles letters and interviews in light of what they reveal about his work at large Frances Richard unearths archival biographical and historical information linking Matta Clark to Conceptualist peers and Surrealist and Dada forebears Gordon Matta Clark Physical Poetics explores the paradoxical durability of Matta Clark's language and its role in an aggressively physical oeuvre whose major works have been destroyed Rereading the Machine in the Garden Eric Erbacher,Nicole Maruo-Schröder,Florian Sedlmeier,2014-11-06 The Machine in the Garden gilt als Grundungstext der Amerikastudien als wissenschaftliche Disziplin Die Beiträge des Sammelbands unterziehen das dort proklamierte Spannungsverhältnis zwischen Natur und Technik einer Relektüre Sie untersuchen industrielle bürokratische und digitale Größen in Film und Literatur und beleuchten deren Funktion vor verschiedenen kulturhistorischen Hintergründen

Of Mothers and Death Élisabeth Lamothe,Pascale Sardin,Julie Sauvage,2008 Art Encounters Deleuze and Guattari S. O'Sullivan,2005-12-16 In a series of philosophical discussions and artistic case studies this volume develops a materialist and immanent approach to modern and contemporary art The argument is made for a return to aesthetics an aesthetics of affect and for the theorization of art as an expanded and complex practice Staging a series of encounters between specific Deleuzian concepts the virtual the minor the fold etc and the work of artists that position their work outside of the gallery or outside of representation Simon O Sullivan takes Deleuze s thought into other milieus allowing these possible worlds to work back on philosophy Anywhere or Not at All Peter Osborne,2013-06-04 A new reading of the philosophy of contemporary art by the author of The Politics of Time Contemporary art is the object of inflated and widely divergent claims But what kind of discourse can open it up effectively to critical analysis Anywhere or Not at All is a major philosophical intervention in art theory that challenges the terms of established positions through a new approach at once philosophical historical social and art critical Developing the position that contemporary art is postconceptual art the book progresses through a dual series of conceptual constructions and interpretations of particular works to assess the art from a number of perspectives contemporaneity and its global context art against aesthetic the Romantic pre history of conceptual art the multiplicity of modernisms transcategoriality conceptual abstraction photographic ontology digitalization and the institutional and existential complexities of art space and art time Anywhere or Not at All maps out the conceptual space for an art that is both critical and contemporary in the era of global capitalism Winner of the 2014 Annual Book Prize of the Association for the Study of the Arts of the Present USA
