Seeing The Way Buddhist Reflections On The Spiritual Life:

Seeing the Way Phra Phōthiyānathēra (Chā),1989 Seeing the Way ,1989 Seeing the Way Volume 1 ,1989

Contemporary Spiritualities Clive Erricker,Jane Erricker,2001-08-01 Spirituality can be understood within both a religious and secular context Fuelled by the controversy that surrounds different understandings of human identity and notions of progress knowledge and truth in modernist and postmodernist contexts the concept of spirituality is a hotly contested topic of debate as to its relevance within contemporary culture and its meaning within religious traditions This book aims to inform readers on this debate and contextualize it within these different frames of reference It approaches the topic of spirituality with an identification of the major influences on contemporary thinking and presents a coherent framework of understanding that links divergent thinking into a common goal Writings range across different thinkers and practitioners within established religious tradition contemporary movements and those who operate within psychological and secular understandings Focusing on the question what does it mean to be human this engaging study attempts to overcome the divide between secular and religious understandings of spirituality The Psychology of Meditation Peter

Sedlmeier,2022-05-10 All you need to know about the psychology of meditation Written by an expert in the field Provides unique theories of meditation approaches Explores traditional and Western approaches Recommends how to improve future research Explores new topics e g negative effects More about the book What is meditation What do people hope to get from practicing it and what do they really get How can the effects of meditation be explained And what are the best approaches to researching the psychology of meditation so we can understand more This unique book by a leading expert provides state of the art answers to these questions Contrary to commonly accepted wisdom meditation comes in a range of varieties and the reasons why people begin to meditate and stay with it are also numerous and varied Even mindfulness which is often wrongly used as a synonym for meditation comes in many forms The book succinctly summarizes the beneficial effects found in the avalanche of studies available especially in clinical contexts and also explores recently emerging topics such as negative effects and the impact of ethics and spirituality The author expertly provides theories of the four traditional meditation approaches which has never been done before in this form and gives a critical overview of Western approaches to explain the effects of meditation In conclusion he makes recommendations on how to improve future meditation research This book is of interest to mental health practitioners researchers students interested in meditation and mindfulness approaches Forest

Recollections Tiyanich Kamala,1997-03-01 I stayed in the forest for two nights The first night nothing happened The second night at about one or two in the morning a tiger came which meant that I didn't get any sleep the whole night I sat in meditation scared stiff while the tiger walked around and around my umbrella tent klot My body felt all frozen and numb I started chanting and the words came out like running water All the old chants I had forgotten now came back to me thanks both to my fear and to my ability to keep my mind under control I sat like this from 2 until 5 a m when the tiger finally left A forest monk During the first half of this century the forests of Thailand were home to wandering ascetic monks They were Buddhists but their brand of Buddhism did not copy the practices described in ancient doctrinal texts Their Buddhism found expression in living day to day in the forest and in contending with the mental and physical challenges of hunger pain fear and desire Combining interviews and biographies with an exhaustive knowledge of archival materials and a wide reading of ephemeral popular literature Kamala Tiyanich documents the monastic lives of three generations of forest dwelling ascetics and challenges the stereotype of state centric Thai Buddhism Although the tradition of wandering forest ascetics has disappeared a victim of Thailand's relentless modernization and rampant deforestation the lives of the monks presented here are a testament to the rich diversity of regional Buddhist traditions The study of these monastic lineages and practices enriches our understanding of Buddhism in Thailand and elsewhere

Meditation in Schools Clive Erricker, Jane Erricker, 2001-03-01 This introduction to meditation in education is written as a resource for class teachers and educators as a practical guide Parents will also find it valuable though its main focus is in using meditation in schools The purpose of the book is to inspire and to provide concise practical and general information and techniques that can be considered and explored before introducing primary or secondary students to meditative experience Meditation in schools covers such topics as o information on schools where meditation is practiced and the perceived results o issues and concerns involved with introducing meditation in schools o the relationship between meditation and other relaxation quieting techniques o experiential learning and a holistic approach to education This essential guide is written from the contributors personal and professional practice experience and emphasizes how meditation can contribute to the school environment and to the curriculum as well as developing the positive potential of students hearts and minds It includes a useful section on further reading

Sharing Jesus in the Buddhist World David Lim, Steve Spaulding, Paul H. de Neui, 2003-06-01 This book on Christian missions to the Buddhist world not only provides understanding of many Buddhist cultures but provides culturally relevant ideas on sharing Jesus with Buddhists around the world It lives up to the editors goal to provide the global church with knowledge and understanding of the Buddhist world and how to reach it for Christ

Religions of the World J. Gordon Melton, Martin Baumann, 2010-09-21 This masterful six volume encyclopedia provides comprehensive global coverage of religion emphasizing larger religious communities without neglecting the world's smaller religious outposts Religions of the World Second Edition A Comprehensive Encyclopedia of Beliefs and Practices is an extraordinary work bringing together the scholarship of some 225 experts from around the globe The encyclopedia's six volumes offer entries on every country of the world with particular emphasis on the larger nations as well as Indonesia and the Latin American countries that are traditionally given little attention in English language reference works Entries include profiles on religion in the world's smallest countries the Vatican and San Marino profiles on religion in recently established or disputed countries Kosovo and Nagorno Karabakh as well as profiles on religion in some of the world's most remote places Antarctica and Easter Island

Religions of the World is unique in that it is based in religion on the ground tracing the development of each of the 16 major world religious traditions through its institutional expressions in the modern world its major geographical sites and its major celebrations Unlike other works the encyclopedia also covers the world of religious unbelief as expressed in atheism humanism and other traditions

The Mind and the Way Sumedho, 2012-06-25 What would life be like if each one of us chose compassion over anger loving kindness over hatred awareness over ignorance The Mind and the Way demonstrates a radically simple approach to life one in which we are able to awaken to our true loving nature and delight in the mystery and wonder of the world With warmth and a wonderful sense of humor Ajahn Sumedho draws on the experiences of ordinary life to convey Buddhist insights that for 2 500 years have continued to remain vital and pertinent to our lives

Buddhism Today (formerly Known as Metta), 2001 Lessons from the Dying Rodney Smith, 2012-01-30 Are a person's perceptions and values altered when facing the end of life Are a person's perceptions and values altered when facing the end of life Do the dying see the world in a way that could help the rest of us learn how to live This book takes us into the lessons of the dying Through the words and circumstances of the terminally ill we become immersed in their wisdom and in our own mortality The dying speak to us in direct and personal ways pointing toward a wise and sane way to live In everyday language we can all understand Rodney Smith extends the conversation about death to people of all ages and states of health Through exercises and guided meditative reflections at the end of each chapter the lessons of the dying become a blueprint for our own growth

Plant Lives Ellison Banks Findly, 2008 This book examines for the first time those threads in Indian thought that present a prolife view of plants Using texts from Vedic Hindu Jain and Buddhist traditions the author argues that there is strong support in early materials that plants are thought to be alive to be sentient and have the one sense of touch to feel pleasure and pain to have an interior consciousness and to be bearers of karma Moreover while plants are traditionally thought to be of tamasic quality with their immobility and dullness they are sometimes described as sattvic with their calmness even mindedness and service to others In fact the author argues plants are frequently used to provide a model for the practiced ascetic in that they bend but don't break with the wind aren't distracted when buzzed by a mosquito and flourish in their steadfastness Given the theoretical discussion of plants within the range of sentient being the book then focus on the intimate life humans have with plants Texts devoted to botany medicine law art literature and religion for example depict human conversation with trees humans marrying trees and humans delineating their responsibilities for the well being of plants in the greatest detail Most difficult is the problem of eating and in that ahimsa or non violence towards plants would be the ideal in the extreme vegetarianism shows up the compromise that is made once plants are brought into the sentient realm Finally the author explores the founding premises of several current environmental leaders and movements in India that focus on plants e g tree protection tree planting seed saving biodiversity to examine whether contemporary plant oriented ecological activism in India reflects older traditional ideas about plants Asking whether new Hindu Jain or Buddhist movements reflect respective older ideas the author finds that contemporary Indian practices remain on the whole authentic reflections of their older roots See, Love, Be Tim Stead,2018-06-21 Many have been hugely helped by mindfulness practice But how do we move beyond our initial goal of functioning well to live a life marked by deep awareness genuine compassion and ease of being Tim Stead is an accredited mindfulness teacher who seeks to explore this very question Offering new versions of familiar practices he meditates on three key themes see love be that connect strongly with the concerns of many great spiritual traditions This warm hearted book will resonate as much with those who do not have a faith commitment as with those who do Thoughtful and intensely practical See Love Be offers a fascinating insight into the human condition I particularly enjoyed the use of the well judged poems at the end of each chapter Michael Mosley science journalist TV presenter and producer

Interreligious Reflections, Six Volume Set Alon Goshen-Gottstein,2018-08-08 This set includes all six volumes of Interreligious Reflections ABOUT VOLUME ONE Friendship is an outcome of as well as a condition for advancing interfaith relations However for friendship to advance there must be legitimation from within and a theory of how interreligious relations can be justified from the resources of different faith traditions Friendship Across Religions explores these very issues seeking to develop a robust theory of interreligious friendship from the resources of each of the participating traditions It also features individual cases as models and precedents for such relations in particular the friendship of Gandhi and Charlie Andrews his closest personal friend Contributors Balwant Singh Dhillon Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Maria Reis Habito Ruben L F Habito Ryan McAnnally Linz Stephen Butler Murray Eleanor Nesbitt Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sender Johann M Vento and Miroslav Volf ABOUT VOLUME TWO This book tackles the core problem of how painful historical memories between diverse religious communities continue to impact even poison present day relations Its operative notion is the healing of memory developed by John Paul II Chapters explore how painful memories of yesteryear can be healed and so address some of the root causes Strategies from six different faith traditions are brought together in what is in some ways a cross religious brainstorming session that identifies tools to improve present day relations At the other pole of the conceptual axis of this book is the notion of hope If memory informs our past hope sets the horizon for our future How does the healing of memory open new horizons for the future And what is the notion of hope in each of our traditions that could lead to a common vision of good Between memory and hope this book seeks to offer a vision of healing that can serve as a resource in contemporary interfaith relations Contributors Rahuldeep Singh Gill Alon Goshen Gottstein Maria Reis Habito Flora A Keshgegian Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sender Muhammad Suheyl Umar and Michael von Br ck

ABOUT VOLUME THREE The essays collected here prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy explore the challenges associated with sharing wisdom learning teachings messages for good living How should religions go about sharing their wisdom These chapters representing six faith tradition Jewish Christian Muslim Hindu Sikh and Buddhist explore what wisdom means in each of these traditions why and how it should be shared internally and externally and the role of love and forgiveness in sharing This book offers a theory that can enrich ongoing encounters between members of faith traditions by suggesting a tradition based practice of sharing wisdom while preserving the integrity of the teaching and respecting the identity of anyone with whom wisdom is shared Contributors Pal Ahluwalia Timothy Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Sallie B King Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sender Miroslav Volf

ABOUT VOLUME FOUR All the world s religions are experiencing rapid change due to a confluence of social and economic global forces Factors such as the pervasive intrusion of globalizing political and economic developments polarized and morally equivalent presentations seen in the media and the sense of surety demanded in and promised by a culture dominated by science are some of the factors that have placed extreme pressure on all religious traditions This has stimulated unprecedented responses by religious groups ranging from fundamentalism to the syncretistic search for meaning As religion takes on new forms the balance between individual and community is disrupted and reconfigured Religions often lose the capacity to recall their ultimate purpose or lead their adherents toward it This is the situation we call the crisis of the holy It is a confluence of threats challenges and opportunities for all religions This volume explores the contours of pressures changes and transformations and reflects on how all our religions are changing By identifying commonalities across religions as they respond to these pressures The Crisis of the Holy recommends ways religious traditions might cope with these changes and how they might join forces in doing so Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Sidney H Griffith Maria Reis Habito B Barry Levy Deepak Sarma Michael von Br ck

ABOUT VOLUME FIVE The chapters collected in this book prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy address the subject of religious leadership The subject is of broad relevance in the training of religious leaders and in the practice of religious leadership As such it is also germane to religious thought where reflections on religious leadership occupy an important place What does it mean to be a religious leader in today's world To what degree are the challenges that confront religious leadership today the same perennial challenges that have arrested the attention of the faithful and their leaders for generations and to what degree do we encounter challenges today that are unique to our day and age One dimension is surely unique and that is the very ability to explore these issues from an interreligious perspective and to consider challenges opportunities and strategies across religious traditions Studying the theme across six faith traditions Christianity Islam Judaism Sikhism Hinduism and Buddhism The Future of Religious Leadership World Religions in Conversation recognizes the common challenges to present day religious leadership Contributors Awet Andemicael Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Anantanand Rambachan Maria Reis Habito Meir Sendor Balwant Singh Dhillion Miroslav Volf VOLUME SIX One of the biggest challenges for relations between religions is the view of the religious Other The question touches the roots of our theological views The Religious Other Hostility Hospitality and the Hope of Human Flourishing explores the views of multiple religious traditions on how to regard otherness How does one move from hostility to hospitality How can hospitality be understood not simply as social hospitality but as theological hospitality making room for the religious Other on theological grounds What is our vision for the flourishing of the Other while respecting his otherness This volume is an exercise in constructive interreligious theology By including Abrahamic and non Abrahamic traditions it approaches these challenges from multiple perspectives highlighting commonalities in approach and ways in which one tradition might inspire another Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Richard P Hayes Lord Rabbi Jonathan Sacks Deepak Sarma Stephen W Sykes Dharma Master Hsin Tao Ashok Vohra Religious Fasting Olivia Thompson, AI, 2025-02-27 Religious Fasting explores the widespread spiritual practice of abstaining from food and drink across various faiths It examines fasting not just as deprivation but as a deliberate act of devotion and self reflection The book reveals that despite diverse forms religious fasting serves as a universal tool for self transformation and connection with the divine Interestingly fasting can also be seen as a way to promote communal identity and social cohesion highlighting its impact beyond the individual The book begins by tracing fasting's origins and examining its physiological and psychological effects From there it explores fasting rituals in specific religions like Christianity Islam and Judaism detailing unique customs and theological underpinnings Through this comparative approach the book avoids prioritizing one religious perspective instead seeking common threads and significant differences Ultimately Religious Fasting analyzes shared themes drawing conclusions about the universal human desire for spiritual growth
