Facing the Crisis Fulvia D'Aloisio, Simone Ghezzi, 2020-09-20 Among the founding nations of the European Union no nation has experienced a more devastating affect from the 2008 economic crisis than Italy Although its recovery has recently begun Italy has fallen even further behind EU economic leaders and the EU average Looking at how and why this happened Facing the Crisis brings together ethnographic material from anthropological research projects carried out in various Italian industrial locations With its wide breadth of locations and industries the volume looks at all corners of the diverse Italian manufacturing system

Critique of Entrepreneurship Peter Armstrong, 2005-05-11 The sponsorship of the entrepreneur as an agent of economic growth is now at the centre of a vast promotional industry involving politicians government departments and higher education This book examines the origins of this phenomenon and subjects its mythologies hero figures and policies to an empirically based critical examination

Dark Finance Fabio Mattioli, 2020-06-30 Dark Finance offers one of the first ethnographic accounts of financial expansion and its political impacts in Eastern Europe Following workers managers and investors in the Macedonian construction sector Fabio Mattioli shows how financialization can empower authoritarian regimes not by making money accessible to everyone but by allowing a small group of oligarchs to monopolize access to international credit and promote a cascade of exploitative domestic debt relations The landscape of failed deals and unrealizable dreams that is captured in this book portrays finance not as a singular technical process Instead Mattioli argues that finance is a set of political and economic relations that entangles citizens Eurocrats and workers in tense paradoxes Mattioli traces the origins of illiquidity in the reorganization of the European project and the postsocialist perversion of socialist financial practices a dangerous mix that hid the Macedonian regime's weakness behind a façade of urban renewal and for a decade made it seem omnipresent and invincible Dark Finance chronicles how one bad deal at a time Macedonia's authoritarian regime rode a wave of financial expansion that deepened its reach into Macedonian society only to discover that its domination like all speculative bubbles was teetering on the verge of collapse

Entrepreneurship and Family Business Jerome A. Katz, G. Thomas Lumpkin, Alex Stewart, 2010-06-23 Deals with the issue of entrepreneurship and family business This title considers the issues problems contexts or processes that make a family firm more entrepreneurial It covers topics such as the emergence and growth of family businesses and the use of entrepreneurial policies practices and strategies by family firms

The Liminal Worker Manos Spyridakis, 2016-03-03 The Liminal Worker examines the experience of work employment employment insecurity and precariousness in a context of high unemployment and welfare state crisis in modern Greece A theoretically informed anthropological exploration of the notion of work in contemporary western society and its relation to processes of political decision making this book challenges the mainstream conception of work as an economic or purely productive activity presenting a comparative analysis of work as a social phenomenon Drawing on original empirical research it explores the key themes of the transformation experience meaning and narrative of work and its relation to attendant social policies A unique examination of the complicated experience of work and labour relations within power systems institutions and organisations as well as the reactions and survival strategies of ordinary actors facing precariousness in their daily existence The Liminal Worker elaborates upon the notion of the anthropology of work and investigates the connection between ethnographic data and its critical analysis and the formation of policy As such it will be of interest to anthropologists sociologists policy makers and geographers concerned with questions of work labour relations and policy formation After the Crisis James G. Carrier, 2016-02-12 After the Crisis Anthropological Thought Neoliberalism and the Aftermath offers a thought provoking examination of the state of contemporary anthropology identifying key issues that have confronted the discipline in recent years and linking them to neoliberalism and suggesting how we might do things differently in the future The first part of the volume considers how anthropology has come to resemble as a result of the rise of postmodern and poststructural approaches in the field key elements of neoliberalism and neoclassical economics by rejecting the idea of system in favour of individuals It also investigates the effect of the economic crisis on funding and support for higher education and addresses the sense that anthropology has lost its way with uncertainty over the purpose and future of the discipline The second part of the book explores how the discipline can overcome its difficulties and place itself on a firmer foundation suggesting ways that we can productively combine the debates of the late twentieth century with a renewed sense that people live their lives not as individuals but as enmeshed in webs of relationship and obligation Petty Capitalists and Globalization Alan Smart, Josephine Smart, 2012-02-01 Globalization is often seen as driven by large corporations and supranational organizations Enterprises operated by petty capitalists may be small but there is nothing petty about their significance for the operation of economies or our understanding of contemporary societies families and localities Petty Capitalism and Globalization uses ethnographic research to examine how small firms in Europe Asia and Latin America have been compelled to operate and compete in a fast moving transnational economic environment From Nepalese rug makers to German bakers to Taiwanese memory chip designers these fascinating case studies delve into the complex situation of petty capitalists often ambiguously situated between capital and labor cooperation and exploitation family and economy tradition and modernity friends and competitors Understanding the position of petty capitalists in a global economy provides lessons in the potential and limitations of promoting small firms and entrepreneurship as a route to sustainable development Mexicans on the Move F. Rothstein, 2016-05-30 This book describes and analyzes migration of individuals from San Cosme Mazatecochco in central Mexico to a new United States community in New Jersey Based on four decades of anthropological research in Mazatecochco and among migrants in New Jersey Rothstein traces the causes and consequences of migration and who returned home why and how return migrants reintegrated back into their homeland Headlines of Nation, Subtexts of Class Don Kalb, Gábor Halmai, 2011-09-01 Since 1989 neo nationalism has grown as a volatile political force in almost all European societies in tandem with the formation of a neoliberal European Union and wider capitalist globalizations Focusing on working classes situated in long run localized processes of social change including processes of dispossession and disenfranchisement this volume investigates how the experiences histories and relationships of social class are a necessary ingredient for explaining the re emergence and dynamics of populist nationalism in both Eastern and Western Europe Featuring in depth urban and regional case studies from Romania Hungary Serbia Italy and Scotland this volume reclaims class for anthropological research and lays out a new interdisciplinary agenda for studying identity politics in the intensifying neoliberal conjuncture

The Modern Family Business L. Collins, L. Grisoni, J. Tucker, C. Seaman, S. Graham, R. Fakoussa, D. Otten, 2016-01-18 Provides real world studies of the family in business by observing typical firms rather than dynasties It looks at how the nature of family business is changing in our times and provides insight into the lessons we can learn from this The book focuses on the impact for the professional non family manager

Creative Urbanity Emanuela Guano, 2017 Based on more than a decade of ethnographic research in Genoa Italy Creative Urbanity argues for an understanding of contemporary urban life that refuses scholarly condemnation of urban lifestyles and consumption and casts a fresh light on an oft neglected social group the middle class

Participating in the Global Enterprise Fulvia D'Aloisio, 2025-05-01 Viewed through an anthropological lens Automobili Lamborghini the renowned Italian factory of super cars presents a compelling case study As an ethnography spanning three years the book focuses on the different perspectives of the managers and the workers and the effects of the organization on their lives It highlights the increasing value of Automobili Lamborghini for the VW Group globally and analyzes the organizational structure and the industrial relations IR system the so called Mitbestimmung co determination which represents an interesting and original amalgamation between the German model of IR and the Italian tradition of both managerial and trade union action and behaviour

Democracy Struggles Theodora Vetta, 2018-12-17 Tracing the boom of local NGOs since the 1990s in the context of the global political economy of aid current trends of neoliberal state restructuring and shifting post Cold War hegemonies this book explores the associational revolution in post socialist post conflict Serbia Looking into the country s transition through a global and relational analytical prism the ethnography unpacks the various forms of dispossession and inequality entailed in the democracy promotion project

Culture, Economy, Power Winnie Lem, Belinda Leach, 2012-02-01 Grounded in a conviction that anthropological knowledge implies critique and that engaging in anthropology is also ultimately an act of praxis various contributors explore the ways in which the precepts of Marxism continue to illuminate and enhance our understanding of culture economy and politics They focus on the question of epistemology to examine the process of anthropological intellectual production in different national settings and analyze the ways in which hierarchies of power and forms of state domination figure in the formation of subjectivities in different ethnographic contexts The authors also reflect upon how class gender ethnicity racialized forms of ethnicity as well as regional and national identities are configured through the relationships involved in making a living under late capitalism

Encountering Entrepreneurs Elena Sischarenco, 2019-04-09 This book shows the daily life of businessmen in a particularly productive area of Northern Italy Lombardy It provides insights into their business entrepreneurialism and of them as individuals allowing the reader to immerse themselves in these businessmen s world full of plans ideas hopes and failures in the struggle to survive during a time of economic recession The analysis reveals the importance of trust and networks as a way of opposing the vulnerability and risk involved in entrepreneurialism As such the book has an appeal that extends beyond anthropology It will be of interest not only to students of sociology Italian studies and business studies but also to anyone with an interest in seeing business through different lenses Through its close ethnographic accounts of businessmen it provides a different approach to capitalism and a reflection on human nature

Tanners of Taiwan Scott Simon, 2005-03-04 An ethnography of the leather tanning industry in Southern Taiwan Tanners of Taiwan examines what it means to be Chinese The Formation of Peripheral Capital Ceren Deniz, 2023-04-01 This book engages critically with mainstream accounts of Anatolian Tigers in contemporary Turkey Based on her fieldwork in orum Deniz explores the dynamics of medium size businesses with a dual optic of political economy and moral economy She demonstrates that the formation of the entrepreneurial stratum is a multifaceted process and zooms into a range of workplaces to show the entanglements of market and non market dynamics in everyday life This innovative work sheds original light on the role of kinship religion and social values in shaping the everyday politics of labour Ceren Deniz taught Economic Anthropology at Martin Luther University Halle Wittenberg in 2020 2021
