Mafouz And Idris Studies In Arabic Short Fiction:

Studies in the Short Fiction of Mahfouz and Idris Mona Mikhail,1992-05 In this comparative approach to the works of two major contemporary Egyptian writers Mona Mikhail identifies existentialism as a major force in their work Her close examination of the images and metaphors that recur in the short fiction of those two writers shows strong affinities with the works of Ernest Hemingway and Albert Camus concentrating on a central preoccupation with the theme of death as a constant in the works of all four writers Mikhail shows how Mafouz and Idris not only successfully incorporate myth and folklore but also draw upon the rich heritage of classical Arabic Literature as a source for their work Arabic Writing and the domestic film industry in Egypt the fourth largest in the world Artistically his screenplays channeled the ideology of the revolution often raising themes of oppression and liberation and almost always within a storyline of criminal transgression But as he discussed in later articles and interviews the capacity for film to enumerate the flow of life through montage jump cuts lighting and close ups helped him to develop a darker faster and more complex vision of society This technological revolution was followed by a literary one in the 1960s a time when Mahfouz would generate through a series of short trenchant and often comedic novellas a deeply measured meditation on the experience of collective upheaval and the interpersonal impact of political transformation
