Mohammad Ayish,Noha Mellor,2015-10-22 In this consideration of media practice in the Arab region Mohammad Ayish and Noha Mellor explore the changing status and function of journalists and journalism given the new realities of reporting in the digital age The authors draw on focus group discussions interviews and social media traffic surveys to examine how social and new media have been integrated into Arab and pan Arab newsroom operations and harnessed to enhance engagement with an empowered audience Efforts to engage with audiences in social space Ayish and Mellor argue are part of a broad and long waged information war aimed at winning hearts and minds in the MENA region Social platforms present excellent opportunities to engage with audiences but the extent to which such opportunities can be realized are hamstrung by limits on free expression and online access and vary significantly from country to country and from media channel to media channel Overall Reporting in the MENA Region paints a comprehensive and contemporary picture of how today's Arab journalists perceive and use digital media the region but are embedded within each states socio cultural context individual government agendas and political realities Including case study analysis which brings the more marginal nations into the debates as well as new empirical data and critical evaluation of the role of the museum in the Arabian Peninsula societies this book adds fresh perspectives to the study of Gulf heritage and museology It will appeal to regional and international practitioners and academics across the disciplines of museum studies cultural studies and anthropology as well as to anyone with an interest in the Gulf and Middle East
