

Yaretzi decides to give Madhay a call.

"Hi, Madhay."

"Huh... Wha-?" Madhay mumbles sleepily. "It's the middle of the night."

"Well for you it is, I know," replies Yaretzi. "Will you go outside and look at the stars for me?"

"You want me to...?"

"Go outside and say hi to the stars. Tell them I'll see them soon."

Madhay goes to his balcony and looks up at the sky. "Hi, stars," he says. "Yaretzi says she'll see you soon." Then he goes back to sleep.

Life is a Story - story.one Alex M.

Berger, 2025-08-30 Li Wei s life in modern Nanjing is one of quiet routine a steady job a patient girlfriend nights out with friends But beneath the surface he is adrift haunted by the paths not taken and the people he has loved and lost One rain soaked night cycling through empty streets a cascade of memories pulls him back into the past to humid childhood summers catching fireflies to the fierce encouragement of a teacher who saw his potential and to Xiao Yu the spirited girl who showed him how to leave a mark on the world only to vanish from his life Nanjing Nights is a deeply atmospheric and introspective journey through one man s reckoning with regret duty and the elusive nature of happiness With the ancient city itself as a backdrop its palaces and alleyways humming with history Nanjing Nights asks a timeless question how do we move forward when we are forever tethered to what we ve left behind Veiling Esther, Unveiling Her Story Adam J.

Silverstein, 2018-10-18 Veiling Esther Unveiling Her Story The Reception of a Biblical Book in Islamic Lands examines the ways in which the Biblical Book of Esther was read understood and used in Muslim lands from ancient to modern times It focuses on case studies covering works from various periods and regions of the Muslim world including the Qur an pre modern historical chronicles and literary works the writings of a nineteenth century Shia feminist a twentieth century Iranian encyclopaedia and others These case studies demonstrate that Muslim sources contain valuable materials on Esther which shed light both on the Esther story itself and on the Muslim peoples and cultures that received it Adam J Silverstein argues that Muslim sources preserve important pre Islamic materials on Esther that have not survived elsewhere some of which offer answers to ancient questions about Esther such as the meaning of Haman s epithet in the Greek versions of the story the reason why Mordecai refused to prostrate before Haman and the literary context of the plot of the eunuchs to kill the Persian king Throughout the book Silverstein shows how each author s cultural and religious background influenced his or her understanding and retelling of the Esther story In particular he highlights that Persian Muslims and Jews were often forced to reconcile or choose between the conflicting historical narratives provided by their religious and cultural heritages respectively

The South African Short Story in English, 1920-2010 Marta Fossati, 2024-09-05 Through detailed close readings alongside investigations into the history of print culture Marta Fossati traces the development of the South African short story in English from the late 1920s to the first decade of the twenty first century She examines a selection of short stories by important Black South African writers Rolfes and Herbert Dhlomo Peter Abrahams Can Themba Alex La Guma Mtutuzeli Matshoba Ahmed Essop and Zo Wicomb with an alertness to the dialogue between ethics and aesthetics performed by these texts This new history of Black short fiction problematises and interrogates the often polarised readings of Black literature in South Africa that can be torn between notions of literariness protest and journalism Due to material constraints short fiction in South Africa circulated first and foremost through local print media which Fossati analyses in detail to show the cross fertilisation between journalism and the short story While rooted in the South African context the short stories considered also hold a translocal dimension allowing us to explore the ethical and aesthetic practice of intertextuality These are writings that complicate the aesthetics ethics binary generic classifications and the categories of the literary and the political Theoretically eclectic in its approach although largely underpinned by a narratological analysis The South African Short Story in English 1920 2010 When Aesthetics Meets Ethics offers a fresh perspective on the South African short story in English spotlighting several hitherto marginalised figures in South African literary studies includes world conquering disco successes like Stayin Alive and More Than a Woman both from the soundtrack of the hit film Saturday Night Fever But the Bee Gees s extraordinary career was one of highs and lows From a vicious but temporary split in 1969 to several unreleased albums disastrous TV and film appearances and a demoralising cabaret season the group weren t always revelling in the glow of million selling albums private jets and UNICEF concerts Yet even in the Gibbs darkest times their music was rarely out of the charts as sung by the likes of Al Green Kenny Rogers and Dolly Parton and Destiny s Child Capturing the human story at the heart of the Bee Gees this book is a lyrical and stylish read delighting hardcore fans with its details while engaging casual pop readers who simply want to know more about this important and enigmatic group
