Now Voices The Poetry Of The Present:

Poetry and the Physical Voice Francis Berry, 2025-08-29 First published in 1962 Poetry and the Physical Voice is a companion volume to author's Poets Grammar and its conclusions might well be related to his own recently published collection Morant Bay and Other Poems An enquiry as to how far the fact that poetry is vocal sound was modified by the invention of printing The eye perusal of some kinds of prose and even of verse is one thing the recognition of an individual voice behind an unsigned passage of poetry is another Shakespeare for a career wrote words to be spoken by voices which he could hear in imagination since their owners were well known to him but Tennyson composed aloud and so was confined to effects which his own voice could produce Besides Shakespeare and Tennyson Mr Berry considers other poets including some who have spoken out for themselves on gramophone records He further establishes that if a poet's physical voice its timbre and range tends to condition his achievement it also predisposes him to the use of particular syntactical and grammatical forms Some kinds of voice to show special advantage when using such forms and thus exploit the emotional moods appropriate to these forms This is an interesting read for scholars and researchers of English poetry and English literature

The Now Voices; the Poetry of the Present Angelo Carli, Theodore Kilman, 1971 Distant Relation Eoin Scott Thomson, 2000 In The Distant Relation Eoin Thomson presents innovative readings of canonical philosophic and literary texts focusing on the distance that mediates the relation between word and thing past and present I and you Through a novel convergence itself arising from a field of philosophic and literary experimentation he challenges previous traditions while demonstrating that his strategy is appropriate to the texts considered The Distant Relation breaks down the artificial division between philosophy and literature by weaving contemporary philosophic arguments through close readings of Carpentier Rulfo Paz and Garcia Marquez Thomson draws the reader into the largely uninhabited space between philosophy and literature providing new critical strategies that allow text and reader to respond to the very distance they share These strategies involve a reconceptualisation of distance that recognises the productive and affirmative nature of separation The Distant Relation will attract anyone interested in the ongoing struggle to overcome conventional interpretations of language time and identity within the broader context of philosophical trends and Spanish American studies Eoin S Thomson is an independent scholar who has taught in the Department of Philosophy at Trent University The Poems D.H.

Modern English Grammar John Collinson Nesfield,1924 The Family Library of British Poetry from Chaucer to the Present Time James Thomas Fields,Edwin Percy Whipple,1878 Australian Poetry Paul Kane,1996-01-01 This book offers a comprehensive and original reading of Australian poetry from the colonial period to the present through the dual lenses of Romanticism and negativity Paul Kane argues that the absence of Romanticism functions as a crucial presence in the poetry of all the major Australian poets This absence or negativity is both thematic and structural and Kane s scrupulous analyses uncover important relations between Romanticism and negativity Chapters on nine individual poets explore and substantiate the theoretical claims informed by the work of contemporary critics of Romanticism and by various philosophers of negativity These chapters can serve as a series of self contained readings of Australian poets for the use of students scholars and informed general readers Australian Poetry is unique in its sustained argument and theoretical sophistication The Early Poetry of Guittone D'Arezzo Vincent Moleta,1976 The Current ,1886 A Bibliographic Guide to the Literature of Contemporary American Poetry, 1970-1975 Phillis Gershator,1976 Putnam's Monthly Magazine of American Literature, Science, and Art ,1855 Putnam's Magazine. wider culture as extensions of elegiac longings and the tendency to refuse consolation and cede to the endlessness of grief Furthermore this book concludes that contemporary elegies break with conventions of poetic structure and expression rather than the poets seeking resolution to grief through compensation they often find themselves dwelling within the loss rather than externalizing and transcending it The Poetry of Loss Romantic and Contemporary Elegies examines these developing psychoanalytic concepts pertaining to a poetics of loss providing readers with a new appreciation of mourning culture and contemporary attitudes towards grief

Correct English and Current Literary Review ... ,1906 Love and Human Remains R. N. Taber,2001 The Creative Mind in Coleridge's Poetry Kathleen M. Wheeler,1981 Five of Coleridge s major poems are given fresh scrutiny in this arresting study One of its unusual features is the attention given the Preface to Kubla Khan the Gloss to The Ancient Mariner and other prose accompaniments to the poems usually dismissed as extraneous Devices such as these the author argues are strategically employed by Coleridge in an effort to engage the reader in a fully imaginative response Kathleen Wheeler elucidates the texts in terms of aesthetic experience and also in terms of the philosophical principles that inform them showing how Coleridge s theories of mind and imagination function within the poems and shape their design A subtle and gifted reader of poetry she enriches our understanding of poems we thought we knew well and provides insights along the way into the creative process
