Our Accountability To God:

Our Accountability to God Arthur W. Pink, 1999-07-12 To appreciate the amazing grace of God we must understand all that we have been forgiven Bible scholar Arthur Pink helps us see our true condition driving home the truth of the Gospel Readers will develop a more personal appreciation for God's grace and a deeper reverence for His boundless love The Pain Principle: Relationships and Reconciliation George Skoglund, 2014-04 To overcome our dependence on systematic sins for relief from emotional pain we must avoid reoccurring emotional pain that opens separation from God We prevent reoccurring emotional pain from happening by replacing emotional disabilities with emotional abilities Emotional disabilities from adverse reactions to emotional injuries include hate unresolved grief unprovoked anger impatience meanness evil intentions unfaithfulness harshness and undisciplined behavior The fruit of the Holy Spirit are the emotional abilities that we need to nurture God pleasing priorities values and behavior Emotional abilities prevent self serving ego anger and greed from disrupting fellowship with God The fruit of the Holy Spirit are love joy peace patience kindness goodness faithfulness gentleness and self control When we have God pleasing emotional abilities our emotional and spiritual growth experiences overcome adverse reactions to emotional injuries The emotional injuries continue to occur but our response as followers of Jesus Christ avoids reoccurring emotional pain We experience emotional renewal that defeats emotional pain when our love for God becomes the humility and compassion we show in our relationships with others Steps John Ortberg, 2025-02-04 Is there really any hope for a spiritual way of living that actually works Admiration comfort love power success pleasure escape control we're all addicted to something whether we realize it or not In this deeply heartfelt book author John Ortberg offers a guide for transformation when we know something needs to change but we can't do it on our own Rooted in the teachings of Jesus and using the framework of AAs 12 steps as a guide Ortberg offers all of us a freeing roadmap for Giving up our exhausting and fruitless efforts to fix manage and control our own lives Distinguishing between when willpower is essential and when it is futile Discovering how God can do for us what we can't do for ourselves and living authentically joyfully and in communion with God and other people Ortberg shows us how to discover Our spiritual attachment styles Our core doubts The benefits of practices like prayer meditation and mindfulness God's sufficiency in our inadequacy In Steps find what's needed to experience a new freedom a new fellowship and a new happiness no matter our circumstances The Single Individual and the Searcher of Hearts Jeff Morgan, 2020-07-09 Jeff Morgan argues that both Immanuel Kant and Søren Kierkegaard think of conscience as an individual's moral self awareness before God specifically before the claim God makes on each person This innovative reading corrects prevailing views that both figures especially Kant lay the groundwork for the autonomous individual of modern life that is the atomistic individual who is accountable chiefly to themselves as their own lawmaker This book first challenges the dismissal of conscience in 20th century Christian ethics often in favour of an emphasis on corporate life and corporate self understanding Morgan shows that this dismissal is based on a misinterpretation of Immanuel Kant's practical philosophy and moral theology and of Søren Kierkegaard's second authorship. He does this with refreshing discussions of Stanley Hauerwas, Oliver O'Donovan and other major figures. Morgan instead situates Kant and Kierkegaard within a broad trajectory in Christian thought in which an individual's moral self-awareness before God as distinct from moral self-awareness before a community is an essential feature of the Christian moral life.

The Expectation of the Poor Guillermo Cook, 2021-05-04 This is by far the most serious study undertaken by a Protestant missiologist on the Latin American base ecclesial communities. It is also one of the few studies that relates this extraordinary ecclesial phenomenon with its counterpart in Protestant history. The fact that Cook writes not only as a Protestant but as one identified with the evangelical tradition makes it all the more relevant. It should be required reading for everyone interested in the life and mission of the grassroots church in the Americas and in the renewal of local congregations everywhere Orlando E Costas Andover Newton Theological School The book is painstakingly researched extraordinarily well written and in my judgment sets a new benchmark for understanding one of the truly phenomenal things God is doing among grassroots Christians in Latin America Alan Neely Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary Guillermo Cook has performed an invaluable service. With his encyclopedic grasp of the history, ethos and current activities of the comunidades de base grassroots lay communities in the Latin American Catholic Church he has provided a vivid reminder of the sort of parallel stirrings that brought renewal to many Protestant churches and spawned new spiritual movements during the last four hundred years These Catholic ecclesial communities are being used of God to transform static clergy dominated sacramentalist structures into living spontaneous movements of loving service and evangelistic concern All should join Dr Cook in praying that they shall continue to be the Hope of the Church and the Expectation of the Poor throughout Latin America today and tomorrow Arthur F Glasser Fuller Theological Seminary

The Expectation of the Poor is the most inclusive study on the subject that I know Cook brings to this task his long years of experience and study as a missiologist who has spent decades working in Latin America His bibliography is probably the most complete on the subject that has been published Mortimer Arias author of The Cry of My People Love That Will Not Quit! Marilyn Kirk, 2023-02-09

You're walking down a path with Jesus Discretion tells you to be quiet allowing Him to talk As you walk together the length of the path which leads you know not where Jesus begins to talk to you about yourself He unveils God's will for you with each step of the way allowing you to choose to walk further or not He shows you your current life as a believer telling you where God wants to take you from where you now are He begins by taking you back in history to His command to His disciples to love all persons as He and the Father loves them An impossible assignment they conclude unless it is realized by allowing oneself to be God's vessel for His love to pass through Becoming this vessel begins by prioritizing one's life around the Word of God In it God empowers the believer to be His true vessel As you continue walking Jesus describes the criterion for discipleship as knowing God's Word and walking in it You learn much as you listen and walk this long path with Jesus Intellectual assent is not the same as surrendering to Him Jesus explains nor can one be a part time believer Discipleship requires a surrendering completely and consistently to God's Word which allows the Holy Spirit to engraft that Word upon the believer's soul Change results The likeness of Jesus is birthed in the believer You and Jesus arrive at the end of the path which delivers you to His likeness

Breaking Open God's Word Celine Goessl SCSC, 2015-07-24

Breaking Open God's Word A Three year Cycle of Reflections on the Sunday Readings of the Liturgical Year invites readers to embark upon a journey through the riches of the Catholic Church's three year lectionary for readings for Sunday Mass The lectionary a sequence of appointed passages from the texts of the Old and New Testaments pairs readings with the seasons and feasts of the church year Sister Celine Goessl a member of the Sisters of Mercy of the Holy Cross has taken a lifetime practice of prayerful listening to the messages God shares through scriptural texts and brought it into conversation with her immersion in the details of daily life to create the collection of reflections appearing in Breaking Open God's Word The intent of this collection is to help God's Word enfold itself in the reader's daily life and to empower him or her to take action to live as Christ's presence in other people's lives You may watch the changing of the seasons in your parish's worship and hear the variety of texts read at Mass As you do and you find life presenting you with ever changing challenges to your faith Breaking

Open Gods Word offers to accompany you on your daily journey Along the way Sister Celine Goessls prayerful reflections can offer you inspiration and guidance for living and witnessing faithfully in whatever circumstances you face each day A Testimony-Driven Life Astra Williams Brantley, PsyD,2020-08-11 A Testimony Driven Life Biblical Stewardship Living Discipling Disciples of Disciples in an Adversity Centered World Our hearts weep with Christ and pray with Him in intercession for the saints for they are not mission ready Our hearts are grieved to agony with the Holy Spirit because not every Christian is equipped to disciple disciples of disciples The testimony of God the Father Who is Jesus Christ and the testimony of God the Holy Spirit Who testifies only of Jesus are not faithfully reflected in the word of our testimony So how do we inspire each and every Christian to learn submit commit to sharing their own testimony at all times in all places to encourage other Christians as well as to cause others to come to Christ How can we inspire Gods people to DO THE TRUTH John 3 21 When God does a work in us or through us then we should give Him the glory by sharing of our personal testimony As spiritual beings commissioned to live out a physical existence in an adversity centered world God expects much fruit that is for us to do just as Jesus did go and make steadfast disciples capable of making disciples This is the WHAT of our obedience Our HOW is to depend on the Holy Spirit as we learn to live love serve like Christ our biblical stewardship living WHY Starting with our singular purpose a testimony driven life that pleases and glorifies God we know what will be the result discipling disciples of disciples but we need to understand that biblical stewardship living is HOW we get it done

The Analogy of Grace Gerald McKenny,2010-03-18 Once considered inimical to ethics Karl Barths theology is now rightly recognized for the central role ethics plays in it But can Barth be safely placed in the mainstream tradition of Christian moral theology or does he offer a challenge to the latter Gerald McKenny argues that the claim that God not only establishes the good from eternity but also brings it about in time is of fundamental importance to Barths mature ethics The good confronts us from the site of its fulfilment in Jesus Christ who has accomplished it in our place The result is a vision of the moral life as a human analogy to Gods grace a vision which contrasts with the bourgeois vision of the moral life as an expression of human capability Barths moral theology is presented here as the attempt to reorder ethical thought and practice in light of this fundamental claim This lucid and well argued study is the most comprehensive treatment of Barths ethics to date offering a thorough account of the development of Barths ethical thought and a wide ranging analysis of its chief concepts and arguments McKenny explains why certain widespread assumptions about Barths moral theology are mistaken and explores the rich complex and often surprising ways in which Barths position engages the traditions of Christian ethics and modern continental moral thought Above all McKenny shows why Barths moral theology deserves our attention in spite of or rather because of its uneasy fit in the mainstream tradition of Christian moral theology Spiritual Formation Larry E. Houck,2015-02-09 How do we form a strong spiritual life when even wholesome activities can drain spiritual energy How and when should we extend Christ honoring compassion to others Using the cross as a visual Spiritual Formation guides us through four sections of developing an ever increasing vertical passion for God and never failing horizontal compassion for others The familiar disciplines and exercises of Spiritual Formation would seem to produce cloned Christians but Dr Houck explains how personalities strengths and weaknesses determine how we live out these disciplines No matter how much passion for God and passion for others we develop we never cease movement through Spiritual Formation sections Joy found in the journey will lead us back to section one to embrace those who have not yet started the journey or have faltered on the way Spiritual Formation The Joy of the Journey calls each of us to follow Gods unique personal path to passion for God and compassion for others
