Art Criticism and Modernism in the United States Stephen Moonie, 2022-03-22 This study is an analysis of high and late modernist criticism in New York during the 1960s and early 1970s Through a close reading of a selection of key critics of the period which will expand the remit beyond the canonical texts the book examines the ways that modernist criticism's discourse remains of especial disciplinary interest. Despite its alleged narrowness and exclusion, the debates of the 1960s raised fundamental questions concerning the nature of art writing. Those include arguments around the nature of value and judgement, the relationship between art criticism and art history, and the related problem of what we mean by the contemporary. Stephen Moonie argues that within those often fractious debates, there exists a shared discourse. And further, contrary to the current consensus that modernists were elitist, dogmatic, and irrelevant to contemporary debates on art, the study shows that there is much that we can learn from reconsidering their writings. The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history, modern art, art criticism, and literary studies. Jacob

& Esau Malachi Haim Hachohen, 2019-01-10 Accommodates both the cosmopolitan narrative of the Jewish diaspora with traditional Jews and their culture. Alice Neel: People Come First Kelly Baum, Randall Griffey, Meredith A. Brown, Julia Bryan-Wilson, Susanna V. Temkin, 2021-03-15 For me, people come first. Alice Neel 1900-1984 declared in 1950, "I have tried to assert the dignity and eternal importance of the human being." This ambitious publication surveys Neel's nearly 70-year career through the lens of her radical humanism. Remarkable portraits of victims of the Great Depression, fellow residents of Spanish Harlem, leaders of political organizations, queer artists, visibly pregnant women, and members of New York's global diaspora reveal that Neel viewed humanism as both a political and philosophical ideal. In addition to these paintings of famous and unknown sitters, the more than 100 works highlighted include Neel's emotionally charged cityscapes and still lifes, as well as the artist's erotic pastels and watercolors. Essays tackle Neel's portrayal of LGBTQ subjects, her unique aesthetic language, which merged abstraction and figuration, and her commitment to progressive politics, civil rights, feminism, and racial diversity. The authors also explore Neel's highly personal preoccupations with death, illness, and motherhood while reasserting her place in the broader cultural history of the 20th century. Magdalene Odundo Sequoia Miller, 2024-09-10 Magdalene

Odundo b. 1950 is a Kenyan-born British ceramicist whose extraordinary works have been widely celebrated for their beauty and universality. Her studies of classical forms across many global traditions, from Greek and Chinese to Aztec and African, are evident in her intimate, evocative shapes. Gardiner Museum Chief Curator Sequoia Miller sheds light on the colonial and material traditions that inform Odundo's ceramics, showing how the artist deftly blends cultural and ethnographic sources to give expression to the postcolonial experience. This beautifully illustrated book discusses Odundo's innovative method and puts her ceramic forms into conversation with global contemporary art. This close examination allows for a careful look at the artist's works on paper, her prints, and sketchbook drawings, published here in depth for the first time, demonstrating how they are a fundamental aspect of her creative practice. The book also features an in-depth Q&A with Odundo in which she shares rare insights into her sense of self as an artist. The Bloomsbury Handbook of Sound Art Sanne Krogh Groth, Holger Schulze, 2020-02-20 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Sound Art explores and delineates what Sound Art is in the 21st century.
