MacNiven, 2014-11-18 A biography thoughtful and playful of the man who founded New Directions and transformed American publishing James Laughlin poet publisher world class skier was the man behind some of the most daring revolutionary works in verse and prose of the twentieth century As the founder of New Directions he published Ezra Pound s The Cantos and William Carlos Williams s Paterson he brought Hermann Hesse and Jorge Luis Borges to an American audience Throughout his life this tall charismatic intellectual athlete and entrepreneur preferred to stay hidden But no longer in Literchoor Is My Beat A Life of James Laughlin Publisher of New Directions Ian S MacNiven has given us a sensitive and revealing portrait of this visionary and the understory of the last century of American letters Laughlin or J as MacNiven calls him emerges as an impressive and complex figure energetic idealistic and hardworking but also plagued by doubts not about his ability to identify and nurture talent but about his own worth as a writer Haunted by his father's struggles with bipolar disorder J threw himself into a flurry of activity pulling together the first New Directions anthology before he'd graduated from Harvard and purchasing and managing a ski resort in Utah MacNiven's portrait is comprehensive and vital spiced with Ezra Pound's eccentric letters J's romantic foibles and anecdotes from a seat of your pants era of publishing now gone by A story about the struggle to publish only the best it is itself an example of literary biography at its finest World War III! Michael Campbell, 2008-04 The Book of Revelations describes the events leading up to the Second Coming of Jesus Christ The Apostle John describes the 21st Century while giving us essential information Was 9 11 the beginning of World War III Are both Bush administrations playing key roles in the incredible drama of the last days Is President George W Bush a hero or a villain Will the next terrorist attack include nuclear radiation Will the Iraq War be the catalyst precipitating a series of events that will result in the death of one third of the human race What should we be doing now to become fully prepared for these cataclysmic events Despite the terrible turmoil and the gathering clouds of doom we need not fear The Plan of God will prevail Satan will be defeated because the Atonement of Jesus Christ has made it impossible for evil to survive In the end good will conquer evil The purpose of life is to make choices People who choose to love others and to be kind will fulfill the purpose of their mortal existence They are the people who are embracing the eternal opportunities that have been provided by God They will be happy forever American Art Directory, 2004 The biographical material formerly included in the directory is issued separately as Who's who in American art 1936-37 An Irish-Speaking Island Nicholas M. Wolf, 2014-11-25 This groundbreaking book shatters historical stereotypes demonstrating that in the century before 1870 Ireland was not an anglicized kingdom and was capable of articulating modernity in the Irish language It gives a dynamic account of the complexity of Ireland in the nineteenth century developments in church and state and the adaptive bilingualism found across all regions social levels and religious persuasions Geographers Elizabeth Baigent, André Reyes Novaes, 2019-12-26 Women are the exclusive focus of the 38th volume of Geographers For the first time in the series's history the entire volume is devoted to important work of distinguished female geographers amply demonstrating how these scholars' professional lives enrich the discipline's history It also illustrates how reading and writing their biographies not only expands our understanding of geography's past but points to its more diverse future The collection includes biographies of Doreen Massey winner of geography's Nobel prize the prix Vautrin Lud for her remarkable contribution to geography and neighbouring disciplines which discovered the importance of space through her work Helen Wallis geographer and historian of cartography who for many years had charge of the UK's foremost collection of maps Alice Saunier Se t who applied her geographical training and formidable energy to teaching and educational reform in France Isabel Margarida Andr who lived through a turbulent political period in her native Portugal and meticulously investigated its effect on women and political geography and the many women who helped to create the UK's first Geography department the University of Oxford's School of Geography including Fanny Herbertson Nora MacMunn Marjorie Sweeting Mary Marshall Barbara Kennedy and other women geographers who are memorialised in a group article The Illustrated London News ,1865 Bombs, Bullets and Bread Michael Kemp,2018-09-06 During the late 19th and early 20th centuries a wave of political violence swept across the globe causing widespread alarm Described by the media of the day as propaganda of the deed assassinations bombings and assaults carried out by anarchists both individuals and conspirators were intended to incite revolution and established the precedents of modern terrorism Much has been written about these actions and the responses to them yet little attention has been given to the actors themselves Drawing on wide range of sources the author profiles numerous insurgents their deeds and their motives
