Children and Cultural Memory in Texts of Childhood Heather Snell, Lorna Hutchison, 2013-11-07 The essays in this collection address the relationship between children and cultural memory in texts both for and about young people The collection overall is concerned with how cultural memory is shaped contested forgotten recovered and re circulated sometimes in opposition to dominant national narratives and often for the benefit of young readers who are assumed not to possess any prior cultural memory From the innovative development of school libraries in the 1920s to the role of utopianism in fixing cultural memory for teen readers it provides a critical look into children and ideologies of childhood as they are represented in a broad spectrum of texts including film poetry literature and architecture from Canada the United States Japan Germany Britain India and Spain These cultural forms collaborate to shape ideas and values in turn contributing to dominant discourses about national and global citizenship The essays included in the collection imply that childhood is an oft imagined idealist construction based in large part on participation identity and perception childhood is invisible and tangible exciting and intriguing and at times elusive even as cultural and literary artifacts recreate it Children and Cultural Memory in Texts of Childhood is a valuable resource for scholars of children's literature and culture readers interested in childhood and ideology and those working in the fields of diaspora and postcolonial studies School Days Melissa A. be called have become close enough to vow to stay together all the way to their new home in Utah The Sisters must now travel overland by railroads and waterways to the Mormon outfitting camp in Nebraska Territory where they plan to join the down and back wagons and trek to the Salt Lake Valley As they make this journey the Sisters experience many difficulties from the rigors of changing trains and riverboats to sleeping outside in unpredictable weather to wondering when or where they will find their next sustenance While facing unexpected accidents sickness and loss the Sisters trek the last thousand miles on foot in unforgiving environments with the possibility of cattle and buffalo stampedes hostile Indians and treacherous river crossings In this continuing historical tale the Seven Sisters must face their biggest fears and rely on their faith courage and optimism to survive this challenging journey to their Zion home

Embracing the Track of Phrase: An Emotional Symphony within Pioneer Sisters A Little House Chapter

In a world taken by displays and the ceaseless chatter of immediate connection, the melodic elegance and psychological symphony created by the published word often disappear in to the back ground, eclipsed by the relentless noise and disturbances that permeate our lives. However, situated within the pages of Pioneer Sisters A Little House Chapter a stunning fictional prize full of raw feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by an outstanding musician of language, that interesting masterpiece conducts visitors on a psychological journey, skillfully unraveling the hidden tunes and profound affect resonating within each cautiously constructed phrase. Within the depths of the touching assessment, we can examine the book is main harmonies, analyze its enthralling publishing fashion, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
