Do Something Else Nathaniel D. Phillips, 2016-02-05 Do Something Else is meant to encourage faith communities and their leaders to reconsider church as usual reengage Spirit led entrepreneurialism and reimagine new models of ministry bubbling up in their midst Many churches and leaders are already setting the pace They are establishing new gatherings in old buildings and using new building to do old things They are emphasizing diversity welcome and friendship If these stories are hidden from view they shouldn't be These pages will uncover how new expressions get started how they are led how they struggle and how they are sustained Do Something Else will encourage candidates for ministry who see limited options ministers who wonder about staying in ministry clergy call seekers trying to find hope in a desolate career landscape and churches attempting to manage staffs with limited resources It will also offer permission to small churches resigned to be without a pastor larger churches looking to do a new thing in an unorthodox way and middle governing bodies who need promising examples of working models in order to take the risk on new opportunities

Scottie May,Beth Posterski,Catherine Stonehouse,Linda Cannell,2005-08-31 Children today are no longer expected to be seen and not heard yet in many churches children are involved only in programs specifically designated for them Children Matter offers a full discussion of children s spirituality and shows how the faith community can better nurture its youngest members Speaking from their experience with children s ministry in a range of Protestant traditions the authors draw on the Bible history and psychology to lay good foundations for such ministry Discussing the specific content and contexts of faith formation they also offer wise and practical advice on putting together effective ministries Rather than focusing on innovative ways to use technology Children Matter emphasizes relationships between people and encourages the church to welcome all children as valued participants in the people of God Eliminating Church Fights with By-Laws: Quick Wisdom for Church Leadership

But Children Matter Kenneth G. Warren,John S. Knox,2020-02-14 Often a disconnect exists between the way pastors children's ministry volunteers and churches describe the health and impact of children's ministry volunteers and the overall functioning of an ongoing children's ministry The volunteer dysfunction that is evident in many churches goes beyond the building scenario or the current strategy that leadership is pursuing If one asks the pastor of just about any local church how the children's ministry is going most pastors will respond positively However if speaking with a children's ministry volunteer one is likely to hear I am burned out but I feel obligated to serve here because we have such a shortage of volunteers and I do love these kids Too often there is no program in place to monitor the health of the ministry Official training is lacking church vision is blurred and many children's ministry volunteers feel like they are nothing more than large group unpaid babysitters This book analyzes these problems and provides pragmatic systematic steps to a healthier more robust children's ministry
