Sending Money Home Hispanic Remittances And Community Development:

Sending Money Home Rodolfo O. De la Garza, Briant Lindsay Lowell, 2002 For international migrants seeking employment in the United States the desire to remit a portion of their earnings to their home countries is a time honored custom The flow of money southward from the United States has evolved from a stream flowing from families through informal networks to a major river with new tributaries fed by transnational migrant organizations channeled through an increasingly formal marketplace and attracting the involvement of home country governments This volume tracks the evolution of the flow of money home offering new data to enhance the picture and understanding of this important economic phenomenon

Migrant Remittances in South Asia M. Rahman, T. Yong, A. Ullah, 2014-11-25 This volume provides theoretical treatments of remittance on how its development potential is translated into reality The authors meticulously delve into diverse mechanisms through which migrant communities remit investigating how recipients engage in the development process in South Asia

The Economics of Migrants' Remittances in Bangladesh Mohammad Moniruzzaman, 2009

Immigrants and Their International Money Flows Susan Pozo, 2007 Presents a typology of migration remittance systems Discusses effects of remittances on economic development in migrant sending countries Points to the multidimensional ties that exist between migrants and the communities from which they originate

New Perspectives on Remittances from Mexicans and Central Americans in the United States Germán Zárate-Hoyos, 2007 Democratic Renewal and the Mutual Aid Legacy of US Mexicans Julie Leininger Pycior, 2014-05-17 The legacy of the historic mutual aid organizing by US Mexicans with its emphasis on self help and community solidarity continues to inform Mexican American activism and subtly influence a number of major US social movements In Democratic Renewal and the Mutual Aid Legacy of US Mexicans Julie Leininger Pycior traces the early origins of organizing in the decades following the US Mexican War when Mexicans in the Southwest established mutualista associations for their protection Further she traces the ways in which these efforts have been invoked by contemporary Latino civil rights leaders Pycior notes that the Mexican immigrant associations instrumental in the landmark 2006 immigration reform marches echo mutualista societies at their peak in the 1920s Then Mexican immigrants from San Diego to New York engaged in economic medical cultural educational and legal aid This path breaking study culminates with an examination of Southwest community organizing networks as crucial counterweights to the outsize role of large financial contributions in the democratic political process It also finds ways in which this community organizing echoes the activity of mutualista groups in the very same neighborhoods a century ago

Out of the Shadows, Into the Streets! Sasha Costanza-Chock, 2014-10-24 An exploration of social movement media practices in an increasingly complex media ecology through richly detailed cases of immigrant rights activism For decades social movements have vied for attention from the mainstream mass media newspapers radio and television Today many argue that social media power social movements from the Egyptian revolution to Occupy Wall Street Yet as Sasha Costanza Chock reports community organizers know that social media enhance rather than replace face to face organizing The revolution will be tweeted but tweets alone do not the revolution make In Out of the Shadows Into the Streets Costanza Chock traces a much broader social movement media ecology Through a richly detailed account of daily media practices in the immigrant rights movement the book argues that there is a new paradigm of social movement media making transmedia organizing Despite the current spotlight on digital media Costanza Chock finds social movement media practices tend to be cross platform participatory and linked to action Immigrant rights organizers leverage social media creatively even as they create media ranging from posters and street theater to Spanish language radio print and television Drawing on extensive interviews workshops and media organizing projects Costanza Chock presents case studies of transmedia organizing in the immigrant rights movement over the last decade Chapters focus on the historic mass protests against the anti immigrant Sensenbrenner Bill coverage of police brutality against peaceful activists efforts to widen access to digital media tools and skills for low wage immigrant workers paths to participation in DREAM activism and the implications of professionalism for transmedia organizing These cases show us how savvy transmedia organizers work to strengthen movement identity win political and economic victories and transform public consciousness forever Latino Politics En Ciencia Politica Tony Affigne,Evelyn Hu-DeHart,Marion Orr,2014-04-25 More than 53 million Latinos now constitute the largest fastest growing and most diverse minority group in the United States and the nation s political future may well be shaped by Latinos continuing political incorporation In the 2012 election Latinos proved to be a critical voting bloc in both Presidential and Congressional races this demographic will only become more important in future American elections Using new evidence from the largest ever scientific survey addressed exclusively to Latino Hispanic respondents Latino Politics en Ciencia Poltica explores political diversity within the Latino community considering how intra community differences influence political behavior and policy preferences The editors and contributors all noted scholars of race and politics examine key issues of Latino politics in the contemporary United States Latino a identities latinidad transnationalism acculturation political community and racial consciousness The book contextualizes today s research within the history of Latino political studies from the field s beginnings to the present explaining how systematic analysis of Latino political behavior has over time become integral to the study of political science Latino Politics en Ciencia Poltica is thus an ideal text for learning both the state of the field today and key dimensions of Latino political attitudes Debating Brain Drain Gillian Brock,Michael I. Blake,2015 Many of the most skilled and educated citizens of developing countries choose to emigrate How may those societies respond to these facts May they ever legitimately prevent the emigration of their citizens Gillian Brock and Michael Blake debate these questions and offer distinct arguments about the morality of emigration Economic Lives Viviana A. Zelizer,2013-03-24 Revealing the human side of economic life Over the past three decades economic sociology has been revealing how culture shapes economic life even while economic facts affect social relationships This work has transformed the field into a flourishing and increasingly influential discipline No one has played a greater role in this development than Viviana Zelizer one of the world s leading sociologists Economic Lives synthesizes and extends her most important work to date demonstrating the full breadth and range of her field defining contributions in a single volume for the first time Economic Lives shows how shared cultural understandings and interpersonal relations shape everyday economic activities Far from being simple responses to narrow individual incentives and preferences economic actions emerge persist and are transformed by our relations to others Distilling three decades of research the book offers a distinctive vision of economic activity that brings out the hidden meanings and social actions behind the supposedly impersonal worlds of production consumption and asset transfer Economic Lives ranges broadly from life insurance marketing corporate ethics household budgets and migrant remittances to caring labor workplace romance baby markets and payments for sex These examples demonstrate an alternative approach to explaining how we manage economic activity as well as a different way of understanding why conventional economic theory has proved incapable of predicting or responding to recent economic crises Providing an important perspective on the recent past and possible futures of a growing field Economic Lives promises to be widely read and discussed

Forgotten Families Jody Heymann, 2006-02-16 Based on over a thousand in depth interviews and survey data from more than 55 000 families spanning five continents Forgotten Families is the first truly global account of how the changing conditions of work threaten children women and men and the infirm It addresses problems faced by working families in industrialized and developing countries alike touching on issues of child health and development barriers to parents getting and keeping jobs problems families confront daily and in times of crisis and the roles of growing inequalities

Immigration and Asylum Matthew J. Gibney, Randall Hansen, 2005-06-21 A comprehensive and timely examination of the history and current status of immigrants and refugees their stories the events that led to their movement and the place of these movements in contemporary history and politics Immigration and Asylum From 1900 to the Present is an accessible and up to date introduction to the key concepts terms personalities and real world issues associated with the surge of immigration from the beginning of the 20th century to the present It focuses on the United States but is also the first encyclopedic work on the subject that reflects a truly global perspective With contributions from the world s foremost authorities on the subject Immigration and Asylum offers nearly 200 entries organized around four themes immigration and asylum the major migrating groups around the world expulsions and other forced population movements and the politics of migration In addition to basic entries the work includes in depth essays on important trends events and current conditions There is no better resource for exploring just how profoundly the voluntary and forced movement of asylum seekers and refugees has transformed the world and what that transformation means to us today

Uneven Roads Todd Shaw, Louis DeSipio, Dianne Pinderhughes, Toni-Michelle C. Travis, 2018-02-01 Uneven Roads helps you grasp how when and why race and ethnicity matter in U S politics Using the metaphor of a road with twists turns and dead ends this incisive text takes you on a journey to understanding political racialization and the roots of modern interpretations of race and ethnicity The book s structure and narrative are designed to encourage comparison and reflection You will critically analyze the history and context of U S racial and ethnic politics to build the skills needed to draw your own conclusions In the Second Edition of this groundbreaking text authors Shaw DeSipio Pinderhughes and Travis bring the historical narrative to life by addressing the most contemporary debates and challenges affecting U S racial and ethnic politics You will explore important issues regarding voting rights political representation education and criminal justice policies and the immigrant experience A revised final chapter on intersectionality encourages you to examine how groups go beyond the boundaries of race and ethnicity to come together on matters of class gender and sexuality

Foreign Aid and Foreign Policy Louis A. Picard, Robert Groelsema, Terry F. Buss, 2015-01-28 This timely work presents cutting edge analysis of the problems of U S foreign assistance programs why these problems have not been solved in the past and how they might be solved in the future

The book focuses primarily on U S foreign assistance and foreign policy as they apply to nation building governance and democratization The expert contributors examine issues currently in play and also trace the history and evolution of many of these problems over the years They address policy concerns as well as management and organizational factors as they affect programs and policies Foreign Aid and Foreign Policy includes several chapter length case studies on Iraq Pakistan Ghana Haiti and various countries in Eastern Europe and Africa but the bulk of the book presents broad coverage of general topics such as foreign aid and security NGOs and foreign aid capacity building and building democracy abroad Each chapter offers recommendations on how to improve the U S system of aid in the context of foreign policy Let Their People Come Lant Pritchett,2006-09-15 In Let Their People Come Lant Pritchett discusses five irresistible forces of global labor migration and the immovable ideas that form a political backlash against it Increasing wage gaps different demographic futures everything but labor globalization and the continued employment growth in low skilled labor intensive industries all contribute to the forces compelling labor to migrate across national borders Pritchett analyzes the fifth irresistible force of ghosts and zombies or the rapid and massive shifts in desired populations of countries and says that this aspect has been neglected in the discussion of global labor mobility Let Their People Come provides six policy recommendations for unskilled immigration policy that seek to reconcile the irresistible force of migration with the immovable ideas in rich countries that keep this force in check In clear accessible prose this volume explores ways to regulate migration flows so that they are a benefit to both the global North and global South Blurred Borders,2011 Blurred Borders Workers Across the Americas Leon Fink,2011-04-13 The first major volume to place U S centered labor history in a transnational or U S in the world focus Workers Across the Americas invites the leading authors in the field to explore themes of Labor and Empire Indigenous Peoples and Labor Systems International Feminism and Reproductive Labor Labor Recruitment and Immigration Control Transnational Labor Politics and Labor Internationalism The Future of North America, 2025 Armand B. Peschard-Sverdrup,2008-08-28 Transforming Politics, Transforming America Taeku Lee,S. Karthick Ramakrishnan,Ricardo Ramírez,2012-10-05 Over the past four decades the foreign born population in the United States has nearly tripled from about 10 million in 1965 to more than 30 million today This wave of new Americans comes in disproportionately large numbers from Latin America and Asia a pattern that is likely to continue in this century In Transforming Politics Transforming America editors Taeku Lee S Karthick Ramakrishnan and Ricardo Ram rez bring together the newest work of prominent scholars in the field of immigrant political incorporation to provide the first comprehensive look at the political behavior of immigrants Focusing on the period from 1965 to the year 2020 this volume tackles the fundamental yet relatively neglected questions What is the meaning of citizenship and what is its political relevance How are immigrants changing our notions of racial and ethnic categorization How is immigration transforming our understanding of mobilization participation and political assimilation With an emphasis on research that brings innovative theory quantitative methods and systematic data to bear on such questions this volume presents a provocative evidence based examination of the consequences that these demographic changes might have for the contemporary politics of the United States as well as for the concerns categories and conceptual frameworks we use to study race relations and ethnic politics Contributors Bruce Cain University of California Berkeley Grace Cho University of Michigan Jack Citrin University of California Berkeley Louis DeSipio University of California Irvine Brendan Doherty University of California Berkeley Lisa Garcia Bedolla University of California Irvine Zoltan Hajnal University of California San Diego Jennifer Holdaway Social Science Research Council Jane Junn Rutgers University Philip Kasinitz City University of New York Taeku Lee University of California Berkeley John Mollenkopf City University of New York Tatishe Mavovosi Nteta University of California Berkeley Kathryn Pearson University of Minnesota Kenneth Prewitt Columbia University S Karthick Ramakrishnan University of California Riverside Ricardo Ramirez University of Southern California Mary Waters Harvard University Cara Wong University of Michigan Janelle Wong University of Southern California
