Separate But Not Equal James Haskins, 2002-01-01 For use in schools and libraries only Relates the history of African American education from colonial times to Brown v the Board of Education to the present The Harvard Guide to African-American History Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham, 2001 This massive guide sponsored by the W E B Du Bois Institute for Afro American Research at Harvard University and compiled by renowned experts offers a compendium of information and interpretation on over 500 years of black experience in America Teaching Banned Books Pat R. Scales, 2001-06 As a standard bearer for intellectual freedom the school librarian is in an ideal position to collaborate with teachers to not only protect the freedom to read but also ensure that valued books with valuable lessons are not quarantined from the readers for whom they were written Black Authors and Illustrators of Books for Children and Young Adults Barbara Thrash Murphy, Deborah L. Murphy, 2006-12-21 Black Authors and Illustrators of Books for Children and Young Adults is a biographical dictionary that provides comprehensive coverage of all major authors and illustrators past and present As the only reference volume of its kind available this book is a valuable research tool that provides quick access for anyone studying black children s literature whether one is a student a librarian charged with maintaining a children s literature collection or a scholar of children s literature The Fourth Edition of this renowned reference work illuminates African American contributions to children s literature and books for young adults The new edition contains updated and new information for existing author illustrator entries the addition of approximately 50 new profiles and a new section listing online resources of interest to the authors and readers of black children s literature A Free Black Girl Before the Civil War Charlotte L. Forten, Christy Steele, 2003-07-01 The diary of Charlotte Forten a sixteen year old free African American who lived in Massachusetts in 1854 who records her schooling participation in the anti slavery movement and concern for an arrested fugitive slave Includes activities and a timeline related to this era Cases on Strategic Partnerships for Resilient Communities and Schools Thomas, Ursula, 2020-04-24 As the importance of public education increases both globally and nationally partnerships between schools and their community become key to each other s success Examining the intersection of schools with their communities reveals the most effective strategies for supporting school populations that are traditionally marginalized or underserved in both rural and urban areas Cases on Strategic Partnerships for Resilient Communities and Schools is an essential publication that uncovers the problems and pitfalls of creating strategic partnerships between schools and other members of the community in which the schools are situated that include for profit businesses not for profit entities and private organizations The book reveals that schools that are thriving effectively do not do so in isolation but as vibrant members and centers of the communities in which they serve students and families Moreover it examines the difficulty in advocating for the schools and the leadership of the schools within these communities so that they can be better served Highlighting a wide range of topics including leadership community based outreach and school

advocacy this book is ideally designed for teachers school administrators principals school boards and committees non profit administrators educational advocates leadership faculty community engagement directors community outreach personnel entrepreneurs researchers academicians and students Brown v. Board of Education: I Want To Go To School! Carole Marsh, 2011-03-01 The 22 book American Milestone series is featured as Retailers Recommended Fabulous Products in the August 2012 edition of Educational Dealer magazine This book describes fascinating facts and fun activities your students will love The American Milestone series are a favorite among teachers nationwide This book includes ideas for lesson plans hands on activities biographies fascinating facts and stories Your students will be amazed as they study the Great Depression The American Milestone series meets national and social studies standards This 32 page book is reproducible and educational The book begins in 1950s in Topeka Kansas but spread to many cities and towns as discriminatory laws mandated that black children could not attend the same schools as white children Black children would often have to cross whole cities to reach their schools passing schools for white children along the way But in 1951 the Topeka NAACP filed a lawsuit that would forever change schools and the relationship between blacks and whites Brown was much more than a case about one little girl it was about a whole nation of people who had grown tired of injustice Brown v Board of Education represented more than 200 plaintiffs and 12 different attorneys and community activists Integration did not take place overnight but Brown v Board of Education marked the milestone when the notion of equality moved away from just being an idea and took the first steps toward becoming reality A partial list of the Table of Contents include A Timeline of Events I Want To Go To School Brown v Board of Education Equal Protection under the Law Jim Crow Laws Segregation Who Was Brown Thurgood Marshall Affirmative Action The Future Additional Resources Glossary And More This fun fill activity book includes Crossword Puzzle Write About It Do The Math Decipher The Code Matching Answer the Questions And Much More

Encyclopedia of Educational Reform and Dissent Thomas C. Hunt, 2010-01-20 The history of American education is replete with educational reform and to a lesser extent educational dissent Consider the present you have various forms of privatization school choice the No Child Left Behind act home schooling value added accountability alternative teacher preparation programs on line instruction etc This range of activity is not exceptional For instance consider the past progressive education open education the junior high school the middle school Life Adjustment education career education vocational education the comprehensive high school school to work year round schooling behavioral objectives proficiency exams high stakes testing whole language learning packages and self paced instruction modular scheduling site based management all presented as the way to reform American schools at least in part Then you have the reformers themselves such as John Dewey George Counts Herbert Kohl John Holt Charles Silberman Admiral Hyman Rickover James Bryant Conant all the way back to Horace Mann himself Dissenters and dissenting movements while not as numerous and certainly not as well known in educational circles count the various faith based schools and individuals such as Archbishop Hughes of New York Clearly this is an area rich in ideas rife with controversy and vital in its outcome for individuals and the nation as a whole And yet strangely enough there exists no major encyclopedia bringing the varied strands together in one place as a ready reference for scholars teachers school administrators and students studying to enter the educational profession This two volume work is intended to be that authoritative resource Key themes and topics include biographies of reformers and dissenters theoretical and ideological perspectives key programs and legislation judicial verdicts impacting educational change in America the politics and processes of educational reform and policy making dissent and resistance to reform technology s impact on educational reform A Reader s Guide in the front matter groups entries around such themes to help readers find related entries more easily America Comes of Age Donna Koren Wells,2000-09 Recounts the stories of the French English and Dutch in the New World their reasons for settlement and their relations with the native Americans
