Elie Kedourie's Approaches to History and Political Theory Sylvia Kedourie, 2013-10-18 Elie Kedourie was one of the twentieth century's most important and controversial historians of the Middle East. He redefined the landscape of the field by challenging the notion that the West's imperial domination of the region spawned nationalism in Arab countries. In a long career lecturing in politics at the London School of Economics, Kedourie inspired a generation of political scientists and politicians. A dedicated scholar and meticulous teacher, he founded Middle Eastern Studies, a journal which forty years after its launch remains one of the leading publications in the field and a monument to his work. Bringing together some of the most distinguished figures in Middle Eastern studies, this collection evaluates Kedourie's contribution to Middle Eastern history and political thought and assesses the impact of his scholarly legacy. The volume contains a complete bibliography of his writing and was previously published as a special issue of Middle Eastern Studies.

Seventy-five Years of the Turkish Republic Sylvia Kedourie, 2013-09-13 This collection examines the issues which over the first 75 years of the Turkish Republic have shaped and will continue to influence Turkey's foreign and domestic policy: the legacy of the Ottoman empire, the concept of citizenship, secular democracy, Islamism, and civil-military relations.

Elie Kedourie, CBE, FBA 1926-1992 Sylvie Kedourie, 2014-06-03 This title is a collection of essays evaluating Elie Kedourie's work and his legacy to scholarship. Of his own work, three pieces are included, and one of his essays, 'The Jews of Babylon and Baghdad', is published here for the first time.

From Empire to Orient Geoffrey Nash, 2005-07-27 From Empire to Orient offers an alternative perspective on Britain's late imperial period by looking at the lives and the writings of the men who chose to defy the conventional social and political attitudes of the British ruling classes towards the Near East. Between the Greek revolt in 1830 and the fall of the Caliphate in 1924, a different kind of voice was heard: that was both anti-imperialist and pro-Islamic. Geoffrey Nash places David Urquhart's passionate belief in the ideal of municipal government in Turkey, W. S. Blunt's enthusiasm for the Egyptian reformers of the Azhar, E. G. Browne's zeal for the Persian revolution, and Marmaduke Pickthall's pained advocacy of the cause of the Young Turks into their political and historical context and into the context of their writings. The author argues that the actions of these men represented a distinctive identification with the Islamic world and of the involvement of the West in its politics. By condemning Britain's manoeuvres and choice of allies in the Near East, each of these writers embellished a narrative of betrayal and a breach with the British educated classes' view of the Islamic East. Through the lives and writings of these men who identified so passionately with the Islamic world, Nash offers a fascinating perspective on Britain's late imperial period.

Turkey Sylvia Kedourie, 2014-02-04 This volume aims to shed light on Turkish political issues. The discussions range over national and international politics, democracy and freedom of the press, voting patterns, official control of indigenous music, and conditions in industrial estates.

Turkey Before and After

Ataturk Sylvia Kedourie,2012-10-12 Turkey s modern history has been unstable and contradictory National identity continues to be an issue as Turks are faced with joining the West and preserving their own culture The emergence of Islamicism contributes to the question of how safe the secular constitutional democracy is Index Islamicus ,2002 consolidate their rule amongst the local population Meininghaus argues that this was partially achieved through providing welfare services delivered by the Union as one of the state led mass organisations In this way she suggests these regimes did not only aim to undermine opposition and to create the illusion of consent but they factually catered to local needs and depended on consent Based on archival material interviews and statistics Creating Consent in Ba thist Syria will shed new light on mass organisations as a crucial institution of Ba thist state building and more broadly the construction of the Asad regimes
