On Toleration Castle Lectures Series:

On Toleration Michael Walzer, 2008-10-01 What kinds of political arrangements enable people from different national racial religious or ethnic groups to live together in peace In this book one of the most influential political theorists of our time discusses the politics of toleration Michael Walzer examines five regimes of toleration from multinational empires to immigrant societies and describes the strengths and weaknesses of each regime as well as the varying forms of toleration and exclusion each fosters Walzer shows how power class and gender interact with religion race and ethnicity in the different regimes and discusses how toleration works and how it should work in multicultural societies like the United States Walzer offers an eloquent defense of toleration group differences and pluralism moving quickly from theory to practical issues concrete examples and hard questions His concluding argument is focused on the contemporary United States and represents an effort to join and advance the debates about culture war the politics of difference and the disuniting of America Although he takes a grim view of contemporary politics he is optimistic about the possibility of coexistence cultural pluralism and a common citizenship can go together he suggests in a strong and egalitarian democracy The Elgar Companion to the Hague Conference on Private International Law Thomas John, Rishi Gulati, Ben Koehler, 2020-12-25 This comprehensive Companion is a unique guide to the Hague Conference on Private International Law HCCH Written by international experts who have all directly or indirectly contributed to the work of the HCCH this Companion is a critical assessment of and reflection on past and possible future contributions of the HCCH to the further development and unification of private international law A Century of Labour Jon Cruddas, 2024-01-03 Britain's first Labour government took office on 22 January 1924 Its centenary provides an opportunity to reassess the party's performance over the last 100 years and with an election pending the character and purpose of the modern party Labour defined the dominant political settlement of much of the Twentieth Century the welfare state It has achieved much in pursuit of material change social reform and equality It has challenged patriarchy racism and the legacy of imperialism promoted human rights and delivered democratic and constitutional renewal Yet any honest assessment must acknowledge a century littered with failures and missed opportunities In this compelling book Jon Cruddas one of the country's foremost experts on Labour politics details the vivid personalities and epic factional battles the immense achievements and profound disappointments that define a century of Labour Uniquely framed around competing visions of socialist justice within the Party he provides a way to rethink Labour history the divisions and factions on the left and to reassess key figures at the helm of the movement from Keir Hardie through to Keir Starmer Eugenics Laboratory Lecture Series Galton Laboratory for National Eugenics, 1921

1922-2022 Carolina Esser, Mhardoqueu G. Lima França, 2023-08-24 In 2022 the 100th anniversary of the so called Critical Theory the antithesis of Traditional Theory was celebrated 100 years ago the first founding memorandum of the Institute for Social Research in Frankfurt was written In 2022 the world and legal theory are surprised by numerous new challenges such as a war as not been seen for a long time which requires an uprising to resignify the Critical Theory and its relevance within theories of justice and freedom as well as a celebration of truly critical dialogues The present collection brings together experienced legal theory researchers who revive the critical theory from the current demands of law Critical thinkers have been developing reflections on capitalism in a way that considers not just economic perspectives but also individual s social and cultural spheres of life

Essays on the Real Church Dirk J. Smit, 2024-08-15 The spirit of the Reformation is often expressed in the well known slogan that Reformed churches are always being reformed according to God s Word ecclesia reformata semper reformanda secundum verbum Dei Over the last century the spirit of this slogan motivated someone like Dietrich Bonhoeffer to argue that the visible form and life of the church should reflect the truth and message of the church Already in his doctoral dissertation called Sanctorum Communio the communion of the saints the young Bonhoeffer combined theological claims and traditions with social theory and analysis in this spirit in an innovative way to study the nature and integrity and witness of the church At the time this was a radical claim with major consequences and challenges for Protestant churches Their life which meant their order structure actions statements convictions public presence and role was to be measured by their gospel which meant their message proclamation convictions claims They could no longer proclaim one truth yet live a different life It was this spirit which led to the well known Theological Declaration of Barmen in 1934 and to the formation of the Confessing Church in Nazi Germany Many called this a moment of truth a status confessionis It was this same spirit which later inspired the struggle in South Africa for the integrity and faithfulness of the church and for the credibility of its message proclamation and witness The contributions in this volume 52 papers essays sermons studies were all produced in this spirit Most of them have not been published before They were all occasional pieces written over several decades in different contexts and for different purposes and audiences yet they all breathe this self critical spirit of the Reformation considering whether the real church the concrete every day actual living church that people know and experience and perhaps belong to truly strives to embody the gospel itself the message which it claims and proclaims They all inquire under different circumstances and in diverse ways about different social forms of the real church from worship to congregation from denomination to ecumenical church from individual believers to movements and organisations whether and how they embody the truth of the church or not Together these contributions tell a story the story of this spirit in South African circles over several decades but also in the ecumenical church in our globalizing world They offer one small glimpse into different concrete moments in the story of this spirit in the life of this tradition and community of faith Hopefully some of these accounts may resonate with others who also shared the same spirit and still share it today in new and ongoing ways

Human Origins and the Image of God Lilley & Pedersen, eds., 2017 How did human beings originate What if anything makes us unique These questions have long been central to philosophers theologians and scientists This book continues that robust interdisciplinary conversation with contributions from an international team of scholars whose expertise ranges from biology and anthropology to philosophical theology and ethics The fourteen chapters in this volume are organized around Wentzel van Huyssteen's pioneering work in human rationality embodiment and evolutionary history Bringing a variety of diverse perspectives to bear on a hotly debated issue Human Origins and the Image of God showcases new research by some of today's finest scholars working on questions regarding human origins and human uniqueness

Islamic Law And Society Dr. Muhammad Roy Purwanto, MA , 2023-10-17 Traditional theory of Islamic Law recognizes four sources of Sharia the Quran sunnah authentic hadith qiyas analogical reasoning and ijma juridical consensus Four Sunni Madhhab legal school of Sunni Islam Hanafi Maliki Shafi i Hanbali and Zahiri developed Sunni methodologies for deriving Sharia rulings from scriptural sources using a process known as ijtiha d Traditional jurisprudence fiqh distinguishes two principal branches of law ib d t rituals and mu mal t social relations which together comprise a wide range of topics Its rulings are concerned with ethical standards as much as with legal norms assigning actions to one of five categories mandatory recommended neutral abhorred and prohibited Fiqh was elaborated over the centuries by legal opinions fatwas issued by qualified jurists muftis and historically applied in Sharia courts by ruler appointed judges complemented by various economic criminal and administrative laws issued by Muslim rulers The result of legal thought is the production of legal documents based on the requirements of the community In Indonesia Islamic law grows and evolves in the form of four products of legal thought fiqh ulama fatwas court rulings jurisprudence and laws In Indonesia the four products of legal thinking serve as rules for Muslims in national state and social life

Non-racialism in South Africa David Everatt,2017-07-05 When Nelson Mandela was elected President of South Africa in 1994 the world looked on at the miracle of racial reconciliation that unfolded in South Africa However the dream of a Rainbow Nation in Archbishop Desmond Tutu's phrase seems to be fading and racial identities seem to be more entrenched than ever What prospects then for the non racial democracy envisioned by Mandela and the South African Constitution This book examines the status and future prospects of non racialism It discusses the nature of non racialism and applies the concept to wider national issues and to questions of identity The book looks out into South Africa's future and assesses generational changes to the country's handling of non racialism This latter point is the main theme in the opening preface by Ahmed Kathrada jailed with Nelson Mandela who reminds the reader that there is no easy answer non racialism is built every day every minute by people who seek to transform social relations and allow the Rainbow Nation to flourish This book was published as a special issue of Politikon

Leo Strauss and Contemporary Thought Jeffrey A. Bernstein, Jade Larissa Schiff,2021-06-01 Leo Strauss's readings of historical figures in the philosophical tradition have been justly well explored however his relation to contemporary thinkers has not enjoyed the same coverage In Leo Strauss and Contemporary Thought an international group of scholars examines the possible conversations between Strauss and figures such as Walter Benjamin Jacques Derrida Michel Foucault Charles Taylor and Hans Blumenberg The contributors examine topics including religious liberty the political function of comedy law and the relation between the Ancients and the Moderns and bring Strauss into many new and original discussions that will be of use to those interested in the thought of Strauss the history of philosophy and political theory and contemporary continental thought

Constitutions and Religion Susanna Mancini,2020-11-27 Constitutions and Religion is the first major reference work in the emerging field of comparative constitutional law and religion It offers a nuanced array of perspectives on various models for the treatment of religion in domestic and supranational legal orders

Justice as Integrity David Fagelson,2007-06-01 Do any moral values underlie the foundations of law and society in America In Justice as Integrity David Fagelson argues that morality is indeed a part of the idea of law Examining controversies of speech and privacy he does not ignore the conservative communitarian streak in America but argues that liberal tolerance best fits the social meanings of American political morality While tolerance plays a critical role different social practices yield different conceptions of tolerance Judges must interpret any public text to develop coherent narratives that best explain the use of force in their jurisdiction In America Fagelson argues liberal tolerance is the sovereign principle that the Supreme Court uses as a prism when interpreting social institutions like marriage speech and even death to make them more consistent with personal autonomy

Religious Identities and the Global South Felix Wilfred,2021-01-04

This book offers a comprehensive and interdisciplinary account of religious identities in the Global South Drawing on literature in various fields Felix Wilfred analyzes how religious identities intersect with the processes of globalization modernity and postmodernity He illustrates how the study of religion in the Global North often revolves around questions of secularism and fundamentalism whereas a neo Orientalist quality often attends study of religion in the Global South These approaches and theorizing fail to incorporate the experiences of lived religion in the South especially in Asia Historically the religions in the South have played a highly significant role in resistance to the domination by the colonial forces an important reason for the continued attachment of the peoples of the South to their religious universe This book puts the two regions and their scholarly norms in conversation with one another exploring the social political cultural and economic implications

Faith in Politics Bryan T. McGraw, 2010-06-10 No account of contemporary politics can ignore religion The liberal democratic tradition in political thought has long treated religion with some suspicion regarding it as a source of division and instability Faith in Politics shows how such arguments are unpersuasive and dependent on questionable empirical claims rather than being a serious threat to democracies legitimacy stability and freedom religion can be democratically constructive Using historical cases of important religious political movements to add empirical weight Bryan McGraw suggests that religion will remain a significant political force for the foreseeable future and that pluralist democracies would do well to welcome rather than marginalize it

Retheorising Statelessness Kelly Staples, 2012-07-18 Stateless persons are increasingly a concern of governments international agencies and NGOs Now Kelly Staples supplies a much needed political theorization of statelessness Her membership theory framework combines theory and contemporary case studies to demonstrate the connection between the protections of state membership the burdens of statelessness and the situation of stateless persons

Images of Nationhood and Tolerance of Ethnic Minorities Steven Weldon, 2003

Speaking Back Katharine Gelber, 2002 What is hate speech How does a person suffer when they are vilified What can public policy do to redress it This text proposes a new type of hate speech policy speaking back providing institutional material and educational support to enable the victims of hate speech to respond
