Existence, Historical Fabulation, Destiny Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2009-06-18

Surging from the onto-poietic vital timing of life human self consciousness prompts the innermost desire to rise above its brute facts Imaginatio creatrix inspires us to fabulate these facts into events and plots with personal significance attempting to delineate a life course in life stories within the ever flowing stream existence Seeking their deep motivations causes and concatenations we fabulate relatively stabilized networks of interconnecting meaning history But to understand the meaning and sense of these networks reconfigurations call for the purpose and telos of our endless undertaking they remain always incomplete carried onwards with the current of life while fluctuating with personal experience in the play of memory Facts and life stories subjective desires and propensities the circumambient world in its historical moves creative logos and mythos personal freedom and inward stirrings thrown in an enigmatic interplay prompt our imperative thirst for the meaning of this course its purpose and its fulfillment the sense of it all To disentangle all this animates the passions of the literary genius The focus of this collection is to isolate the main arteries running through the intermingled forces prompting our quest to endow life with meaning

Death in American Texts and Performances Mark Pizzato, 2016-05-13 How do twentieth and twenty first century artists bring forth the powerful reality of death when it exists in memory and lived experience as something that happens only to others Death in American Texts and Performances takes up this question to explore the modern and postmodern aesthetics of death Working between and across genres the contributors examine literary texts and performance media including Robert Lowell's For the Union Dead Luis Valdez Dark Root of a Scream Amiri Baraka's Dutchman Thornton Wilder's Our Town John Edgar Wideman's The Cattle Killing Toni Morrison's Sula and Song of Solomon Don DeLillo's White Noise and Falling Man and HBO's Six Feet Under As the contributors struggle to convey the artist's crisis of representation they often locate the dilemma in the gap between artifice and nature where loss is performed and where remembering is sometimes literally reenacted through the bodily gesture While artists confront the impossibility of total recovery or transformation so must the contributors explore the gulf between real corpses and their literary or performative reconstructions Ultimately the volume shows both artist and critic grappling with the dilemma of showing how the aesthetics of death as absence is made meaningful in and by language
