Rabbinic Essays Jacob Zallel Lauterbach, 1951 Rabbinic Essays , 2020-03-14 Classic Essays in Early Rabbinic Culture and History Christine Hayes, 2018-04-17 This volume brings together a set of classic essays on early rabbinic history and culture seven of which have been translated into English especially for this publication The studies are presented in three sections according to theme 1 sources methods and meaning 2 tradition and self invention and 3 rabbinic contexts The first section contains essays that made a pioneering contribution to the identification of sources for the historical and cultural study of the rabbinic period articulated methodologies for the study of rabbinic history and culture or addressed historical topics that continue to engage scholars to the present day The second section contains pioneering contributions to our understanding of the culture of the sages whose sources we deploy for the purposes of historical reconstruction contributions which grappled with the riddle and rhythm of the rabbis emergence to authority or pierced the veil of their self presentation The essays in the third section made contributions of fundamental importance to our understanding of the broader cultural contexts of rabbinic sources identified patterns of rabbinic participation in prevailing cultural systems or sought to define with greater precision the social location of the rabbinic class within Jewish society of late antiquity The volume is introduced by a new essay from the editor summarizing the field and contextualizing the reprinted papers About the series Classic Essays in Jewish History Series Editor Kenneth Stow The 6000 year history of the Jewish peoples their faith and their culture is a subject of enormous importance not only to the rapidly growing body of students of Jewish studies itself but also to those working in the fields of Byzantine eastern Christian Islamic Mediterranean and European history Classic Essays in Jewish History is a library reference collection that makes available the most important articles and research papers on the development of Jewish communities across Europe and the Middle East By reprinting together in chronologically themed volumes material from a widespread range of sources many difficult to access especially those drawn from sources that may never be digitized this series constitutes a major new resource for libraries and scholars The articles are selected not only for their current role in breaking new ground but also for their place as seminal contributions to the formation of the field and their utility in providing access to the subject for students and specialists in other fields A number of articles not previously published in English will be specially translated for this series Classic Essays in Jewish History provides comprehensive coverage of its subject Each volume in the series focuses on a particular time period and is edited by an authority on that field The collection is planned to consist of 10 thematically ordered volumes each containing a specially written introduction to the subject a bibliographical guide and an index All volumes are hardcover and printed on acid free paper to suit library needs Subjects covered include The Biblical Period The Second Temple Period The Development of Jewish Culture in Spain Jewish Communities in Medieval Central Europe Jews in Medieval England and France Jews in Renaissance Europe Jews in Early Modern Europe Jews under Medieval Islam Jews in the Ottoman Empire and North Africa

Sparks of the Logos Daniel Boyarin, 2003-11-01 There are two major themes running through the essays reprinted in this book the first is the typological relation of rabbinic Judaism to Christianity while the second is the re animation by going back to the roots of a rabbinic Judaism that would not manifest some of the deleterious social ideologies and practices that modern orthodox Judaism generally does a project that was thought of as radical orthodoxy long before that term achieved its current and almost diametrically opposing sense among Christian theologians The book is divided into two parts The first part consists of several essays on midrash exploring various aspects of rabbinic culture and their relation to hermeneutic practices These papers are essentially more detailed studies of particular issues that were raised in two of Boyarin's books Intertextuality and the Reading of Midrash and Carnal Israel Reading Sex in Talmudic Culture California 1993 The second part of the book consists of reprints of four essays published in the journal Diacritics during that same decade The material treated in the book should be of interest to historians of Judaism and Christianity Talmudists and scholars and readers interested in the cultural study of religion Classic Essays in Early Rabbinic Culture and History Christine Hayes, 2018-04-17 This volume brings together a set of classic essays on early rabbinic history and culture seven of which have been translated into English especially for this publication The studies are presented in three sections according to theme 1 sources methods and meaning 2 tradition and self invention and 3 rabbinic contexts The first section contains essays that made a pioneering contribution to the identification of sources for the historical and cultural study of the rabbinic period articulated methodologies for the study of rabbinic history and culture or addressed historical topics that continue to engage scholars to the present day The second section contains pioneering contributions to our understanding of the culture of the sages whose sources we deploy for the purposes of historical reconstruction contributions which grappled with the riddle and rhythm of the rabbis emergence to authority or pierced the veil of their self presentation The essays in the third section made contributions of fundamental importance to our understanding of the broader cultural contexts of rabbinic sources identified patterns of rabbinic participation in prevailing cultural systems or sought to define with greater precision the social location of the rabbinic class within Jewish society of late antiquity The volume is introduced by a new essay from the editor summarizing the field and contextualizing the reprinted papers About the series Classic Essays in Jewish History Series Editor Kenneth Stow The 6000 year history of the Jewish peoples their faith and their culture is a subject of enormous importance not only to the rapidly growing body of students of Jewish studies itself but also to those working in the fields of Byzantine eastern Christian Islamic Mediterranean and European history Classic Essays in Jewish History is a library reference collection that makes available the most important articles and research papers on the development of Jewish communities across Europe and the Middle East By reprinting together in chronologically themed volumes material from a widespread range of sources many difficult to access especially those drawn from sources that may never be digitized this series constitutes a major new resource for libraries and scholars The articles are selected not only for their current role in breaking new ground but also for their place as seminal contributions to the formation of the field and their utility in providing access to the subject for students and specialists in other fields A number of articles not previously published in English will be specially translated for this series Classic Essays in Jewish History provides comprehensive coverage of its subject Each volume in the series focuses on a particular time period and is edited by an authority on that field The collection is planned to consist of 10 thematically ordered volumes each containing a specially written introduction to the subject a bibliographical guide and an index All volumes are hardcover and printed on acid free paper to suit library needs Subjects covered include The Biblical Period The Second Temple Period The Development of Jewish Culture in Spain Jewish Communities in Medieval Central Europe Jews in Medieval England and France Jews in Renaissance Europe Jews in Early Modern Europe Jews under Medieval Islam Jews in the Ottoman Empire and North Africa Sparks of the Logos Daniel Boyarin,2003 This work covers the typological relation of rabbinic Judaism to Christianity and provides a re examination by going back to the roots of a rabbinic Judaism that would not manifest some of the deleterious social ideologies and practices that modern orthodox Judaism generally does Rabbinic Stories Jeffrey L. Rubenstein,2002 Stories from the main works of classical rabbinic literature which were produced by Jewish sages in either Hebrew or Aramaic between 200 and 600 CE

Fathers of the World Burton L. Visotzky,1995 Essays on the Thought and Philosophy of Rabbi Kook Ezra Gellman,1991 Each essay in this anthology is an analysis or evaluation of one or several aspects of the thought and philosophy of Rabbi Abraham Isaac Kook the first Chief Rabbi of Israel A Legacy of Learning Alan Avery-Peck,Bruce D. Chilton,William Scott Green,Gary Porton,2014-10-16 In a career spanning over fifty years the questions Jacob Neusner has asked and the critical methodologies he has developed have shaped the way scholars have come to approach the rabbinic literature as well as the diverse manifestations of Judaism from rabbinic times until the present The essays collected here honor that legacy illustrating an influence that is so pervasive that scholars today who engage in the critical study of Judaism and the history of religions more generally work in a laboratory that Professor Neusner created Addressing topics in ancient and Rabbinic Judaism the Judaic context of early Christianity American Judaism World Religions and the academic study of the humanities these essays demarcate the current state of Judaic and religious studies in the academy today Deviancy in Early Rabbinic Literature Simcha Fishbane,2007 This study of early Rabbinic texts provides fresh and fascinating insights into the attitudes of the Rabbis towards outsiders Essays in the Judaic Background of Mark 11:12-14, 20-21; 15:23; Luke 1:37; John 19:28-30; and Acts 11:28 Roger David Aus,2015-07-02 These five essays deal with the influence of Judaic haggadah or lore especially in the form of creative historiography or imaginative dramatization on four enigmatic passages in the Gospels and one in Acts They point to their deeper theological truths and negate the alternatives of true or false historical or non historical usually applied to the narratives Truth and Compassion Solomon Frank,1983 These essays represent a multidisciplinary approach to the study of religion and especially Judaism Setting aside common scholarly concerns with source criticism and history of interpretation Shimon Levy argues that in Numbers 11 the redactor has forged diverse elements into a unity Observing that much of what is said about Second Commonwealth Judaic culture is speculative Jack Lightstone calls for radical revision of accepted portrayals of the period Ira Robinson's study of al Kirkisani's effort to differentiate magic and miracle while demonstrating the rationality of belief in miracle locates his thoughts in the context of Rabbinic and Muslim treatments of the subject While historians of modern Judaism have acknowledged the influence of Kant and Hegel Rousseau contends Michel Despland is often overlooked he opened the way for changes in social and religious life In Walter Benjamin's philosophy of history Charles Davis finds a significant combining of elements from Kabbalistic and Marxist thought Michael Oppenheim finds a common core of concerns addressed by modern Jewish philosophers a struggle with modernity identification with Jewish thought and values and commitment to their Jewish communities Gershon Hundert's Reflections on the Whig Interpretation of Jewish History argues vis vis the Jerusalem school of Zionist historians that the responsibility of national historians to their community can be fulfilled only by repudiating ideologies that may stand in the way of the search for truth Howard Joseph's survey of the extensive literature on the Holocaust indicates the options the authors find most worthy of continued focus Jerome Eckstein critically examines one of the few published pieces by Joseph Soloveitchik who combines the Talmudic genius of the Lithuanian Yeshiva world with mastery of the Western intellectual tradition B Barry Levy's study of the Artscroll series of translations of and commentaries on biblical literature examines the assumptions and methodology of the series and the hidden agenda that emerges Frederick Bird's comparison of charity ethics in Judaism and Christianity draws attention to the imprint on these ethics of the formative period of each religion The volume will be of interest to student of the Bible Judaism and Christianity

The Significance of Yavneh and Other Essays in Jewish Hellenism Shaye J. D. Cohen, 2010 This volume collects thirty essays by Shaye J D Cohen First published between 1980 and 2006 these essays deal with a wide variety of themes and texts Jewish Hellenism Josephus the Synagogue Conversion to Judaism Blood and Impurity the boundary between Judaism and Christianity What unites them is their philological orientation Many of these essays are close studies of obscure passages in Jewish and Christian texts The essays are united too by their common assumption that the ancient world was a single cultural continuum that ancient Judaism in all its expressions and varieties was a Hellenism and that texts written in Hebrew share a world of discourse with those written in Greek Many of these essays are well known and have been much discussed in contemporary scholarship Among these are The Significance of Yavneh the title essay Patriarchs and Scholars Masada Literary Tradition Archaeological Remains and the Credibility of Josephus Epigraphical Rabbis The Conversion of Antoninus Menstruants and the Sacred in Judaism and Christianity and A Brief History of Jewish Circumcision Blood
