Reconstructing Christianity Notes From The New Reformation:

Reconstructing Christianity Rich Mayfield, 2005-10 Despite what some would have us believe Christianity is not limited to the religious right and its exclusive claims More and more spiritual sojourners are being drawn back to the simple teachings of Jesus There they encounter a whole new way of understanding contemporary Christianity Reconstructing Christianity Notes from the New Reformation captures this new religious awakening and provides a helpful daily guide to making Christianity meaningful again The Reconstruction of Religion Charles Abram Ellwood, 1922 A selected list of books in English suggested for collateral reading p 319 324 The Journal of Christian Reconstruction, 1997 Bulletin of the Brooklyn Public Library Brooklyn Public Library, 1922 Ministry in the Anglican Tradition from Henry VIII to 1900 John L. Kater, 2022-06-01 Once Henry VIII declared the Church of England free of papal control in the sixteenth century and the process of Reformation began the Church of England rapidly developed a distinctive style of ministry that reflected the values and practices of the English people In Ministry in the Anglican Tradition from Henry VIII to 1900 John L Kater traces the complex process by which Anglican ministry evolved in dialogue with social and political changes in England and around the world By the end of the Victorian period ministry in the Anglican tradition had begun to take on the broad diversity we know today This book explores the many ways in which laypeople clergy and missionaries in multiple settings and under various conditions have contributed to the emergence of a uniquely Anglican way of responding to the call to serve Christ and the world That ministry preserved many of the insights of its Reformation ancestors and their heritage even as it continued to respond to the new and often unfamiliar contexts it now calls home Religion and Social Reconstruction in Africa Elias Kifon Bongmba, 2018-06-13 Religion has played a major role in both the division and unification of peoples and countries within Africa Its capacity to cause and to heal societal rifts has been well documented This book addresses this powerful societal force and explores the implications of a theology of reconstruction most notably articulated by Jesse Mugambi This way of thinking seeks to build on liberation theology aiming to encourage the rebuilding of African society on its own terms An international panel of contributors bring an interdisciplinary perspective to the issues around reconstructing the religious elements of African society Looking at issues of reconciliation postcolonialism and indigenous spirituality among others they show that Mugambi's cultural and theological insight has the potential to revolutionise the way people in Africa address this issue This is a fascinating exploration of the religious facets of African life As such it will be of great interest to scholars of religious studies theology and African studies Leaving Christian Fundamentalism and the Reconstruction of Identity Josie McSkimming, 2016-10-04 There is an increasing interest in the influence of religious fundamentalism upon people's motivation identity and decision making Leaving Christian Fundamentalism and the Reconstruction of Identity details the stories of those who have left Christian fundamentalist churches and how they change after they have left It considers how the previous fundamentalist identity is shaped by aspects of church teaching and discipline that are less authoritarian and coercive and more subtle and widely spread throughout the church body That is individuals are understood as not only subject to a form of judgment but also exercise it with everyone seemingly complicit in maintaining the stability of the church organisation This book provocatively illustrates that the reasons for leaving an evangelical Christian church may be less about what happens outside the church in terms of the lures and attractions of the secular world and more about the experience within the community itself      Reconstruction in Theology Henry Churchill King,1901      Rebuilding the Christian Commonwealth John A. Andrew III,2014-10-17 The foreign missionary movement of the early 19th century grew out of the efforts of churches in New England to deal with the changes then taking place in society The erosion of traditional institutional structures and social values plus the rise of Unitarianism threatened the destruction of the traditional faith Mr Andrew holds that the Congregational clergy used foreign missions not only to implant New England culture in heathen lands but also to awaken a sense of community at home      Brooklyn Public Library News Bulletin Brooklyn Public Library,1922      The Reconstruction of the Church of Ireland John McCafferty,2007-07-26

Thomas Wentworth landed in Ireland in 1633 almost 100 years after Henry VIII had begun his break with Rome The majority of the people were still Catholic William Laud had just been elevated to Canterbury A Yorkshire cleric John Bramhall followed the new viceroy and became in less than one year Bishop of Derry This 2007 study which is centred on Bramhall examines how these three men embarked on a policy for the established Church which represented not only a break with a century of reforming tradition but which also sought to make the tiny Irish Church a model for the other Stuart kingdoms Dr McCafferty shows how accompanying canonical changes were explicitly implemented for notice and eventual adoption in England and Scotland However within eight years the experiment was blown apart and reconstruction denounced as subversive

Wentworth Laud and Bramhall faced consequent disgrace trial death or exile      Max Weber's Sociology of Civilizations: A Reconstruction Stephen Kalberg,2021-07-29 This volume examines civilizations through the broad lens articulated by the works of Max Weber In focusing upon his comparative historical mode of analysis and his causal explanations for the sources contours and trajectories of civilizations this study reconstructs Weber's sociology in a manner that provides clear guidelines to researchers seeking to investigate civilizations systematically Through detailed interpretations of the West's unique development from Antiquity to the Modern era precise comparisons to the long range and singular pathways taken by China and India and careful demarcations of the particular rationalisms of several civilizations the author addresses Weber's powerful model building on the one hand and his opposition to organic holism and structural presuppositions on the other hand Both a broad ranging conceptual framework and case based empirical investigations are pivotal to Weber His research strategy emphasizes further the subjective meanings of actors East and West and the deep cultural origins of groups Finally this volume masterfully conveys Weber's contextual and multi causal methodology rooted in a tight interweaving of the present with the past Max Weber's Sociology of Civilizations A Reconstruction will appeal to comparative sociologists and historians as well as to theorists of all persuasions The social scientist pursuing a cross civilizational agenda will here discover the distinct contribution of Weber s interpretive understanding procedures to the now essential field of civilizational analysis

A Mirror of Rabbinic Hermeneutics Giuseppe Veltri, 2015-09-14 Rabbinic hermeneutics in ancient Judaism reflects this multifaceted world of the text and of reality seen as a world of reference worth commentary As a mirror it includes this world but perhaps also falsifies reality adapting it to one s own aims and necessities It consists of four parts Part I considered as introduction is the description of the Rabbinic Workshop Officina Rabbinica the rabbinic world where the student plays a role and a reformation of a reformation always takes place the world where the mirror was created and manufactured Part II deals with the historical environment the world of reference of rabbinic Judaism in Palestine and in the Hellenistic Diaspora Reflecting Roman Religion Part III focuses on magic and the sciences as ancient political and empirical activities of influence in the double meaning of receiving and adopting something and of attempt to produce an effect on persons and objects Performing the Craft of Sciences and Magic Part IV addresses the rabbinic concern with texts Reflecting on Languages and Texts as the main area of influence of the rabbinic academy in a space between the texts of the past and the real world of the present

Christian Reconstruction Michael J. McVicar, 2015-04-27 This is the first critical history of Christian Reconstruction and its founder and champion theologian and activist Rousas John Rushdoony 1916 2001 Drawing on exclusive access to Rushdoony s personal papers and extensive correspondence Michael J McVicar demonstrates the considerable role Reconstructionism played in the development of the radical Christian Right and an American theocratic agenda As a religious movement Reconstructionism aims at nothing less than reconstructing individuals through a form of Christian governance that if implemented in the lives of U S citizens would fundamentally alter the shape of American society McVicar examines Rushdoony s career and traces Reconstructionism as it grew from a grassroots populist movement in the 1960s to its height of popularity in the 1970s and 1980s He reveals the movement s galvanizing role in the development of political conspiracy theories and survivalism libertarianism and antistatism and educational reform and homeschooling The book demonstrates how these issues have retained and in many cases gained potency for conservative Christians to the present day despite the decline of the movement itself beginning in the 1990s McVicar contends that Christian Reconstruction has contributed significantly to how certain forms of religiosity have become central and now familiar aspects of an often controversial conservative revolution in America

Civilization During the Middle Ages, Especially in Relation to Modern Civilization George Burton

Adams, 1914      Religion and the Early Modern British Marketplace Kristin M.S. Bezio, Scott Oldenburg, 2021-11-29 Religion and the Early Modern British Marketplace explores the complex intersection between the geographic material and ideological marketplaces through the lens of religious belief and practice By examining the religiously motivated markets and marketplace practices in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries in England Scotland and Wales the volume presents religious praxis as a driving force in the formulation and everyday workings of the social and economic markets Within the volume the authors address first spiritual markets and marketplaces discussing the intersection of Puritan and Protestant Ethics with the market economy The second part addresses material marketplaces including the marriage market commercial trade markets and the post Reformation Catholic black market In the third part of the volume the chapters focus specifically on publication markets and books including manuscripts and commonplace books as well as printed volumes and pamphlets Finally the volume concludes with an examination of the literary marketplace with analyses of plays and poems which engage with and depict both spiritual and material markets Taken as a whole this collection posits that the modern conception of a division between religion and the socioeconomic marketplace was a largely fictional construct and the chapters demonstrate the depth to which both were integrated in early modern life
