Reconstructing Old Age:

Reconstructing Old Age Chris Phillipson, 1998-10-26 In this timely and authoritative overview on social gerontology and social theory Chris Phillipson outlines the changing contexts and experiences associated with later life as we move into a new century The book critically reviews the different theoretical explanations which attempt to explain these changes Phillipson shows how in late modernity changes to pensions employment and retirement and intergenerational relations are placing doubt on the meaning of growing old He suggests that later life is being reconstructed as a period of potential choice on the one hand but also of risk and danger on the other This book will be essential reading for students and academics in social gerontology as well as for students and academics in sociology social policy and related disciplines interested in the future of an ageing population and the future of social gerontology

Reconstructing Retirement David Lain, 2018-01-24 In the United Kingdom retirement programs are being reconstructed to follow the American practice of abolishing mandatory retirement and increasing state pension ages This timely book compares prospects for work and retirement at age sixty five plus in both the United States and the United Kingdom After exploring the shifting logic behind both nations policies policies that increase both the need and opportunities to work past age sixty five David Lain presents an original comparative statistical analysis on the wide range of factors influencing employment at this age from the ability to move between jobs in order to remain employed to changing employment trends He then proposes a series of policies to address these factors across the life course and promote security and autonomy for older people Pathways to employment after sixty five are complex and pressures to work at this age are likely to result in very unequal outcomes This book will play a vital role in creating a more positive more equitable future for late careers and retirement

Reconstructing Postmodernism Jason L. Powell, Tim Owen, 2007 There has been an array of literature on the notion of postmodernism in social science literature in recent years This exciting book focuses on three broad continuities one debunking the central theoretical tenets of postmodernism with reference to identity methodology governance and modernist theory two the book engages with current social issues and events in popular culture for example film professional power masculinity and terrorism three the book also rethinks postmodernism in light of under researched variables of analysis of time and ageing the body biology and choice

A History of Regulating Working Families Nicole Busby, Grace James, 2020-08-06 Families in market economies have long been confronted by the demands of participating in paid work and providing care Across Europe the social economic and political environment within which families do so has been subject to substantial change in the post World War II era and governments have come under increasing pressure to engage with this important area of public policy In the UK as elsewhere the tensions which lie at the heart of the paid work unpaid care conflict remain unresolved posing substantial difficulties for all of law s subjects both as carers and as the recipients of care What seems like a relatively simple goal to enable families to better balance care giving and paid employment has been subject to and shaped by shifting priorities over time leading to a variety of often conflicting policy approaches This book critiques how working families in the UK have been subject to regulation It has two aims To chart the development of the UK's law and policy framework by focusing on the post war era and the growth and decline of the welfare state considering a longer historical trajectory where appropriate To suggest an alternative policy approach based on Martha Fineman's vulnerability theory in which the vulnerable subject replaces the liberal subject as the focus of legal intervention This reorientation enables a more inclusive and cohesive policy approach and has great potential to contribute to the reconciliation of the unresolved conflict between paid work and care giving

Reconstructing Empedocles' Thought Chiara Ferella, 2024-02-08 To understand Empedocles' thought one must view his work as a unified whole of religion and physics Only a few interpreters however recognise rebirth as a positive doctrine within Empedocles' physics and attempt to reconcile its details with the cosmological account This study shows how rebirth underlies Empedocles' cosmic system being a structuring principle of his physics It reconstructs the proem to his physical poem and then shows that claims to disembodied existence individual identity and personal survival of death's prove central to his physics that knowledge of the cosmos is the path to escape rebirth that purifications are essential to comprehending the world and changing one's being and that the cosmic cycle with its ethical import is the ideal backdrop for Empedocles' doctrine of rebirth This title is part of the Flip it Open Programme and may also be available Open Access Check our website Cambridge Core for details

Handbook of Theories of Aging Merrill Silverstein, Vern L. Bengtson, Vern L. Bengtson, PhD, Norella Putney, Daphna Gans, 2008-10-27 The field of gerontology has often been criticized for being data rich but theory poor The editors of this book address this issue by stressing the importance of theory in gerontology While the previous edition focused on multidisciplinary approaches to aging theory this new edition provides cross disciplinary integrative explanations of aging theory The contributors of this text have reached beyond traditional disciplinary boundaries to partner with researchers in adjacent fields in studying aging and age related phenomena This edition of the Handbook consists of 39 chapters written by 67 internationally recognized experts in the field of aging It is organized in seven sections reflecting the major theoretical developments in gerontology over the past 10 years Special Features Comprehensive coverage of aging theory focusing on the biological psychological and social aspects of aging A section dedicated to discussing how aging theory informs public policy A concluding chapter summarizing the major themes of aging and offering predictions about the future of theory development Required reading for graduate students and post doctoral fellows this textbook represents the current status of theoretical development in the study of aging

Ageing and Diversity Daatland, Svein Olav, Biggs, Simon, 2006-04-05 Assessing the stereotyped conceptions of ageing this book explores the diversity of individual pathways of ageing the sources of identifications migration and otherness and the tension between social structures and personal agency It is aimed at academics students and practitioners in the fields of sociology social psychology and welfare

presents original research results on the leading edge of sociology Each chapter has been carefully selected in an attempt to present substantial advances across a broad spectrum This volume focuses on ageing abortion and leadership Aging, Globalization and Inequality Jan Baars,Dale Dannefer,Chris Phillipson,Alan Walker,2016-11-03 This book is a major reassessment of work in the field of critical gerontology providing a comprehensive survey of issues by a team of contributors drawn from Europe and North America The book focuses on the variety of ways in which age and ageing are socially constructed and the extent to which growing old is being transformed through processes associated with globalisation The collection offers a range of alternative views and visions about the nature of social ageing making a major contribution to theory building within the discipline of gerontology The different sections of the book give an overview of the key issues and concerns underlying the development of critical gerontology These include first the impact of globalisation and of multinational organizations and agencies on the lives of older people second the factors contributing to the social construction of later life and third issues associated with diversity and inequality in old age arising through the effects of cumulative advantage and disadvantage over the life course These different themes are analysed using a variety of theoretical perspectives drawn from sociology social policy political science and social anthropology Aging Globalization and Inequality brings together key contributors to critical perspectives on aging and is unique in the range of themes and concerns covered in a single volume The study moves forward an important area of debate in studies of aging and thus provides the basis for a new type of critical gerontology relevant to the twenty first century Crisis and the Culture of Fear and Anxiety in Contemporary Europe Carmen Zamorano Llena,Jonas Stier,Billy Gray,2023-08-01 The accruelement of crises over the last two decades with their particular manifestations in the European context has evoked the feeling of living in exceptional times as captured in the recurrent claim that we live in the age of anxiety The main aim of this collection is to analyse from a multidisciplinary perspective the causes and consequences of the current dominance of the discourse of fear anxiety and crisis through the experience of distinct and often interdependent moral panics in twenty first century Europe With its multidisciplinary approach this volume sheds light on the need to view the interrelationship between different crises and their associated affects as crucial in attaining a more nuanced understanding of the aetiology and effects of the current age of anxiety This multidisciplinary scrutiny of the interrelationship of twenty first century fears anxiety and crises signals an original engagement with these complex phenomena in order to make their emergence and profound effects on contemporary society more comprehensible The timeliness of the thematic focus and the rigorous in depth analyses make this collection relevant to students and academics within the fields of sociology literary and cultural studies political science and anthropology as well as to those in European studies and global studies Learning to Be Old Margaret Cruikshank,2013-02-14 Margaret Cruikshank s Learning to Be Old examines what it means to grow old in America today The book questions social myths and fears about aging sickness and the other social roles of the elderly the over medicalization of many older people and ageism In this book Cruikshank proposes alternatives to the ways aging is usually understood in both popular culture and mainstream gerontology Learning to Be Old does not propose the ideas of successful aging or productive aging but more the idea of learning how to age Featuring new research and analysis the third edition of Learning to be Old demonstrates more thoroughly than the previous editions that aging is socially constructed Among texts on aging the book is unique in its clear focus on the differences in aging for women and men as well as for people in different socioeconomic groups Cruikshank is able to put aging in a broad context that not only focuses on how aging affects women but men as well Key updates in the third edition include changes in the health care system changes in how long older Americans are working especially given the impact of the recession and new material on the brain and mind body interconnections Cruikshank impressively challenges conventional ideas about aging in this third edition of Learning to be Old This will be a must read for everyone interested in new ideas surrounding aging in America today Taiwan's Senior Learning Movement Brian Findsen, Hui-Chuan Wei, Ai-tzu Li, 2022-03-21 This volume provides an in depth analysis of historical and recent developments of senior learning in Taiwan where publications in English have been scant It takes a broader view on lifelong learning and active ageing from a theoretical conceptual base written by prominent international authors this represents the outside in perspective The inside out on the other hand signifies an in depth investigation of initiatives written by authors from Taiwan who are closely involved with developments in policy and practice The volume is situated theoretically in the intersection of complementary concepts such as lifelong learning active ageing later life learning learning communities and social movements It is located geographically and culturally in East Asia where senior learning education is expanding in response to large populations of older adults and concerns about their physical and social well being It is argued that Taiwan is leading the way in terms of innovation and community engagement in regard to older adult learning education and can thus serve as a model for neighboring countries By analyzing historical precedents cultural dynamics policy trends research sub fields and community engagement this book is of interest to both East Asian and Western scholars practitioners policy makers and students amongst the fields of lifelong learning social gerontology and educational psychology Facing the Mirror Frida Furman, 2013-02 The women at Julie s International Salon share their experiences of bodily self presentation femininity aging and caring Their own words are at the center of the book the stories of their lives fresh and compelling are told here with affection But beyond the stories themselves Frida Kerner Furman explores the socio moral significance of these beauty shop experiences showing how they reveal as much about society at large as about older women For in telling us how they perceive reality make choices and live in their worlds the women of Julie s expose structures of power inequality and resistance in the larger world that all of us young or old beautiful or not face every day Medicine and the Body Simon Williams, 2003-03-19 An intelligent and informed account of medical sociology Simon Williams has produced an original and comprehensive sociological statement of the centrality of the body to an understanding of medicine health and illness His scope is impressive It will shape future teaching and research in the field of health and illness Bryan S Turner Professor of Sociology University of Cambridge This is a clear well written account of medicine health and the body Taking recent debates on the body and society as its point of departure the book critically reexamines a series of embodied issues and emotional agendas in health and illness Included here are cutting edge discussions and debates concerning the medicalized body health inequalities childhood and ageing the dilemmas of high tech medicine chronic illness and disability caring and bio ethics sleep death and dying the body in late postmodernity Written in an accessible engaging style with many original and innovative insights the book will appeal to undergraduate and postgraduate students alike and to researchers and lecturers with an interest in the embodied agendas of health and medicine in the new millennium Older Workers In Europe

Chiva, Anthony, Manthorpe, Jill, 2008-11-01 This book brings together an extraordinarily diverse collection of insights from a wide range of experts A broad overview is created by the foreword from Jumbo Klercq This sets the scene for the subsequent chapters which examine more specific approaches and ways of tackling age diversity and ageing in the workplace Older Workers in Europe is ideal for students of gerontology social policy sociology and human resource management It will also be of interest to policy makers and professionals working in the fields of employment and guidance policy economics labour force development and research Book Jacket Measuring the Quantum State of Light Ulf Leonhardt, 1997-07-13 Appendix

A Semiclassical approximation The SAGE Handbook of Aging, Work and Society John Field, Ronald J Burke, Cary L Cooper, 2013-09-19 Aging has emerged as a major and urgent issue for individuals organisations and governments of our time In this well timed and comprehensive handbook key international contributors to the field of study come together to create a definitive map of the subject Framed by an authoritative introductory chapter the SAGE Handbook of Aging Work and Society offers a critical overview of the most significant themes and topics with discussions of current research theoretical controversies and emerging issues divided into sections covering Key Issues and Challenges The Aging Workforce Managing an Aging Workforce Living in an Aging Society Developing Public Policy Rethinking the Sociology of Ageing Paul Higgs, Chris Gilleard, 2025-02-12 In this important book Paul Higgs and Chris Gilleard demonstrate how an invigorated sociology of later life is crucial for understanding the role of later life in 21st century societies Active Ageing, Active Learning Gillian Boulton-Lewis, Maureen Tam, 2011-09-15 This book is concerned with the general issues of ageing learning and education for the elderly and then with the more specific issues of why how and what elders want to learn This monograph consists of 10 chapters written by various internationally renowned researchers and scholar practitioners in the field
