Age April D. DeConick, 2016-09-27 Gnosticism is a countercultural spirituality that forever changed the practice of Christianity Before it emerged in the second century passage to the afterlife required obedience to God and king Gnosticism proposed that human beings were manifestations of the divine unsettling the hierarchical foundations of the ancient world Subversive and revolutionary Gnostics taught that prayer and mediation could bring human beings into an ecstatic spiritual union with a transcendent deity This mystical strain affected not just Christianity but many other religions and it characterizes our understanding of the purpose and meaning of religion today In The Gnostic New Age April D DeConick recovers this vibrant underground history to prove that Gnosticism was not suppressed or defeated by the Catholic Church long ago nor was the movement a fabrication to justify the violent repression of alternative forms of Christianity Gnosticism alleviated human suffering soothing feelings of existential brokenness and alienation through the promise of renewal as God DeConick begins in ancient Egypt and follows with the rise of Gnosticism in the Middle Ages the advent of theosophy and other occult movements in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries and contemporary New Age spiritual philosophies As these theories find expression in science fiction and fantasy films DeConick sees evidence of Gnosticism's next incarnation Her work emphasizes the universal countercultural appeal of a movement that embodies much more than a simple challenge to religious authority

Peebles, 2019-07-02 A glorious glittery saga of friendship and loss I read The Air You Breathe in two nights One might say I inhaled it NPR Echoes of Elena Ferrante resound in this sumptuous saga O The Oprah Magazine Enveloping Peebles understands the shifting currents of female friendship and she writes so vividly about samba that you close the book certain its heroine's voices must exist beyond the page People The story of an intense female friendship fueled by affection envy and pride and each woman's fear that she would be nothing without the other Some friendships like romance have the feeling of fate Skinny nine year old orphaned Doris is working in the kitchen of a sugar plantation in 1930s Brazil when in walks a girl who changes everything Gra a the spoiled daughter of a wealthy sugar baron is clever well fed pretty and thrillingly ill behaved Born to wildly different worlds Doris and Gra a quickly bond over shared mischief and then on a deeper level over music One has a voice like a songbird the other feels melodies in her soul and composes lyrics to match Music will become their shared passion the source of their partnership and their rivalry and for each the only way out of the life to which each was born But only one of the two is destined to be a star Their intimate volatile bond will determine each of their fortunes and haunt their memories Traveling from Brazil's inland sugar plantations to the rowdy streets of Rio de Janeiro's famous Lapa neighborhood from Los Angeles during the Golden Age of Hollywood back to the irresistible drumbeat of home The Air You Breathe unfurls a moving portrait of a lifelong friendship its unparalleled rewards and lasting losses and considers what we owe to the relationships that shape our lives Shakespeare's Chart of Life William Miller,1903 Milton on Film Eric C. Brown,2015-04-13 In January 2012 shooting was set to begin in Sydney Australia on the Hollywood backed production of Milton's Paradise Lost with Oscar nominee Bradley Cooper cast as Satan Yet just two weeks before the start of production Legendary Pictures delayed the project reportedly due to budgetary concerns and soon the company had suspended the film indefinitely Milton scholar Eric C Brown who was then serving as a script consultant for the studio sees his experience with that project as part of a long and perplexing story of Milton on film Indeed as Brown details in this comprehensive study Milton's place in the popular imagination and his extensive influence upon the cinema in particular has been both pervasive and persistent Free at Last Ronald Coleman,2004 The author takes you on a journey of political intrigue whereby Quebec achieves its independence in the year 2007 It is a convincing tale of political vengeance intrigue misunderstandings foreign intervention international muckracking boundless egos unbridled ambition revenge and political folly A country admired by most for its tolerance and pragmatism is destroyed by internal strife and turmoil caused by unattended divisions and progressing socialism A concerned and antagonistic neighbour acting on the doctrine of preserving democracy uses subversion and covert operations in order to undermine authority and order Internally a series of first minister's meetings and a constitutional conference fail creating an authority vacuum and generalized anxiety Concurrently the United States the UK and France interfere to prevent potential solutions from saving the country The ultimate result is not at all what Quebecers envisioned It is however an ending that many Canadians would come to accept as inevitable As an alternative the author proposes two alternate endings resultant from the exercise of tolerance good will reasonable solutions to long standing problems and a change in outlook from internal conflict and age old grievances to a future that engages in globalization and positive perspectives The book is a realistic but harsh look at Canadian politics told in a humorous satirical style that reveals what can happen when a country fails to confront its history and relies on illusions and favoritism in order to quell dissent. It is chilling to think of how easy it would really be for Canada to disintegrate.

Voices in Disability and Spirituality from the Land Down Under Christopher Newell, 2014-06-11 An excellent source of information and ideas on the relationship between disability and spirituality and how to improve it. This one-of-a-kind collection explores the relationship between spirituality and disability from a variety of Australian religious and spiritual viewpoints. Authors from a wide range of backgrounds, some with disabilities and some without, draw remarkable insights from Christian, Jewish, Buddhist, and even non-religious spirituality. These uniquely Australian perspectives provide practical and spiritual lessons that can be applied in any part of the world. Voices in Disability and Spirituality from the Land Down Under presents an unflinching look at the shortcomings of many established church ministries when it comes to serving people with disabilities. There is also an extraordinary interview with a severely disabled nonreligious woman in the final stage of her life and her caretaker, which presents a very revealing look at the essence of human spirituality as it exists even in the absence of religious dogma. In addition, you will find a revealing case study focusing on the Uniting Church in Australia (UCA) which looks at the gap between its official theology and its actual policy and practice and outlines a project designed to move the Church forward to more inclusive practices. Additionally, Voices in Disability and Spirituality from the Land Down Under examines why platitudes that are intended to give comfort, like "God has chosen this for you," "It's a test of your faith," or "We all have our crosses to carry," are at best problematic and at worst damaging, with suggestions for pastoral responses that offer alternatives to "God is on your side," clichés, the spiritual meaning and importance of community for people with disabilities, and the impact of community on their vitality and resiliency; the Buddhist teaching called sunyata or emptiness and its potential to positively impact the lives of people with intellectual disabilities; and those who know the wisdom contained in the ancient Jewish system of laws called Halacha and its potential for empowering people with disabilities today. How a pastoral care program that is flexible, accommodating, and relevant for disabled people was created at a small metropolitan school in New South Wales and the effect of the program on the community; the work of the Personal Advocacy Service which recruits volunteers to be companions to people with intellectual disabilities; the role of religion and philanthropy in the creation of educational programs for blind or vision-impaired students and more.

Before long she's a five star diva running her own lucrative business where she secures her clients their most outrageous and increasingly illegal desires. But Beijing has her own addiction: a man named Lootchee who lavishes her with even more diamonds and luxury than she already has. But behind Lootchee's charm and over the top romantic gestures is a selfish high stakes hustler who lures Beijing into a dangerous web that takes even this seasoned enterpriser by surprise and breaks her heart in the process.
