Changing Identifications and Alliances in North-East Africa Günther Schlee,Elizabeth E. Watson,2009 Forms of group identity play a prominent role in everyday lives and politics in northeast Africa Case studies from Sudan Ethiopia Uganda and Kenya illustrate the way that identities are formed and change over time and how local national and international politics are interwoven Specific attention is paid to the impact of modern weaponry new technologies religious conversion food and land shortages international borders civil war and displacement on group identities Drawing on the expertise of anthropologists historians and geographers these volumes provide a significant account of a society profoundly shaped by identity politics and contribute to a better understanding of the nature of conflict and war and forms of alliance and peacemaking thus providing a comprehensive portrait of this troubled region I Know Here Laurel Croza,2013-10-01 Winner of the 2011 Marilyn Baillie Picture Book Award the 2010 Boston Globe Horn Book Award the 2011 Ezra Jack Keats and New York Public Library New Writer Award and a finalist for the Governor General s Award for Children s Illustration The little girl in this story lives with her family in a trailer in northeastern Saskatchewan where her father is building a dam She knows everything about the place she lives her road her school the forest where she plays hide and seek and where the wolf howls at night the hill where she goes tobogganing in winter But the dam is nearly finished and when summer comes the family is moving to Toronto a place marked by a big red star on the map at school Have people in Toronto seen what I ve seen the little girl asks And with her teacher s help she finds a way to keep everything she loves about home This simple beautifully written story complemented by Matt James s vibrant imaginative illustrations will resonate deeply with anyone who has had to leave their home for a new place Correlates to the Common Core State Standards in English Language Arts CCSS ELA LITERACY RL 1 7 Use illustrations and details in a story to describe its characters setting or events Escape to Nowhere Fran Lucca,2019-06-27 As a teenager Ron Reynolds trekked across the United States and overseas in quest of adventure Stints as carnival worker ranch hand cabana boy and lifeguard to a deckhand on the China seas could not quench his thirst for excitement until the nineteen year old Buffalo New York adventurer saw a poster in Paris luring him to a five year enlistment in the famed French Foreign Legion For eighteen months that dream became a horrible nightmare of senseless desert killings and brutal and sadistic treatment including a thirty day imprisonment in a desert dungeon at the hands of a half crazed Turk Finally after two unsuccessful attempts to escape in which he barely survived the punishments Ron was determined to make it to freedom or take his own life by falling on his bayonet His daring escape filled with terror and suspense was bittersweet The Yankee mercenary found himself a man without a country and a price on his head by the French government In essence he had escaped to nowhere He says that if he had to do it over again he would take the easy way out in front of a firing squad On a happy note Ron Reynolds is once again an American citizen Tongass National Forest (N.F.), Couverden Timber Sales ,2005

In Search of Certainty Mark Burgess,2015-04-09 Quite soon the world's information infrastructure is going to reach a level of scale and complexity that will force scientists and engineers to approach it in an entirely new way The familiar notions of command and control are being thwarted by realities of a faster denser world of communication where choice variety and indeterminism rule The myth of the machine that does exactly what we tell it has come to an end What makes us think we can rely on all this technology What keeps it together today and how might it work tomorrow Will we know how to build the next generation or will we be lulled into a stupor of dependence brought about by its conveniences In this book Mark Burgess focuses on the impact of computers and information on our modern infrastructure by taking you from the roots of science to the principles behind system operation and design To shape the future of technology we need to understand how it works or else what we don't understand will end up shaping us This book explores this subject in three parts Part I Stability describes the fundamentals of predictability and why we have to give up the idea of control in its classical meaning Part II Certainty describes the science of what we can know when we don't control everything and how we make the best of life with only imperfect information Part III Promises explains how the concepts of stability and certainty may be combined to approach information infrastructure as a new kind of virtual material restoring a continuity to human computer systems so that society can rely on them Tongass Timber Reform Act United States.
