U.S.I.S. Video Library Catalog United States Information Agency, Portraits of American Women G. J. Barker-Benfield, Catherine Clinton, 1998 Until recently a womanless American history was the norm But without a history of women we neglect gender dynamics sex roles and family relations the very fundamentals of human interaction Here 24 short essays locate the histories of women from Pocahontas to Betty Friedan and men together by period and provide a sense of their continuities through the whole gallery of the American past 26 photos Portraits of Women in the American West Dee Garceau-Hagen, 2013-04-15 Men are usually the heroes of Western stories but women also played a crucial role in developing the American frontier and their stories have rarely been told This anthology of biographical essays on women promises new insight into gender in the 19C American West The women featured include Asian Americans African Americans and Native American women as well as their white counterparts The original essays offer observations about gender and sexual violence the subordinate status of women of color their perseverance and influence in changing that status a look at the gendered religious legacy that shaped Western Catholicism and women in the urban and rural industrial and agricultural West The American Bibliopolist, 1871 American Founders Christina Proenza-Coles, 2019-03-01 2019 Foreword INDIES Finalist American Founders reveals men and women of African descent as key protagonists in the story of American democracy It chronicles how black people developed and defended New World settlements undermined slavery and championed freedom throughout the hemisphere from the sixteenth through the twentieth centuries While conventional history tends to reduce the roles of African Americans to antebellum slavery and the civil rights movement in reality African residents preceded the English by a century and arrived in the Americas in numbers that far exceeded European migrants up until 1820 Afro Americans were omnipresent in the founding and advancement of the Americas and recurrently outnumbered Europeans at many times and places from colonial Peru to antebellum Virginia African descended people contributed to every facet of American history as explorers conquistadores settlers soldiers sailors servants slaves rebels leaders lawyers litigants laborers artisans artists activists translators teachers doctors nurses inventors investors merchants mathematicians scientists scholars engineers entrepreneurs generals cowboys pirates professors politicians priests poets and presidents The multitude of events and mixed race individuals included in the book underscores that black and white Americans share the same history and in many cases the same ancestry American Founders is meant to celebrate this shared heritage and strengthen these bonds American Book Publishing Record, 1996 Contemporary American Portrait Painters Cuthbert Lee, 1929 Painters and the American West Joan Carpenter Troccoli, Marlene Chambers, Jane Comstock, Anschutz collection (Denver, Colo.), Sarah Anschutz Hunt, Denver Art Museum, Anschutz collection (Denver, Colo.), 2000-01-01 This book offers a tour of a collection of paintings of the American West still in private hands The Anschutz Collection covers all the ground expected in a wide ranging major survey yet still has plenty of room for surprises Every phase in the history of American art since the 1820s is included. There are pictures of impressive quality by lesser known artists and examples from all the major painters who have depicted the West. You will discover works by artists such as Marsden Hartley, Childe Hassam, Jan Matulka and John Henry Twachtman who painted western subjects only rarely and pictures by those whose subjects were predominantly western. The collection is particularly rich in paintings made in Taos and Santa Fe during the first half of the twentieth century when major American artists often found inspiration and stylistic renewal in the Southwest. Among the American masters represented here are George Bellows, Albert Bierstadt, George Caleb Bingham, Ernest Blumenschein, George Catlin, Stuart Davis, Asher B. Durand, George Inness, John Marin, Alfred Jacob Miller, Thomas Moran, Georgia O'Keeffe, Frederic Remington, Charles Marion Russell and Walter Ufer.

Imagining the American West through Film and Tourism Warwick Frost, Jennifer Laing, 2015-06-05

The West is one of the strongest and most enduring place images in the world and its myth is firmly rooted in popular culture whether novels, film, television, music, clothing and even video games. The West combines myth and history, rugged natural scenery and wide open spaces, popular culture and promises of transformation. These imagined places draw in tourists attracted by a cultural heritage that is part fictional and mediated. In turn, tourism operators and destination marketing organisations refashion what they present to fit these imagined images. This book explores this imagining of a mythic West through three key themes: travel, film and frontiers, to offer new insight into how the imagination of the West and popular culture has influenced the construction of tourism. In doing so, it examines the series of paradoxes that underlie the basic appeal of the West: evocative frontier, a boundary zone between civilisation and wilderness and between order and lawlessness. It draws on a range of films and literature as well as varying places from festivals to national parks to showcase different aspects of the nexus between travel, film and frontiers in this fascinating region. Interdisciplinary in character, it includes perspectives from cultural studies, American studies, tourism and film studies. Written by leading academics, this title will be valuable reading for students, researchers and academics in the fields of cultural studies, tourism, film studies and media studies and all those interested in film tourism.

Seeing America University of Rochester. Memorial Art Gallery, 2006

A stunning full color volume that examines 82 pieces in the University of Rochester Memorial Art Gallery's American collection and their connections to American history, culture, literature and politics. Seeing America is the first ever catalog of the University of Rochester Memorial Art Gallery's American collection. Founded in 1913, the Memorial Art Gallery was created in conjunction with the University of Rochester so that it would function within a scholarly milieu yet at the same time perform service as a community museum. From its conception, it has been an ardent advocate for American art, which so many counterpart institutions snubbed until at least the 1930s and more often until well after World War II in favor of European and Asian art. The 336 page full color volume examines 82 objects and their connections to American history, culture, literature and politics. The 73 articles present a running commentary on each piece by knowledgeable and thoughtful contemporary scholars and artists writing with expertise and insight ultimately presenting a new and deeper understanding that enhances the reader viewer s appreciation of the work The tour ranges from Colonial times to the twenty first century from Maine to Florida to the far West from mighty historical subjects to intimate byways from august figures and events to the humblest and most anonymous The diversity of American experience on display here reminds us that the best American art is inextricably bound up with the essential truths of American experience Chicana Portraits Norma Elia
