On Their Own Making The Transition From School To Work In The Information Age:

On Their Own? Stewart Crysdale, Alan J. C. King, Nancy Mandell, 1999 Uses a sample of 324 young adults in four Canadian urban centers who left high school in the mid 1980s as well as interviews with their parents former teachers and employers to identify factors that ease the transition from school to work Looks at factors such as level of education social class gender and motivation with emphasis on the importance of cooperative education Suggests closer relations between school and work such as exist in the UK and Sweden to facilitate transition into the labor market Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Resources in Education ,2001 Prestige Squeeze John Goyder, 2009-10 What do you do is often the first question posed when strangers meet as occupation reveals a great deal about both social identity and social standing or occupational prestige Ibss: Economics: 1999 Compiled by the British Library of Political and Economic Science, 2000-12-07 IBSS is the essential tool for librarians university departments research institutions and any public or private institution whose work requires access to up to date and comprehensive knowledge of the social sciences Youth Policies and Services in Chinese Societies Steven Sek-yum Ngai, Chau-kiu Cheung, Ngan-pun Ngai, 2018-02-02 In recent decades much of youth research in Chinese societies has sought to understand the transformation of the younger generation and their social environment in the context of globalization deindustrialization and economic insecurity The epochal events of the global economic transformation and financial crisis along with long term Chinese social trends such as rising unemployment income disparity and migration are in the process of creating new structural relations between young people and related social actors Accordingly this book charts the current conditions of youth services and policies in Chinese societies by examining case studies in Beijing Jinan Shanghai Tianjin and Hong Kong The chapters address the related issues stemming from unemployment volunteering internal migration economic disadvantages school social work and leadership training Through comparative analyses of the aforementioned issues the collection highlights contemporary issues in Chinese youth policies and services including work commitment social inclusion social support from family and teachers volunteering and leadership training The book argues that the strengthening of empowerment and social inclusion in Chinese youth services offers a solution to problems of alienation powerlessness and underclass status The quest for social inclusion therefore merits renewed attention in the youth policies and services of Chinese societies This was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of Adolescence and Youth The Sociology of Education in Canada Terry Wotherspoon, 2004 In this revised and updated second edition of The Sociology of Education in Canada Terry Wotherspoon traces the historical development and organization of Canadian education and describes sociological theories and analysis of education Choice ,2001 Telling the Stories of Life through Guided Autobiography Groups James E. Birren, Kathryn N. Cochran, 2003-05-22 Telling the Stories of Life through Guided Autobiography Groups based on James Birren s 25 years of conducting autobiography groups discusses all the topics an organizer faces while developing a program for adults who want to recall and write down their life histories This book is ideal for adult education programs church groups social workers psychologists gerontologists and others who work with adults who might be interested in exploring recording or sharing their personal histories It helps professionals and trained workshop leaders at community centers senior centers schools and other settings guide group participants in exploring major themes of their lives so that they can organize and write their stories and share them in a group with others on the same journey This exercise is rewarding for adults of any age in a period of transition or with interest in gaining insight from their own stories Personal development and a feeling of connection to other participants and their stories is a natural outcome of this process This book provides background material and detailed lesson plans for those who wish to develop and lead an autobiography group The authors explain the concept of guided autobiography discuss the benefits to the group participants and provide logistical information on how to plan organize and set up a group An appendix provides exercises handouts and suggested adaptations for specific groups The book also explains a systematic method of priming memories including the history of family and of one's life work the role of money health and the body and ideas about death At a time when rapid change has created a widespread yearning to write down and exchange personal accounts sharing life stories can reveal a great deal about how we have come to be the persons we are Telling the Stories of Life through Guided Autobiography Groups shows how to organize record and share life experiences through a proven and effective technique
