On Transforming Africa Kofi Buenor Hadjor, 1987 On Transforming Africa Kofi Buenor Hadjor, 1987 Africa's Elusive Quest for Development M. Houngnikpo, 2006-02-18 Matt Houngnikpo examines how domestic conflict economic stagnation political instability poverty and underdevelopment have plagued Africa for decades He argues that a reversal of the political economic and social plight of Africa lies in better policies good governance and more importantly a new type of African leader and citizen Africa in an Era of Crisis Kofi Buenor Hadjor, 1990 African Development, African Transformation Landry Signé, 2018-11-08 Africa is home to many of the world's fastest growing economies This powerful book traces new continental institutions for development and their capacity to affect economic growth regional integration and international cooperation in Africa It also assesses Africa's ability to achieve the Sustainable Development Goals and the African Union's Agenda 2063 As the continent's most ambitious development initiative since independence the African Union Development Agency or AUDA previously known as the New Partnership for Africa's Development or NEPAD provides an excellent case study for examining how an African based continent wide development institution emerged Inspired by the ideas of Pan Africanism and the African renaissance NEPAD was created to bring Africa into the globalizing world to close the gap between developing and developed countries to enhance economic growth and to eradicate poverty Almost two decades after NEPAD's creation and given its transformation into AUDA this brilliant book examines AUDA's role in achieving these goals An Anthology of African Cultural Studies, Volume II Handel Kashope Wright, Keyan G. Tomaselli, 2024-10-04 This volume focuses on the directions that African cultural studies has taken over the years and covers the following central themes contemporary issues in African cultural studies Gender and the making of identity the dual discourses of Afropessimism and Afrofuturism problematizing the African diaspora and methodology and African cultural studies The second of two volumes the book predominantly pulls together a rich reservoir of previously published articles from Critical Arts South North Cultural and Media Studies Taken together the two volumes re-expose for international readers sets of theories methodologies and studies that not only have been influenced by global trends but which themselves have contributed to shaping those trends While the first volume addressed foundational themes and issues in African cultural studies this second volume focuses on the directions that African cultural studies is taking the complex ways in which gender can be seen at work in the making of identity the juxtaposition of two relatively new themes in African cultural studies namely Afropessimism and Afrofuturism the ways in which the presence of continental Africans in the diaspora problematize taken for granted conceptions of diaspora and diasporic identity identifying some of the methodological issues and approaches that have been taken up in African cultural studies work This book will be a key resource for academics researchers and advanced students of African cultural studies media and cultural studies African studies history politics sociology and social and cultural anthropology while also being of interest to those seeking an introduction to the sub field of

African cultural studies African Media in an Age of Extraction Noah Tsika, 2025-10-01 African Media in an Age of Extraction takes a fresh site specific look at the relationship between moving images and the mining of natural resources arguing that where we place Nollywood and other industries has important practical and conceptual consequences Such locations are not just spatial metaphors but also tangible geographies with material connections to extractive economies Sites of film production are often spaces of oil prospecting timber harvesting and mineral extraction natural environments continuously transformed by capital African Media in an Age of Extraction links such absolute spaces reclaimed lands razed forests petroleum zones abandoned coal mines collecting moss vast tin fields inspiring illegal dredging by populations locked out of the licit economy to the abstract and lived dimensions of film villages shooting locations and exhibition centers The geographies of African media industries are not fixed locations cleanly separated from surrounding areas or from the wider world including Hollywood nor are they fully detachable from the mineral and hydrocarbon resources that also define them Considering multiple scales the local the national the regional the continental the planetary this book takes stock of the physical terrain and extractive objects that Nollywood shares with other industries and that structure screen media more broadly Topographies political economies national identities and natural resources are entwined in ways that cinema makes intelligible and that carry the potential to transform the way we see the medium itself Regime Hegemony in Museveni's Uganda J. Rubongoya, 2007-01-08 This is a study of the struggle for the restoration of legitimate power in Uganda following the 1986 National Resistance Army Movement NRA M liberation battle led by President Yoweri Museveni It addresses the empirical consequences of legitimacy on power relations and how this affects democratization and economic progress Oral Traditions as Philosophy Sam O. Imbo, 2002 Oral Traditions as Philosophy is a study of the Ugandan poet and cultural critic Okot p Bitek In his poems and critical essays Okot engages with the oral traditions of his people the songs dances funeral dirges and so forth seeing them as manifestations of the people s philosophy of life Imbo s book makes explicit the philosophical questions raised in Okot s work and places them within the wider picture of contemporary African philosophy Kwame Nkrumah's Political Kingdom and Pan-Africanism Reinterpreted, 1909-1972 A.B.

Assensoh, Yvette M. Alex-Assensoh, 2022-02-07 Kwame Nkrumah s Political Kingdom and Pan Africanism ReInterpreted 1909 1972 provides an in depth study of the life of the late Pan African leader from the former Gold Coast Kwame Nkrumah Authors A B Assensoh and Yvette M Alex Assensoh analyze Nkrumah s life from his birth on the Gold Coast through his studies in the United Kingdom and the United States his activism and political life and his exile and death Throughout Assensoh and Alex Assensoh present a twenty first century reinterpretation of Nkrumah s Pan Africanist views in the context of Black unity as well as Black liberation within the African continent and the United States and Caribbean diaspora

Analysing the Role of Energy Security in Promoting Third World Development John Alobwede Ngome, Every scholar who reads this book will concur that at the heart of John s analysis is rooted a fundamental question and preoccupation that although Cameroon is naturally endowed with abundant and diverse energy resources the country however remains an energy poor state due to the absence of a durable Energy Security Plan political vision and political will all of which continue to hamper the development of a range of renewables alongside various fossil fuels to improve and guarantee durable Energy Security to catalyze development and reverse the current energy crisis Prof Dr Amelia Hadfield Head of Department of Politics University of Surrey United Kingdom

Is Apartheid Really Dead? Pan Africanist Working Class Cultural Critical Perspectives Julian Kunnie, 2018-02-23

Is Apartheid Really Dead Pan Africanist Working Class Cultural Critical Perspectives is an engaging and incisive book that radically challenges the widespread view that post apartheid society is a liberated society specifically for the Black working class and rural peasant populations Julian Kunnie's central contention in this book is that the post apartheid government was the product of a serious compromise between the former ruling white led Nationalist Party and the African National Congress resulting in a continuation of the erstwhile system of monopoly capitalism and racial privilege albeit revised by the presence of a burgeoning Black political and economic elite The result of this historic compromise is the persistent subjugation and impoverishment of the Black working class by the designs of global capital as under apartheid this time managed by a Black elite in collaboration with the powerful white capitalist establishment in South Africa

Is Apartheid Really Dead engages in a comprehensive analysis of the South African conflict and the negotiated settlement of apartheid rule and explores solutions to the problematic of continued Black oppression and exploitation Rooted in a Black Consciousness philosophical framework unlike most other works on post apartheid South Africa this book provides a carefully delineated history of the South African struggle from the pre colonial era through the present What is additionally distinctive is the author's reference to and discussion of the Pan Africanist movement in the global struggle for Black liberation highlighting the aftermath of the 1945 Pan African meeting in Manchester The author analyzes the South African struggle within the context of Pan Africanism and the continent wide movement to rid Africa of colonialism's legacy highlighting the neo colonial character of much of Africa's post independence nations arguing that South Africa has followed similar patterns One of the attractive qualities of this book is that it discusses correctives to the perceived situation of neo colonialism in South Africa by delving into issues of gender oppression and the primacy of women's struggle working class exploitation and Black worker mobilization environmental despoliation and indigenous religio cultural responses and educational disenfranchisement and the need for radically new structures and policies in educational transformation Ultimately Is Apartheid Really Dead postulates revolutionary change as a solution undergirded with all of the aforementioned ingredients While anticipating and articulating a revolutionary socialist vision for post apartheid South Africa this book is tempered by a realistic appraisal of the dynamics of the global economy and the legacy of colonial oppression and capitalism in South Africa

African Renaissance in the Millennium Emmanuel Ike Udogu, 2007-01-01 The book brings into sharp focus some of the major political social and economic issues that might impede Africa's development project in the 21st century It debates and suggests ways that policy makers might tackle these issues in order to promote the vision of the continent's transformation in the millennium Democratization and Bureaucratic Neutrality Haile K. Asmerom, Elisa P. Reis, 2016-07-27

The book focuses on the mutual implications of bureaucratic neutrality and democracy from the perspective of societies formerly under authoritarian regimes It explores the impact of democratization on bureaucratic neutrality as well as the implications of neutral bureaucracies for democracy Theoretical and conceptual dimensions of the subject are spelled out and specialists discuss case studies from Eastern Europe Africa Latin America and Asia therefore compounding a broad panel of the challenges and opportunities confronting the democratization process throughout the world The Hermeneutics of African Philosophy Tsenay Serequeberhan, 2013-01-11

Hermeneutics is a crucial but neglected perspective in African philosophy Here Tsenay Serequeberhan engages post colonial African literature and the ideas of the African liberation struggle with critically used insights from the European philosophical tradition Continuing the work of Theophilus Okere and Okonda Okolo this book attempts to overcome the debate between ethnophilosophy and professional philosophy demonstrating that the promise of African philosophy lies with the critical development of the African hermeneutical perspective Indigenous Discourses on Knowledge and Development in Africa Edward Shizha, Ali A. Abdi, 2013-12-04

African social development is often explained from outsider perspectives that are mainly European and Euro American leaving African indigenous discourses and ways of knowing and doing absent from discussions and debates on knowledge and development This book is intended to present Africanist indigenous voices in current debates on economic educational political and social development in Africa The authors and contributors to the volume present bold and timely ideas and scholarship for defining Africa through its challenges possible policy formations planning and implementation at the local regional and national levels The book also reveals insightful examinations of the hype the myths and the realities of many topics of concern with respect to dominant development discourses and challenges the misconceptions and misrepresentations of indigenous perspectives on knowledge productions and overall social well being or lack thereof The volume brings together researchers who are concerned with comparative education international development and African development research and practice in particular Policy makers institutional planners education specialists governmental and non governmental managers and the wider public should all benefit from the contents and analyses of this book

Pan-Africanism: Exploring the Contradictions William B. Ackah, 2016-12-05 What does it mean to be an African today Starting from that question the author takes the reader on a fascinating intellectual journey into the realm of Pan African thought and practice Moving from Africa to North America to Europe the text insightfully explores the pre occupations of black elite in the three continents exploring their shared visions and also their conflicting interests Tackling thought provoking issues in politics cultural identity and economic development the book provides the reader with a refreshing jargon free insight into relations between Africa and the African Diaspora A must read for anyone interested in politics identity and development in Africa and the African Diaspora Africa Air University (U.S.). Library,1988 Role of Leaders in Managing Higher Education Enakshi Sengupta,Patrick Blessinger,2022-12-05 Role of Leaders in Managing Higher Education highlights the importance of leaders in educational institutions Showcasing a richly diverse authorship the collection discusses the autonomy of faculty members based on bonds created through ethics the style of leadership and the concept of democracy and social justice Responsibility and Partnership in Swedish Aid Discourse Gudrun Dahl,2001 In 1997 the Swedish Ministry for Foreign Affairs elaborated a New Policy for Africa Its purpose was to co ordinate the country s cultural assistance trade and development aid to African countries by giving these activities a frame of common goals and an ideological rationale emphasising partnership rather than solidarity or aid This paper analyses the metaphors and paradoxes of the rhetorical draping of the policy as presented in the main report and the speeches of various officials Of particular concern is what image of moral and reciprocal relations the policy mediates
