On The Nature Of Consciousness Cognitive Phenomenological And Transpersonal Perspectives:

On the Nature of Consciousness Harry T. Hunt,1995-01-01 Harry Hunt begins by reviewing the renewed interest in ordinary consciousness and in altered and transpersonal states of consciousness He then presents competing views of consciousness in cognition neurophysiology and animal psychology developing a view of perceptual awareness as the core of consciousness potentially shared across species Religion Today Ross Aden,Chris A. Kramer,2024-07-02 Religion Today introduces students to key concepts in religious studies through a compelling problem solving framework Each chapter opens with a contemporary case study that helps students engage in current religious issues explore possible solutions to difficult religious problems today and learn key themes and concepts in religious studies To enhance student learning a free Student Study Guide is available for download from Rowman Littlefield The Study Guide features chapter summaries definition quizzes for students to test themselves on key terms and possible learning activities The Cambridge Handbook of Consciousness Philip David Zelazo,Morris Moscovitch,Evan Thompson,2007-05-14 The Cambridge Handbook of Consciousness is the first of its kind in the field and its appearance marks a unique time in the history of intellectual inquiry on the topic After decades during which consciousness was considered beyond the scope of legitimate scientific investigation consciousness re emerged as a popular focus of research towards the end of the last century and it has remained so for nearly 20 years There are now so many different lines of investigation on consciousness that the time has come when the field may finally benefit from a book that pulls them together and by juxtaposing them provides a comprehensive survey of this exciting field An authoritative desk reference which will also be suitable as an advanced textbook The Inner Journey Home A. H. Almaas,2004-04-27 What is the soul and how do we come to know it What is its journey in life and what stages and obstacles are encountered along the way These questions are explored here in detail according to the Diamond Approach a spiritual path that combines systematic inquiry into personal experience the practice of traditional spiritual methods and the application of modern psychological research The Inner Journey Home is the centerpiece of the Diamond Approach literature providing a complete overview of the teaching with references to the author s other books for more details on certain topics The Human Being in Contemporary Philosophical Conceptions Nikolai Omelchenko,2009-03-26 This book is a collection of the selected proceedings of the 4th International Conference Human Being in Contemporary Philosophical Conceptions which was held under the patronage of UNESCO at Volgograd State University Russia on May 28 31 2007 In the letter to the organizers Mr Ko chiro Matsuura wrote I should like to congratulate you on this important initiative to promote philosophical reflection which is one of the central objectives of UNESCO s Intersectoral Strategy on Philosophy There is an interesting fact the 19th World Congress of Philosophy in Moscow 1993 had no session on philosophical anthropology the next Congress in Boston 1998 had one such session the 21st Congress of Philosophy in Istanbul 2003 had already four sessions and the 22nd World Congress of Philosophy in Seoul 2008 had six sessions on philosophical anthropology Obviously we may observe a new anthropological renaissance in contemporary thought This book serves the philosophical anthropology becoming as well Perhaps an idea of integral studies is the most attractive trend in the contemporary philosophy and science The book presents an experience in integral philosophy of human being Also the development of philosophical anthropology is closely connected with practical tasks Our political activities welfare projects and educational programs can become really useful only when we are guided by knowledge of what human being is what we are able to do what are own needs and what we must become Philosophical anthropology could correctly define the research purposes of all human sciences This volume includes various reflexions and styles of thinking By this all the papers demonstrate metaphysics of respect for human being The contributors scholars from the different countries are open for free discussions and fresh ideas

Time, Self, and Psychoanalysis William W. Meissner, 2007-03-06 This book is a study of time particularly of the nature of subjective time that is time as subjectively experienced and lived in contrast with time as measured objectively as for example by a clock The argument first addresses the development of the time experience its origins in infantile experience and traces its variations and modifications during the course of the life cycle As the life course advances concerns about and preoccupations with death play an increasingly important role in attitudes toward and involvement in temporally related contexts The next step is an examination of the phenomenology of time experience itself and its dependence on biorhythms and affective influences An important aspect of this discussion is the relation between time experience as a conscious phenomenon and the functioning of unconscious determinants of the time experience This leads to the question given these conclusions regarding the nature of time experience what implications can we draw for the understanding of the nature and functioning of the self within psychoanalysis The book s final section applies these understandings to the analytic process focusing particularly on the meaning of the time experience in the patient s psychic reality and patterns of enactment around issues of time and time management in the analytic situation

Jung in the 21st Century Volume Two , Radical Embodiment David H Nikkel, 2011-05-26 Radical embodiment refers to an epistemology and anthropology fundamentally rooted in our bodies as always in correlation with our natural and social environments All human rationality meaning and value arise not only instrumentally but also substantively from this embodiment in the world Radical embodiment reacts against Enlightenment mind body dualism as well as its monistic offshoots including the physicalism that reduces everything to component matter energy at the expense of subjectivity and meaning It also rejects certain forms of postmodernism that reinscribe modern dualisms David H Nikkel develops and explores this perspective of radical embodiment by examining varieties of modern and postmodern theology and the nature and role of tradition in terms of linguistic and non linguistic experience the religion and science dialogue on the nature of consciousness and the immanent and transcendent aspects of God

Divination Patrick Curry, 2016-05-13 Divination is any ritual and its associated tradition performed in order to ask a more than human intelligence for guidance A universal human practice it has received surprisingly little academic attention This interdisciplinary collection by leading scholars in the field is dedicated to fascinating new insights into divination and oracles arising from recent work in anthropology religious studies history and classical studies Central importance is given to the practical and theoretical perspectives of diviners as well as scholars of divination several contributors are both This book explores philosophical issues such as the nature of divinatory intelligence the relationship between divinatory and metaphorical truth the primacy of ontology over epistemology the importance of reflexivity in scholarly studies of divination and astrology as the principal Western form of divination The ethnographic and historical examples range from contemporary Nigeria urban Cuba Mayan Guatemala and the shamanic cultures of the circumpolar Arctic to classical Greece and ancient Judea     Constructive Psychotherapy Michael J. Mahoney, 2003-07-16 An invaluable teaching text and clinical resource this is a book about how to do psychotherapy how to apply the science of change to the complexities of helping people develop new meanings in their lives Explaining constructivist principles and illuminating what a skilled clinician actually does in day to day practice Michael J Mahoney shows how to nurture the therapeutic relationship while implementing such creative interventions as centering techniques problem solving pattern work meditation and embodiment exercises drama and dream work and spiritual exploration Appendices feature reproducible client forms handouts and other useful materials     Education and Imagination Raya Jones, Austin Clarkson, Sue Congram, Nick Stratton, 2008-06-30 This edited book explores the application of Jungian perspectives in educational settings     Transformational Embodiment in Asian Religions George Pati, Katherine C. Zubko, 2019-10-28 This volume examines several theoretical concerns of embodiment in the context of Asian religious practice Looking at both subtle and spatial bodies it explores how both types of embodiment are engaged as sites for transformation transaction and transgression Collectively bridging ancient and modern conceptualizations of embodiment in religious practice the book offers a complex mapping of how body is defined It revisits more traditional mystical religious systems including Hindu Tantra and Yoga Tibetan Buddhism Bon Chinese Daoism and Persian Sufism and distinctively juxtaposes these inquiries alongside analyses of racial gendered and colonized bodies Such a multifaceted subject requires a diverse approach and so perspectives from phenomenology and neuroscience as well as critical race theory and feminist theology are utilised to create more precise analytical tools for the scholarly engagement of embodied religious epistemologies This a nuanced and interdisciplinary exploration of the myriad issues around bodies within religion As such it will be a key resource for any scholar of Religious Studies Asian Studies Anthropology Sociology Philosophy and Gender Studies     The Heart of Listening Rosalind Pearmain, 2001-01-30 This the latest book from The School of Psychotherapy and Counselling Series of Regent s College is an intriguing book which explores complex areas and is recommended for the more experienced practitioner Counsellingbooks com This book focuses in depth on how attention and the heart are involved in relating to others The author draws in both west and west to illuminate this often neglected aspect of psychotherapeutic work Sufic and Yogic approaches to heart consciousness are given as well as those from contemporary scientific studies which are discovering the heart's intelligence. Also drawing on contemporary contribution from cognitive psychology neuroscience Rosalind Pearmain describes the moment by moment process of relational contract in terms of an arc of attunement amplification and reverberation and offers practical exercises to develop our heart's capacities to respond to others. Intriguing extraordinary skillful Counselling News Exceptional Experience and Health Christine Simmonds-Moore, 2014-01-10 The study of the effect of exceptional experiences and beliefs on health including anomalous placebo or hypnotic healing and mystical religious transpersonal and creative experiences is attracting increasing academic and public interest. This collection of essays explores the nature of mind its impact on the body and the relationship between exceptional experiences and physical health mental health and the potential for other types of perception. Examining the influence of spiritual practices mental imagery and alternative healing methods such as Reiki and Johrei the essays encourage the expansion of mental health practice to include the full range of exceptional experiences. By normalizing experiences that are often pathologized this book recognizes that exceptional human experiences can and do have value for physical and mental health. Texts and Textiles Diana Mary Eva Thomas, 2017-03-07 This study shows how fiction that makes use of textiles as an essential element utilizes synaesthetic writing and synaesthetic metaphor to create an affective link to and response in the reader. These links and responses are examined using affect theory from Silvan Tomkins and Brian Massumi and work on synaesthesia by Richard Cytowic Lawrence Marks and V S Ramachandran among others. Synaesthetic writing including synaesthetic metaphors has been explored in poetry since the 1920s and more recently in fiction but these studies have been general in nature. By narrowing the field of investigation to those novels that specifically employ three types of hand crafted textiles quilt making knitting and embroidery the book isolates how these textiles are used in fiction. The combination of synaesthesia memory metaphor and particularly synaesthetic metaphor in fiction with textiles in the text of the case studies selected shows how these are used to create affect in readers enhancing their engagement in the story. The work is framed within the context of the history of textile production and the use of textiles in fiction internationally but concentrates on Australian authors who have used textiles in their writing. The decision to focus on Australian authors was taken in light of the quality and depth of the writing of textile fiction produced in Australia between 1980 and 2005 in the three categories of hand crafted textiles quilt making knitting and embroidery. The texts chosen for intensive study are Kate Grenville's The Idea of Perfection 1999 quilting Marele Day's Lambs of God 1997 knitting and Anne Bartlett's Knitting 2005 knitting Jessica Anderson's Tirra Lirra by the River 1978 embroidery and Marion Halligan's Spider Cup 1990 embroidery. Mimesis Valery Podoroga, 2022-08-09 Ground breaking work of philosophy and Russian Literature translated for the first time. Valery Podoroga was one of the most important thinkers of his generation. Here his most famous work is translated into English for the first time. In it he gives a panorama view of Russian writing focusing in on the work of Nikolai Gogol Fyodor Dostoevsky and Andrei Bely. He identifies these authors as pioneers in creating an other literature This constituted a new form of mimesis or vision of the world in opposition to the Imperial and national myths In Mimesis Podoroga develops and elaborates his analytic anthropological approach on these authors with startling effect excavating the identities and forms of Russian literature and society He places an emphasis on how a literary work is a process of world building both internally by creating a fictive world but also how it reflects the wider world in which it was produced and the power with which it changes the world Finally the literary work's ability to exist in a time that is other than its own time a time where it does not have a contemporary reader and an author who exercises his will but where it nonetheless continues to mean something Mimesis is rightly seen as the masterwork of one of the world's leading literary thinkers

Divination Dr Patrick Curry, 2013-06-28 Divination is any ritual and its associated tradition performed in order to ask a more than human intelligence for guidance A universal human practice it has received surprisingly little academic attention This interdisciplinary collection by leading scholars in the field is dedicated to fascinating new insights into divination and oracles arising from recent work in anthropology religious studies history and classical studies Central importance is given to the practical and theoretical perspectives of diviners as well as scholars of divination several contributors are both This book explores philosophical issues such as the nature of divinatory intelligence the relationship between divinatory and metaphorical truth the primacy of ontology over epistemology the importance of reflexivity in scholarly studies of divination and astrology as the principal Western form of divination The ethnographic and historical examples range from contemporary Nigeria urban Cuba Mayan Guatemala and the shamanic cultures of the circumpolar Arctic to classical Greece and ancient Judea

Jung in the 21st Century Volume One John Ryan Haule, 2010-10-18 This first volume provides an original overview of Jung's work demonstrating that it is fully compatible with contemporary views in science. It draws on a wide range of scientific disciplines including evolution, neurobiology, primatology, archaeology, and anthropology. Divided into three parts, areas of discussion include evolution, archetype and behaviour, individuation, complexes, and theory of therapy. Jung's psyche and its neural substrate, the transcendent function, history of consciousness, Jung in the 21st Century. Volume One: Evolution and Archetype will be an invaluable resource for all those in the field of analytical psychology, including students of Jung, psychoanalysts, and psychotherapists with an interest in the meeting of Jung and science.

Embracing the Tune of Phrase: An Emotional Symphony within On The Nature Of Consciousness Cognitive Phenomenological And Transpersonal Perspectives

In a global eaten by screens and the ceaseless chatter of instantaneous communication, the melodic elegance and mental symphony produced by the prepared word often fade into the background, eclipsed by the persistent sound and interruptions that permeate our lives. However, nestled within the pages of On The Nature Of Consciousness Cognitive Phenomenological And Transpersonal Perspectives a stunning literary prize overflowing with raw emotions, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by a masterful musician of language, that interesting masterpiece conducts readers on a mental journey, well unraveling the hidden melodies and profound affect resonating within each carefully constructed phrase. Within the depths with this touching assessment, we shall investigate the book is central harmonies, analyze its enthralling writing fashion, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
