Shakespeare and I - Mirroring All Façades of Reality Manuel Augusto Antão,2016-09-08 In case there s anyone out there that has been reading the things I ve been writing on my blogs probably noticed that one of my projects for 2014 2015 and now 2016 was to read through all of Shakespeare s Works Unfortunately in 2014 I wasn t able to start this project I read some Shakespeare stuff but no plays 2015 was where things really started shapping up Shakespeare wise But things were looking even better for 2016 On top of that 2016 commemorated 400 years since the death of William Shakespeare and this special anniversary year was a truly unique opportunity to complete my quest of reading the rest of his entire body of work Nine Unlikely Tales Edith Nesbit,2024-12-12 MATILDA S ears were red and shiny So were her cheeks Her hands were red too This was because Pridmore had washed her It was not the usual washing which makes you clean and comfortable but the thorough good wash which makes you burn and smart till you wish you could be like the poor little savages who do not know anything and run about bare in the sun and only go into the water when they are hot Matilda wished she could have been born in a savage tribe instead of at Brixton Little savages she said don t have their ears washed thoroughly and they don t have new dresses that are prickly in the insides round their arms and cut them round the neck Do they Pridmore The Life of Our Lord in Simple Language for Little Children Anonymous,2024-11-23 In preparing this brief account of the chief incidents in Our Lord s Life the writer has endeavoured to keep as close as possible to the sacred text its divine simplicity being far preferable to any other style of writing the story The easiest words and those most familiar to children have generally been used and every effort has been made to adapt the volume to the intelligence of the young with the view of instilling into their minds the love of our Saviour for mankind as shown in the beautiful story of His life KING DAVID In ages past God made the world the earth the sea the hills the streams the trees the fish birds and beasts last of all He made Adam the first man and Eve his wife and they lived in the Garden of Eden They were quite good at first but tempted by Satan they ate the fruit of a tree God told them not to eat and that brought sin into the world they could not live for ever now they must die but that their souls might go to heaven God s own Son said He would come down on earth and die to save them God said His Son should be born of Abraham s nation and should be one of the sons of the line of King David who sang the sweet psalms in praise of God Abraham was a good man so good that God called him His friend and from him came the people called Jews David was one of their kings God always keeps His word but He makes men wait till it is His time to do as He says and it was a long long time after Abraham and David that our Lord came to live among men At last God sent His angel Gabriel to a young maiden named Mary who lived at a town called Nazareth to tell her that God loved her and that she should have God s Son for her own son Our Lord would be her little babe When Mary saw the angel she was at first afraid but he said to her Fear not Mary and he told her that she must call the child s name Jesusthat means Saviourfor He would save the people from their sins Then Mary must have been glad She said I am God s servant may His will be done Mary was to be the wife of her cousin Josephthey were both of David s familyso the angel went and told him too that Mary should have God s Son for her own and that he must call the child Jesus Cosmos Ernest McGaffey,2024-10-10 I Go search the ons an you will Where withered leaves of Doubt are whirled And who hath solved this riddle Life Or Death that moves with sails unfurled Beyond the straining eyes of man Marooned upon an unknown world II Nor tongue hath told nor vision caught That paradox Primeval Cause Each age has had some parable Each age succeeding marked the flaws While shifted with the calendar What men have termed generic laws III Creed after creed behold them now Like Etna on Vesuvius piled Till scaled to earth by drifting sands They lie in later days reviled And pushed aside by Time s rough hand As toys are by a peevish child      Fairy Tales From all Nations Anthony R. Montalba,2024-11-24 he time has been but happily exists no longer when it would have been necessary to offer an apology for such a book as this In those days it was not held that Beauty is its own excuse for being on the contrary a spurious utilitarianism reigned supreme in literature and fancy and imagination were told to fold their wings and travel only in the dusty paths of every day life Fairy tales and all such flights into the region of the supernatural were then condemned as merely idle things or as pernicious occupations for faculties that should be always directed to serious and profitable concerns But now we have cast off that pedantic folly let us hope for ever We now acknowledge that innocent amusement is good for its own sake and we do not affect to prove our advance in civilisation by our incapacity to relish those sportive creations of unrestricted fancy that have been the delight of every generation in every land from times beyond the reach of history The materials of the following Collection have been carefully chosen from more than a hundred volumes of the fairy lore of all nations and none of them so far as the Editor is aware have been previously translated into English STORIES THE BIRTH OF THE FAIRY TALE SNOW WHITE AND ROSY RED THE STORY OF ARGILIUS AND THE FLAME KING PERSEVERE AND PROSPER THE PRINCE OF THE GLOW WORMS THE TWO MISERS PRINCE CHAFFINCH THE WOLF AND THE NIGHTINGALE THE ENCHANTED CROW THE DRAGON GIANT AND HIS STONE STEED THE STORY OF SIVA AND MADHAVA THE GOBLIN BIRD THE SHEPHERD AND THE SERPENT THE EXPEDITIOUS FROG EASTWARD OF THE SUN AND WESTWARD OF THE MOON THE LITTLE MAN IN GREY RED WHITE AND BLACK THE TWELVE LOST PRINCESSES AND THE WIZARD KING THE STUDY OF MAGIC UNDER DIFFICULTIES FORTUNE S FAVOURITE OR THE VERY WONDERFUL ADVENTURES OF PISTA THE SWINEHERD THE LUCKY DAYS THE FEAST OF THE DWARFS THE THREE DOGS THE COURAGEOUS FLUTE PLAYER THE GLASS HATCHET THE GOLDEN DUCK GOLDY THE SERPENT PRINCE THE PROPHETIC DREAM      Eve's Complete Diary Mark Twain,2024-10-10 When I look back the Garden is a dream to me It was beautiful surpassingly beautiful enchantingly beautiful and now it is lost and I shall not see it any more The Garden is lost but I have found HIM and am content He loves me as well as he can I love him with all the strength of my passionate nature and this I think is proper to my youth and sex If I ask myself why I love him I find I do not know and do not really much care to know so I suppose that this kind of love is not a product of reasoning and statistics like one s love for other reptiles and animals I think that this must be so I love certain birds because of their song but I do not love Adam on account of his singingno it is not that the more he sings the more I do not get reconciled to it Yet I ask him to sing because I wish to learn to like everything he is interested in I am sure I can learn because at first I could not stand it but now I can It sours the milk but it doesn t matter I can get used to that kind of milk It is not on account of his brightness that I love himno it is not that He is not to blame for his brightness such as it is for he did not make it himself he is as God make him and that is sufficient There was a wise purpose in it THAT I know In time it will devp theloough I think it will not be sudden and besides there is no hurry he is well enough just as he is      Boyhood of Jesus Anonymous,2024-12-07 TRY to be like JESUS The Bible tells of Jesus So gentle and so meek I ll try to be like Jesus In ev ry word I speak For Jesus too was loving His words were always kind I ll try to be like Jesus In thought and word and mind I long to be like Jesus Who said I am the Truth Then I will give my heart to him Now in my early youth Lillian Payson THERE was once a time when there was no Christmas at all There were no beautiful Christmas trees and happy songs and stockings filled with presents No one shouted Merry Christmas or Christmas Gift No one told the sweet story of Jesus because Jesus had not come into the world and so there was no Christmas You see Christmas is Jesus birthday and before he came of course people could not keep his birthday You have heard of how wicked and unhappy the people were long ago Although God loved them and tried to make them do right they forgot about him and did so many naughty disobedient things that they were very miserable Then God sent a wonderful message to them He told them that some day he would send them his own Son who should be their King and teach them how to do right He said that his Son would come as a little child to grow up among them to love and help them God even told them what they should call this baby who was to be their King God said that Christ would be like a beautiful light showing them where to go It would be as though some people stumbling sorrowfully along a dark street should suddenly see a bright light shining ahead of them making everything cheerful and pleasant They would be joyful like people who gather in the harvest Jesus makes his children happy and he wants them to shine out and make others happy These people who were so unhappy before Jesus came were very glad to know that some day he would come They talked about him and waited a long long time before he came and brought Christmas light into the world      Meditations Marcus Aurelius,2024-12-07 Such is the system which underlies the Meditations of Marcus Aurelius Some knowledge of it is necessary to the right understanding of the book but for us the chief interest lies elsewhere We do not come to Marcus Aurelius for a treatise on Stoicism He is no head of a school to lay down a body of doctrine for students he does not even contemplate that others should read what he writes His philosophy is not an eager intellectual inquiry but more what we should call religious feeling The uncompromising stiffness of Zeno or Chrysippus is softened and transformed by passing through a nature reverent and tolerant gentle and free from guile the grim resignation which made life possible to the Stoic sage becomes in him almost a mood of aspiration His book records the innermost thoughts of his heart set down to ease it with such moral maxims and reflections as may help him to bear the burden of duty and the countless annoyances of a busy life It is instructive to compare the Meditations with another famous book the Imitation of Christ There is the same ideal of self control in both It should be a man s task says the Imitation to overcome himself and every day to be stronger than himself In withstanding of the passions standeth very peace of heart Let us set the axe to the root that we being purged of our passions may have a peaceable mind To this end there must be continual self examination If thou may not continually gather thyself together namely sometimes do it at least once a day the morning or the evening In the morning purpose in the evening discuss the manner what thou hast been this day in word work and thought But while the Roman's temper is a modest self reliance the Christian aims at a more passive mood humbleness and meekness and reliance on the presence and personal friendship of God The Roman scrutinises his faults with severity but without the self contempt which makes the Christian vile in his own sight The Christian like the Roman bids study to withdraw thine heart from the love of things visible but it is not the busy life of duty he has in mind so much as the contempt of all worldly things and the cutting away of all lower delectations Both rate men's praise or blame at their real worthlessness Let not thy peace says the Christian be in the mouths of men But it is to God's censure the Christian appeals the Roman to his own soul The petty annoyances of injustice or unkindness are looked on by each with the same magnanimity Why doth a little thing said or done against thee make thee sorry It is no new thing it is not the first nor shall it be the last if thou live long At best suffer patiently if thou canst not suffer joyously The Christian should sorrow more for other men's malice than for our own wrongs but the Roman is inclined to wash his hands of the offender Study to be patient in suffering and bearing other men's defaults and all manner infirmities says the Christian but the Roman would never have thought to add If all men were perfect what had we then to suffer of other men for God The virtue of suffering in itself is an idea which does not meet us in the Meditations Both alike realise that man is one of a great community No man is sufficient to himself says the Christian we must bear together help together comfort together But while he sees a chief importance in zeal in exalted emotion that is and avoidance of lukewarmness the Roman thought mainly of the duty to be done as well as might be and less of the feeling which should go with the doing of it To the saint as to the emperor the world is a poor thing at best Verily it is a misery to live upon the earth says the Christian few and evil are the days of man's life which passeth away suddenly as a shadow

Japanese Fairy Tales Yei Theodora Ozaki, 2024-11-24 This collection of Japanese fairy tales is the outcome of a suggestion made to me indirectly through a friend by Mr Andrew Lang They have been translated from the modern version written by Sadanami Sanjin These stories are not literal translations and though the Japanese story and all quaint Japanese expressions have been faithfully preserved they have been told more with the view to interest young readers of the West than the technical student of folk lore Grateful acknowledgment is due to Mr Y Yasuoka Miss Fusa Okamoto my brother Nobumori Ozaki Dr Yoshihiro Takaki and Miss Kameko Yamao who have helped me with translations The story which I have named The Story of the Man who did not Wish to Die is taken from a little book written a hundred years ago by one Shinsui Tamenaga It is named Chosei Furo or Longevity The Bamboo cutter and the Moon child is taken from the classic Taketari Monogatari and is NOT classed by the Japanese among their fairy tales though it really belongs to this class of literature In telling these stories in English I have followed my fancy in adding such touches of local color or description as they seemed to need or as pleased me and in one or two instances I have gathered in an incident from another version At all times among my friends both young and old English or American I have always found eager listeners to the beautiful legends and fairy tales of Japan and in telling them I have also found that they were still unknown to the vast majority and this has encouraged me to write them for the children of the West Y T O MY LORD BAG OF RICE Long long ago there lived in Japan a brave warrior known to all as Tawara Toda or My Lord Bag of Rice His true name was Fujiwara Hidesato and there is a very interesting story of how he came to change his name One day he sallied forth in search of adventures for he had the nature of a warrior and could not bear to be idle So he buckled on his two swords took his huge bow much taller than himself in his hand and slinging his quiver on his back started out He had not gone far when he came to the bridge of Seta no Karashi spanning one end of the beautiful Lake Biwa No sooner had he set foot on the bridge than he saw lying right across his path a huge serpent dragon Its body was so big that it looked like the trunk of a large pine tree and it took up the whole width of the bridge One of its huge claws rested on the parapet of one side of the bridge while its tail lay right against the other The monster seemed to be asleep and as it breathed fire and smoke came out of its nostrils At first Hidesato could not help feeling alarmed at the sight of this horrible reptile lying in his path for he must either turn back or walk right over its body He was a brave man however and putting aside all fear went forward dauntlessly Crunch crunch he stepped now on the dragon s body now between its coils and without even one glance backward he went on his way     The Children of the Castle Mary Louisa Molesworth, 2024-11-23 Hast thou seen that lordly castle That castle by the sea Golden and red above it The clouds float gorgeously Do you remember Gratian Gratian Conyfer the godson of the four winds the boy who lived at the old farmhouse up among the moors where these strange beautiful sisters used to meet Do you remember how full of fancies and stories Gratian s little head was and how sometimes he put them into words to please Fergus the lame child he loved so much The story I am now going to tell you is one of these I think it was their favourite one I can not say that it is in the very words in which Gratian used to tell it for it was not till long long after those boyish days that it came to be written down But all the same it is his story
