entrusted the cow to Allah SW I didn't find anyone more trustworthy than Him She asked So where is it now He replied I left it to roam free in the fields Shortly after he died When the son grew older his mother told him the story He asked Where can I find that cow after all these years His mother replied your father entrusted the cow to the Lord Rely on Him and search for it The young man supplicated Lord of Abraham return to me what my father had entrusted to you and then set out searching for it He found the cow exactly as his mother described it to him This cow was also the only one that perfectly fit Allah's description to the quarreling villagers Thus when they found they set out to purchase it at any price The young man agreed to sell it in exchange for its weight in gold When the villagers slaughtered this cow and struck the dead victim with it he was resurrected to declare the name of his killer Thus the name of this chapter The Cow affirms the central issue of resurrection in all faiths leading to the One Religion creed In addition the story also teaches us that parents' righteousness plays a great role in the protection of their children Through the good deeds of the parents Allah SW facilitates the affairs of the children and protects them from harm When the righteous man entrusted all he had to Allah SW Allah SW blessed, protected and nurtured it so that his son may find great treasure when he grew older Being upright and righteous is the best insurance one can give his or her children as it instills Allah's blessing and protection into every aspect of the child's life
