The Index of Middle English Prose when completed will be a monumental achievement

REVIEW OF ENGLISH STUDIES Two very different collections are surveyed in this volume The manuscripts of Pembroke College Cambridge are typical of a medieval foundation Its core of books is a working library of that period representing the interests and needs of its Fellows very often given or bequeathed by them to the College The collection was substantially enlarged in 1599 through the gift by William Smart of Ipswich of a large number of manuscripts which until the Reformation had belonged to the Abbey of Bury St Edmunds By contrast the emphasis of the Fitzwilliam Museum collection is to a great extent art historical At its heart are the manuscripts bequeathed by Lord Fitzwilliam in 1816 These were supplemented throughout the 19th century by a series of gifts and bequests culminating in 1904 in the largest bequest to date from Frank McClean of some 203 manuscripts In spite of the different character of the two collections both contain a range of Middle English prose items among them Chaucer's Boece a complete Wycliffite sermon cycle and several Paston letters all from Pembroke the Anlaby Cartulary the Canutus pestilence tract the Brut Lydgate's Serpent of Division and Nicholas Love's Mirror of the Blessed Life of Jesus Christ from the Fitzwilliam KARI ANNE RAND is Professor of Older English Literature at the University of Oslo The Digital Medieval Manuscript Suzette van Haaren, 2025-08-28

Morgan, Lotte Hellinga, Rodney M. Thomson, Joseph Burney Trapp, John Barnard, David McKitterick, Maureen Bell, Michael F. Suarez, Michael L. Turner, Ian R. Willison, 1999 The history of the book offers a distinctive form of access to the ways in which human beings have sought to give meaning to their own and others lives Our knowledge of the past derives mainly from texts Landscape architecture sculpture painting and the decorative arts have their stories to tell and may themselves be construed as texts but oral tradition manuscripts printed books and those other forms of inscription and incision such as maps music and graphic images have a power to report even more directly on human experience and the events and thoughts which shaped it The seven volumes of the History of the Book in Britain will help explain how these texts were created why they took the forms they did their relations with other media and what influence they had on the minds and actions of those who heard read or viewed them Its range too in time place and the great diversity of the conditions of text production including reception challenges any attempt to define its limits and give an account adequate to its complexity It addresses whether by period country genre or technology widely disparate fields of enquiry each of which demands and attracts its own forms of scholarship The Cambridge History of the Book in Britain seeks to represent much of that variety The volumes investigate the creation material production dissemination and reception of texts effectively plotting the intellectual history of Britain Publisher description Bury St Edmunds and the Norman Conquest Tom Licence, 2014 Responses to the impact of the Norman Conquest examined through the wealth of evidence provided by the important abbey of Bury St Edmunds Bury St Edmunds is noteworthy in so many ways in preserving the cult and memory of the last East Anglian king in the richness of its archives and not least in its role as a mediator of medical texts and studies All these aspects and more are amply illustrated in this collection by specialists in their fields The balance of the whole work and the care taken to place the individual topics in context has resulted in a satisfying whole which places Abbot Baldwin and his abbey squarely in the forefront of eleventh century politics and society Professor Ann Williams The abbey of Bury St Edmunds by 1100 was an international centre of learning outstanding for its culting of St Edmund England's patron saint who was known through France and Italy as a miracle worker principally but also as a survivor who had resisted the Vikings and the invading king Swein and gained strength after 1066 Here we journey into the concerns of his community as it negotiated survival in the Anglo Norman empire examining on the one hand the roles of leading monks such as the French physician abbot Baldwin and on the other the part played by ordinary women of the vill The abbey of Bury provides an exceptionally rich archive including annals historical texts wills charters and medical recipes The chapters in this volume written by leading experts present differing perspectives on Bury's responses to conquest reflecting the interests of the monks they cover literature music medicine palaeography and the history of the region in its European context Dr Tom Licence is Senior Lecturer in Medieval History and Director of the Centre of East Anglian Studies at the University of East Anglia Contributors Debbie Banham David Bates Eric Fernie Sarah Foot Michael Gullick Tom Licence Henry Parkes Veronique Thouroude Elizabeth van Houts Thomas Waldman Teresa Webber
