Private Solutions For Infrastructure Opportunities For Uganda:

Private Solutions for Infrastructure, 2001 Private Solutions for Infrastructure in Rwanda, 2005 This publication is one of a series of country reviews aimed at improving the environment for private investment in key infrastructure sectors. It gives an objective assessment of the condition of Rwanda's core economic infrastructure and associated institutional and policy frameworks as well as examining reform opportunities to encourage private sector involvement. Chapters review the following sectors: transport, energy, water and sanitation, electricity and telecommunications, as well as considering a number of cross-cutting issues including institutional capacity, regulation, the legal system, taxation and environmental issues.

Private Solutions for Infrastructure in Cambodia Public-Private Infrastructure Advisory Facility, 2002-01-01 This Country Framework Report for Cambodia is a country review looking at improving the environment for private sector involvement in infrastructure. Its three main objectives are to describe and assess the current status and performance of key infrastructure sectors; secondly, look at the policy, regulatory and institutional environment for involving the private sector in those sectors; and to help policymakers frame future reform and development strategies and help potential investors assess investment opportunities.

Infrastructure in India's Development S. P. Verma, 2004 Contributed articles Private Solutions for Infrastructure in Lesotho Public-Private Infrastructure Advisory Facility, World Bank, 2004 Like others in the series of reviews aimed at improving the environment for private sector involvement in infrastructure in various countries, the government requested the report. It describes and assesses the current status and performance of key infrastructure sectors and the policy, regulatory and institutional environment for involving the private sector and assists policymakers in framing future reform and development to assist potential investors. A Guide to the World Bank, 2003 The World Bank Group works in more than 100 developing economies and is one of the world's largest sources of development assistance. In 2002, the institution provided US$19.5 billion in loans to its client countries. This guide reviews the organisation's history, objectives and operations and looks at the five institutions that make up the World Bank Group: the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (IBRD), the International Development Association (IDA), the International Finance Corporation (IFC), the Multilateral Investment Guarantee Agency (MIGA) and the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID).

The World Bank Research Program 2001 World Bank, World Bank Staff, 2001-01-01 This publication is a compilation of reports on research projects initiated under way or completed in fiscal year 2001 (July 1 2000 through June 30 2001). The abstracts cover 150 research projects from the World Bank and grouped under 11 major headings including poverty and social development, health and population, education, labor and employment, environment, infrastructure and urban development, and agriculture and rural development. The abstracts detail the questions addressed, the analytical methods used, the findings to date and their policy implications. Each abstract identifies the expected completion date of each project, the research team and reports or publications produced.
