Framing the Victorians Jennifer Green-Lewis, 1996 A wide ranging exploration of the complex and often conflicting discourse on photography in the nineteenth century Framing the Victorians traces various descriptions of photography as art science magic testimony proof document record illusion and diagnosis Victorian photography argues Jennifer Green Lewis inspired such universal fascination that even two so self consciously opposed schools as positivist realism and metaphysical romance claimed it as their own Photography thus became at once the symbol of the inadequacy of nineteenth century empiricism and the proof of its totalizing vision Green Lewis juxtaposes textual descriptions with pictorial representations of a diverse array of cultural activities from war and law enforcement to novel writing and psychiatry She compares for example the exhibition of Roger Fenton s Crimean War photographs 1855 with W H Russell s written accounts of the war published in the Times of London 1884 and 1886 Nineteenth century photography she maintains must be reread in the context of Victorian written texts from and against which it developed Green Lewis also draws on works by Thomas Hardy Nathaniel Hawthorne and Henry James as well as published writing by Victorian photographers in support of her view that photography provides an invaluable model for understanding the act of writing itself We cannot talk about realism in the nineteenth century without talking about visuality claims Green Lewis and Framing the Victorians explores the connections Spoken

Image Clive Scott,1999-08-01 The Spoken Image considers the nature of photography examining the language used in titles captions and commentaries particularly as they relate to documentary photography photojournalism and fashion photography

James Agee in Context Michael A. Lofaro,2023-01-17 It s difficult to overestimate the impact of the many new works by James Agee uncovered and published in the last twenty years These previously unknown primary works have in turn encouraged a parallel explosion of critical evaluation and reevaluation by scholars to which James Agee in Context is the latest contribution This superb collection from well known James Agee scholars features myriad approaches and contexts for understanding the author s fiction poetry journalism and screenwriting The essays bring the reader from the streets of James Agee s New York to travel with the author from Alabama to Hollywood to Havana Contributors explore overlapping and sometimes unique subjects themes and accomplishments or lack thereof in Agee s uncovered works and highlight the diversity of interest that Agee s complete body of work inspires The insightful scholarship on influence examines connections between Agee and Wright Morris Helen Levitt John Dos Passos Ernest Hemingway and Stephen Crane Such juxtapositions serve to illustrate how Agee drew on literary influences as a young man how he used his work as a journalist to craft fiction as he was about to turn thirty and his influence upon others The volume concludes with three poems and a short story by Agee all previously unknown It seems astonishing that so much remains to be discovered about this protean author his materials and his circle Yet the recovery and analysis of neglected texts and information mined from newspapers and magazines proves the extent to which Agee kept his mind and his work as he himself put it patiently concentrated upon the essential quietudes of the human soul Photography: History and Theory Jae Emerling,2013-03-01

Photography: History and Theory Jae Emerling,2013-03-01 Photography History and Theory introduces students to both the history of photography and critical theory From its inception in the nineteenth century photography has instigated a series of theoretical debates In this new text Jae Emerling therefore argues that the most insightful way to approach the histories of photography is to address simultaneously the key events of photographic history alongside the theoretical discourse that accompanied them While the nineteenth century is discussed the central focus of the text is on modern and contemporary photographic theory Particular attention is paid to key thinkers such as Baudelaire Barthes and Sontag In addition the centrality of photography to contemporary art practice is addressed through the theoretical work of Allan Sekula John Tagg Rosalind Krauss and Vil m Flusser The text also includes readings of many canonical photographers and exhibitions including Atget Brassai August Sander Walker Evans The Family of Man Diane Arbus Lee Friedlander Cindy Sherman Bernd and Hilla Becher Sebastiao Salgado Jeff Wall and others In addition Emerling provides close readings of key passages from some major theoretical texts These glosses come between the chapters and serve as a conceptual line that connects them Glosses include Roland Barthes The Rhetoric of the Image 1964 Susan Sontag Regarding the Pain of Others 2002 Michel Foucault on the archive 1969 Walter Benjamin Little History of Photography 1931 Vil m Flusser Towards a Philosophy of Photography 1983 A substantial glossary of critical terms and names as well as an extensive bibliography make this the ideal book for courses on the history and theory of photography The Photographic, Two Points of View Eileen Cowin, 1989 Light Writing & Life Writing Timothy Dow Adams, 2000 On the surface the use of photography in autobiography appears to have a straightforward purpose to illustrate and corroborate the text But in the wake of poststructuralism the role of photography in autobiography is far from simple or one dimensional W. G. Sebald Scott Denham, Mark McCulloh, 2008-08-22 The novelist poet and essayist W G Sebald 1944 2001 was perhaps the most original German writer of the last decade of the 20th century Die Ausgewanderten Austerlitz Luftkrieg und Literatur His writing is marked by a unique hybridity that combines characteristics of travelogue cultural criticism crime story historical essay and dream diary among other genres He employs layers of literary and motion picture allusions that contribute to a sometimes enigmatic sometimes intimately familiar mood his dominant mode is melancholy The contributions of this anthology examine W G Sebald as narrator and pensive observer of history The book includes a previously unpublished interview with Sebald from 1998 Photography Liz Wells, 2000 Surveying the spectrum of photography from the mid nineteenth century to the present Photography A Critical Introduction is the first book to examine key debates in photographic theory and place them in their proper social and political contexts While most histories of photography invariably focus on the works of the great photographers this book is written especially to provide a coherent introduction to the nature of photographic seeing and its personal and cultural significance through history Contributors lucidly examine a range of major photographic theories histories genres and issues covering such topics as key debates in photographic theory and history documentary photography and photojournalism personal and popular photography photography and commodity culture photography and the human body photography as art and photography in the age of electronic imaging This completely revised and updated second edition includes detailed case studies key references biographies of key thinkers and margin notes a full glossary of terms comprehensive end of chapter bibliographies and resource information including guides to public archives and useful web sites The lavish illustrations include images by Bill Brandt Lee Friedlander Hannah Hoch Roshini Kempadoo Dorothea Lange Lee Miller Alexander Rodchenko Jacob Riis Sebastiao Salgado Andres Serrano and Jo Spence
