Racecourse For Andy:

I Own the Racecourse! Patricia Wrightson, 2013-05-22 Andy Hoddell was different from other boys. He never really understood the game they played in which they owned the factories, the library and the police station in their town, but he longed to tell them he owned something too. Then he met an old tramp and paid him three dollars for Beecham Park Racecourse. When Andy's friends find out, they are horrified. Andy would have to be told he'd been taken for a ride. But how could they tell him without breaking his heart, especially when all the staff at the racecourse were calling him the owner? How could anyone take away his racecourse? Kate Constable introduces this Text Classics edition of Patricia Wrightson's I Own the Racecourse. Patricia Wrightson was born in Lismore, NSW, in 1921. She was the author of twenty-seven children's novels, including Nargun and The Stars The Ice is Coming and The Crooked Snake. She has been awarded CBCA Book of the Year four times and was also awarded the Hans Christian Andersen Award, Dromkeen Medal and Order of the British Empire for her contribution to literature. textclassics.com.au

A Racecourse for Andy Patricia Wrightson, 1968 A mentally retarded boy thinks he has bought a race track for three dollars and until a solution to the problem can be found, only the patience and understanding of his friends keep him from being hurt by the realization of the truth. Written for Children John Rowe Townsend, 1996-05-01 This revised and updated edition provides children's and young adult librarians, teachers, literature classes and library school classes with an authoritative history and analysis of the best British and American children's literature through 1994, with a new 2003 postscript including such recent phenomena as J. K. Rowling and Philip Pullman. Written for Children traces the development of children's literature from its origins through the beginnings of the multimedia revolution. In effortless and entertaining style, Townsend, a world-renowned authority in the field, examines the changing attitudes toward children and their literature and analyzes the various strands that make up this important field. While examining many well-known American classics, Townsend also looks at British works that American audiences may have overlooked. With illustrations and bibliography. People, Just Like You United States. President's Committee on Employment of the Handicapped. Committee on Youth Development, 1977

Hollywood at the Races Alan Shuback, 2019-11-05 Horse racing was so popular and influential between 1930 and 1960 that nearly 150 racing-themed films were released, including A Day at the Races, Thoroughbreds Don't Cry and National Velvet. This fast-paced, gossipy history explores the relationship between the Hollywood film industry, the horse racing industry and the extraordinary participation of producers, directors and actors in the Sport of Kings. Alan Shuback details how all three of Southern California's major racetracks were founded by Hollywood luminaries: Hal Roach was co-founder of Santa Anita Park, Bing Crosby founded Del Mar with help from Pat O'Brien and Jack, and Harry Warner founded Hollywood Park with help from dozens of people in the film community. The races also provided a social and sporting outlet for the film community; studios encouraged film stars to spend a day at the races, especially when a new film was being released. The stars' presence at the track generated a bevy of attention from eager photographers and movie columnists as well as free publicity for their new films Moreover Louis B Mayer Bing Crosby Fred Astaire Betty Grable and Don Ameche were all major Thoroughbred owners while Mickey Rooney Chico Marx and John Huston were notorious for their unsuccessful forays to the betting windows
