Racing Stewart The Birth Of A Grand Prix:

Racing Stewart Maurice Hamilton, Jon Nicholson, 1998 The birth of a Grand Prix team does not occur every day or every season for that matter Formula 1 is an extremely difficult business to break into and very few new arrivals survive beyond their first year That's why the racing world took note in 1997 when a new team bearing the name of race legend Jackie Stewart gained a foothold in the sport The team has in fact been in the news since 1996 when Stewart and his son Paul first announced their intentions Racing Stewart tells the story of this remarkable adventure charting in full for the first time ever the birth of a Grand Prix challenger Hamilton and Nicholson were granted unparalleled access to the team from Stewart's initial decision giving them a behind the scenes look at the peaks and valleys that are an inevitable part of gaining acceptance in this ruthless sport Britain's Winning Formula M. Beck-Burridge, J. Walton, 1999-11-18 The international financial value of Grand Prix racing has grown substantially in recent years This book will focus upon the massive size value importance and impact of the industry It will also investigate the dominance of UK based Research and Development and design and the development of team strategy and tactics The authors have based their analysis upon very up to date research involving interviews with key individuals at the highest level and visibility within the industry and focus upon the key management themes of teamworking leadership strategy and innovation Who Works in Formula One 2006

Francoise-Michel Gregoire, 2006-04 This title lists everyone and everything in Formula One for the 2006 season It contains information on drivers team principals cars engines mechanics engineers key people sponsors suppliers photographers officials tracks and more The Curse of the Indy 500 Stan Sutton, 2021-12-22 A rich history built around the 1958 tragedy that claimed one of the Indy 500's most beloved drivers evokes a unique and unforgettable era Dan Carpenter freelance writer former Indianapolis Star columnist On May 30 1958 thousands of racing fans poured into the infield at dawn to claim the best seats of the Indianapolis 500 unaware that they were going to witness one of the most notorious wrecks in racing history Seconds after the green flag a game of chicken spiraled out of control into a fiery 16 car pile up that claimed the life of 29 year old Indiana native and rising star Pat O Connor The other drivers escaped death but the tragic 1958 Indy 500 seemed to leave its mark on them the surviving drivers were hounded by accidents and terrible crashes and most would die at tracks around the country But the tragedy also prompted new regulations and safety precautions like roll bars that would ultimately save hundreds of lives In The Curse of Indy 500 1958's Tragic Legacy veteran sportswriter Stan Sutton profiles the ill fated race and the careers of the drivers involved highlighting their lives in the dangerous world of auto racing In all the book offers an exciting story of the 1958 Indy 500 and a thought provoking discussion of its aftermath Daily Journal A meticulous contextual account of events leading into what possibly triggered the starting tension what follows in the wake of the fiery first lap death of Pat O Connor and what other Indy 500 tragedies have failed to get the notice generated on and following May 30 1958 NUVO Racing Green Kit Chapman, 2022-03-03 Racing Green is the story of how motorsport science has become smarter and more environmentally friendly and how these developments on the track are changing the world Motor racing is one of the world's most watched sports In the United States alone NASCAR has over 75 million fans and counting It's also the most scientifically demanding sport on Earth requiring a combination of peak physical and mental skill world class engineers and a constant drive for technological innovation Racing Green explores the science that has been translated from racing to the road from the early 19th century through to innovations such as electric cars and autonomous vehicles The history of motor racing both its glories and its tragedies led to some of the most important modern developments we see in car design today Just as the heartbreaking death of Dale Earnhardt at the Daytona 500 led NASCAR to introduce a new raceway barrier method ideas pioneered during races such as crush zones to crash helmets have been incorporated into race car and track designs around the world Cleaner technologies first trialed and improved in modern racing are also shaping our communities beyond the track from the hidden aerodynamics in everything from your grocery aisle to Apple's new 5 billion headquarters to a Porsche made from flax and tires made from dandelions Through exclusive interviews with NASCAR's Research and Development Center Formula 1 insiders engineers scientists and drivers lifelong motorsport fan Kit Chapman goes behind the scenes of the current breakthroughs to show where motorsport is likely to take us in the future picking up extraordinary tales along the way such as the Ohio State University's experimental electric car the Buckeye Bullet which broke the electric land speed record on the salt flats in Utah hitting an astounding 340 mph and the untold story of how motorsport used its unparalleled mechanical expertise to help during the COVID 19 pandemic Racing Green is a mix of travelogue and historical retrospective combining visits to the experts and discussing the science with retellings of real life incidents that represent milestones in shaping the modern world
