Rape Incest Battery Women Writing Out The Pain:

Rape, Incest, Battery Miriam Kalman Harris, 2000 According to Harris a woman discovers a new identity by becoming the subject who writes rather than the victim who waits in silence Knowing that the problem of violence against women is universal in our world Harris put out a call to professional writers women in shelters and scholars in academe She advertised in literary journals and newsletters asking for autobiographical writings by women who survived any kind of violence and abuse Rape Incest Battery resulted from her long process of collecting selecting and editing Rivers of Light Miriam Kalman Friedman, 2019-04-04 Growing up in a conservative middle class family in Texas Claire Myers Owens sought adventure and freedom at an early age At twenty years old she left home and quickly found a community of like minded free spirits and intellectuals in New York s Greenwich Village There Owens wrote novels and short stories including the controversial novel The Unpredictable Adventure A Comedy of Woman s Independence which was banned by the New York Public Library for its risqu content Drawn to ideals of selfactualization and creative freedom Owens became a key figure in the Human Potential Movement along with founder Abraham Maslow and Aldous Huxley and became an ardent follower of Carl Jung In her later years Owens devoted her life to the practice of Zen Buddhism moving to Rochester NY where she joined the Zen Center and studied under Roshi Philip Kapleau She published her final book Zen and the Lady at the age of eighty three Friedman s rediscovery of Owens brings well deserved attention to her little known yet extraordinary life and passionate spirit Drawing upon autobiographies letters journals and novels Friedman chronicles Owens s robust intellect and her tumultuous private life and along the way shows readers what makes her story significant With very few role models in the early twentieth century Owens blazed her own path of independence and enlightenment The Invisible Girl Sandy Dixon, 2008 Words without Walls Sheryl St. Germain, Sarah Shotland, 2015-03-10 Writing programs in prisons and rehabilitation centers have proven time and again to be transformative and empowering for people in need Halfway houses hospitals and shelters are all fertile ground for healing through the imagination and can often mean the difference for inmates and patients between just simply surviving and truly thriving It is in these settings that teachers and their students need reading that nourishes the soul and challenges the spirit Words without Walls is a collection of more than seventy five poems essays stories and scripts by contemporary writers that provide models for successful writing offering voices and styles that will inspire students in alternative spaces on their own creative exploration Created by the founders of the award winning program of the same name based at Chatham University the anthology strives to challenge readers to reach beyond their own circumstances and begin to write from the heart Each selection expresses immediacy writing that captures the imagination and conveys intimacy on the page revealing the power of words to cut to the quick and unfold the truth Many of the pieces are brief allowing for reading and discussion in the classroom and provide a wide range of content and genre touching on themes common to communities in need addiction and alcoholism family love and sex pain and hope prison recovery and violence Included is work by writers dealing with shared issues such as Dorothy Alison and Jesmyn Ward who write about families for whom struggle is a way of life or Natalie Kenvin and Toi Derricotte whose pieces reveal violence against women Also included are writings by those who have spent time in prison themselves such as Jimmy Santiago Baca Dwayne Betts Ken Lamberton and Etheridge Knight Eric Boyd ennobles the day he was released from jail Stephon Hayes reflects on what he sees from his prison window Terra Lynn evokes the experience of being put in solitary confinement Because in 2011 almost half of all prisoners in federal facilities were in for drug related offenses there are pieces by James Brown Nick Flynn and Ann Marlowe who explore their own addiction and alcoholism and by Natalie Diaz Scott Russell Sanders and Christine Stroud who write of crippling drug abuse by family and friends These powerful excerpts act as models for beginning writers and offer a vehicle to examine their own painful experiences Words without Walls demonstrates the power of language to connect people to reflect on the past and reimagine the future to confront complicated truths and to gain solace from pain and regret For students in alternative spaces these writings together with their own expressions reveal the same intense desire to write and share one's writing found in the Russian poet Irina Ratushinskaya who scratched her poems on bars of soap in a Gulag shower or the Turkish poet Nazim Hikmet who smuggled bits of poetry out of jail in the clothing of visiting friends Wole Soyinka in solitary confinement forty years ago wrote that creation is admission of great loneliness In these communal spaces our loneliness is lessened our vulnerability exposed and our honesty tested and through these revelatory writings students receive the necessary encouragement to share the whispering corners of their minds

Black Women's Yoga History Stephanie Y. Evans, 2021-03-01 How have Black women elders managed stress In Black Women's Yoga History Stephanie Y Evans uses primary sources to answer that question and to show how meditation and yoga from eras of enslavement segregation and migration to the Civil Rights Black Power and New Age movements have been in existence all along Life writings by Harriet Jacobs Sadie and Bessie Delany Eartha Kitt Rosa Parks Jan Willis and Tina Turner are only a few examples of personal case studies that are included here illustrating how these women managed traumatic stress anxiety and depression In more than fifty yoga memoirs Black women discuss practices of reflection exercise movement stretching visualization and chanting for self care By unveiling the depth of a struggle for wellness memoirs offer lessons for those who also struggle to heal from personal cultural and structural violence This intellectual history expands conceptions of yoga and defines inner peace as mental health healing and wellness that is both compassionate and political
