Religions and the Truth H. M. Vroom,1989 Religions and the Truth Hendrik M Vroom,1990 Religions and the Truth Hendrik Marinus Vroom,1990-01-01 The Metaphysics of Paradox Wm. Andrew Schwartz,2018-09-15 This book is an exploration into the paradoxical structure of pluralistic thinking as illuminated by both Western and Eastern insights especially Jainism By calling into question the most fundamental assumptions of religious pluralists the author hopes to contribute to a paradigm shift in discourse on religious pluralism and conflicting truth claims Religion and the Order of Nature Seyyed Hossein Nasr,1996-09-26 The current ecological crisis is a matter of urgent global concern with solutions being sought on many fronts In this book Seyyed Hossein Nasr argues that the devastation of our world has been exacerbated if not actually caused by the reductionist view of nature that has been advanced by modern secular science What is needed he believes is the recovery of the truth to which the great enduring religions all attest namely that nature is sacred Nasr traces the historical process through which Western civilization moved away from the idea of nature as sacred and embraced a world view which sees humans as alienated from nature and nature itself as a machine to be dominated and manipulated by humans His goal is to negate the totalitarian claims of modern science and to re open the way to the religious view of the order of nature developed over centuries in the cosmologies and sacred sciences of the great traditions Each tradition Nasr shows has a wealth of knowledge and experience concerning the order of nature The resuscitation of this knowledge he argues would allow religions all over the globe to enrich each other and cooperate to heal the wounds inflicted upon the Earth Is the Quest for Meaning the Quest for God? Wessel Stoker,1993 Reformed and Ecumenical,2021-11-15 Sharing Lights on the Way to God Pim Valkenberg,2006-01-01 This book seeks to give form to a theology that hyphenates two traditions that have not only been in constant conflict during most of their historical encounters but are also presented as opposite blocks in the threatening clash of civilizations at the beginning of the third millennium Islam and Christianity Based on experiences of dialogue between the three Abrahamic faiths this book analyzes historical and contemporary processes of interreligious dialogue between Christians and Muslims in order to arrive at a concept of dialogue as mutual emulation It shows how in their theologies of religious others Judaism Christianity and Islam have based their images of others on their self images This characteristic makes traditional theologies of religion quite unsuitable for interreligious dialogue Consequently the author of this book develops a model in which comparative theology and interreligious dialogue are connected by studying as a Christian theologian the theological and spiritual sources of his Muslim dialogue partners These exercises in comparative Muslim Christian theology comprise both the medieval Aquinas al Ghazali Rumi and the modern periods Said Nursi Fethullah G len Tariq Ramadan An interlude on Teresa of Avila s poem Nada te turbe shows how Christians may recover important insights from their own tradition by reading these Muslim theological and spiritual sources Malthus, Medicine & Morality Brian Dolan,2000 Thomas Robert Malthus s reputation has lately been rehabilitated in the fields of social biology demography environmentalism and economics In the midst of this current interest and with the chance to mark the occasion of the bicentenary of the first edition of the Essay on Population 1798 the contributors to this volume take this timely opportunity to examine the historical conditions in which Malthus constructed his theory and in which the concept of a Malthusian and Neo Malthusian philosophy first emerged The essays redress the balance between Malthus s original argument the immediate responses to Malthus by medics and theologians in Britain and on the Continent and some of the ways that his ideas were later attacked appropriated or misrepresented Included here are essays that not only re evaluate the development of Malthus s theory but also offer critical perspectives on the generation of the Malthusian league and debates about birth control in Britain and on the Continent and Malthus s influence on the emergence of social science and Darwinian evolutionary biology

The Non-Western Jesus M. E. Brinkman, Henry Jansen, Lucy Jansen, 2014-12-18 The centre of gravity of contemporary Christianity has shifted to the southern hemisphere where with the exception of Latin America almost all Christians are minorities in their home countries Christians in Asia live amongst Muslim Hindu Buddhist Shamanist or Taoist majorities and this context shapes the local Christian theology The same is true in Africa where traditional religions and beliefs influence African Christians Central to this change in both Africa and Asia is the creation of a new Jesus one who accretes local beliefs and concerns and who in that process is transformed The Non Western Jesus reveals how a new theology with its own images and concepts is coming into being A wide range of embodiments of Jesus is examined Jesus as Avatara and Guru in the Indian context as Bodhisattva in the Buddhist context and Jesus within Asian Chinese Japanese Korean African and Indonesian religious contexts

A Reformed Voice in the Ecumenical Discussion Martien Brinkman, 2016-04-26 In A Reformed Voice in the Ecumenical Discussion Martien E Brinkman offers a critical account of the main international ecumenical developments of the last three decades He delivers a sketch of the Reformed contribution to the ecumenical dialogues dealing with issues like contextuality state church relations the ethical implications of baptism the church as sacrament of the kingdom and apostolic tradition He pleads for a stronger non Western input in the ecumenical discussions and emphasizes that in many contexts Indonesia India China the interreligious dialogue has become part of the inner Christian dialogue This study can be considered as a constructive contribution to the development of a hermeneutics of tradition and puts itself the critical question what is lost and found in translation

The Participatory Turn Jorge N. Ferrer, Jacob H. Sherman, 2008-12-04 Cuts through traditional debates to argue that religious phenomena are cocreated by human cognition and a generative spiritual power

Theology between Church, University and Society N.F.M. Schreurs, Brinkman, Vroom, Wethmar, 2021-11-22 STAR Studies in Theology and Religion 6 Theology between Church University and Society includes contributions to the international NOSTER conference Theology between Church University and Society held in the Netherlands in June 2000 In the current academic world theologians are often suspected of confessionalism bias and narrow mindedness They in turn try to regain respect by producing specialist historical empirical and analytical studies that are in line with other academic research This retreat into neutrality renders them suspect in the eyes of their religious communities Some churches react by reformulating their appointment policies and become more strict in order to secure the full loyalty of the theological staff of their institutions Therefore many theologians feel a conflict between loyalty to their tradition and loyalty to the academic world Student populations have also changed considerably during the last few decades Quite a number of students have a lively interest in religion but no religious affiliation at all University teachers have to adapt to these new audiences and faculties need to reorient themselves to reestablish their goals This volume is concerned with these three challenges academic religious and societal In all of the contributions the tension between descriptive research and normative theses or the relation between theology and society at large is discussed Not only are there descriptions of the structures of theological institutions in the Netherlands the USA and South Africa but also of the relations between churches and theological institutions and Vatican policy regarding theological faculties

Critical Faith Ronald A. Kuipers, 2021-11-15 Can religious faith be critical and remain recognizable as faith Or is the idea of a critical faith a contradiction in terms In this book an emerging new voice in the philosophy of religion argues in favor of critical faith Playing on a double meaning of the word critical the title of the book suggests that faith is not only a critical crucial component of human life but also a component that can and should develop in a critical intellectually vigilant way Taking John Locke's reflections on the relationship between faith and reason as his point of departure the author weaves his discussion around a wide array of intellectual figures and conversations In addition to addressing important elements in the work of such historical figures as Aquinas and Locke Kuipers also incorporates themes from recent discussions in the philosophy of science feminist epistemology philosophy of language liberal theology and critical theory The book ends with a discussion of elements in Jurgen Habermas's theory of communicative action and offers a critical assessment of the merit of Habermas's notion of critical rationality as a normative yardstick for the achievement of a critical faith

Understanding Interreligious Relations David Cheetham, Douglas Pratt, David Richard Thomas, David Thomas, 2013-11 Understanding Interreligious Relations is a multi authored volume that explores the theme of the religious other from the perspective of five major religions Hinduism Judaism Buddhism Christianity and Islam and discusses a range of issues in which interreligious relations are central These include conversion the impact and nature of religious extremism the contemporary development of inter religious dialogue the dynamics operating between majority and minority religious groups belonging to more than one religion or faith tradition examples of cross religious co operation religion in the public domain and the task of peace building among others In a religiously plural world how different religious communities get along with one another is not just an academic question it is very much a focus of socio political and wider community attention The challenge to understand interreligious relations is of critical importance in today's world
