The Right to Food Katarina Tomaševski, 1987-08-04 5 Index The Right to Food Guidelines Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2006-01-01 This publication presents seven information papers and a case studies report that were prepared during the negotiation process preceding the adoption of the Voluntary Guidelines to support the progressive realization of the rights to adequate food in the context of national food security The information papers cover issues that were controversial during negotiations or complex legal questions for which clarification was requested The case studies report summarizes the outcome of studies commissioned in five countries to gather about practical in country experiences with different policies and programmes that are conducive to realizing the population's right to adequate food The full text of the Voluntary Guidelines is also included Development practitioners and governments development agencies civil society and academia concerned with realizing the right to food should find the publication a valuable aid to decision making Economic, Social & Cultural Rights in Practice Yash P. Ghai, Interights (Organization), 2004 South Africa is increasingly an attractive place for international investment Investing in South Africa provides readers with an overview of the investment environment in South Africa and information on investment opportunities developments and foreign direct investment incentives offered by the Department of Trade and Industry the DTI It also outlines the support that the DTI offers new investors in South Africa Through the New Partnership for Africa's Development NEPAD priority areas have been identified for Africa one of which is the development of the private sector as a means to stimulate growth An important element for investors in South Africa is that it is a gateway to the rest of Africa Already many South African companies have learned many lessons in tackling the challenges of these markets This provides a unique opportunity for international firms to draw on their lessons and experience Human Rights in the 21st Century Kathleen E. Mahoney, Paul Mahoney, 2003-07-24 This unique and challenging volume is the result of a major international rights conference entitled Human Rights in the Twenty First Century A Global Challenge convened in Banff Alberta Canada in November 1990 The conference was supported and organized under the auspices of the Secretary General of the Council of Europe The European Court of Human Rights the European Human Rights Commission the Strasbourg Institute of Comparative Human Rights Law the Alberta Law Foundation and the International Centre at the University of Calgary Its main objectives were legal education and legal research which were met by a total of 92 speakers representing 24 different nationalities presenting their views on 24 human rights topics Women and participants from developing countries in particular brought a new vision of human rights to topics as varied as reproductive technology state violence and biotechnology The theme of this book is thus the interdependence of legal social economic and environmental problems which transcend national and international boundaries and the spirit of solidarity which is required to resolve them Written by a team of international and renowned human experts it will provide a substantial contribution to the legal literature on international human rights Core

Obligations Audrey R. Chapman, Sage Russell, 2002 2 History and Norms

Economic, Social, and Cultural Rights in International Law Eibe Riedel, Gilles Giacca, Christophe Golay, 2014-03-13 Recent years have seen a remarkable expansion in the scale and importance of economic social and cultural rights ESC rights culminating in the adoption of the Optional Protocol to the International Covenant on Economic Social and Cultural Rights in December 2008 The Protocol gives individuals and groups the ability to bring complaints about rights violations before the UN Committee on Economic Social and Cultural Rights Against this background this book focuses on the question of how fundamental socio economic human rights enshrined in international law are defined interpreted understood and implemented It assesses how effective efforts to realize ESC rights have been and investigates the contemporary challenges obstructing their protection It sets out the impact of the global financial crisis and austerity measures the human rights responsibilities of corporations and trends in the justiciability of those rights at the national and international level The interrelationship between ESC rights and other legal regimes such as trade and investment law environmental law international criminal law and international humanitarian law is also thoroughly examined After an introduction by the editors the book contains seventeen chapters looking at the main questions which shape the progressive realization of ESC rights and their monitoring mechanisms The authors of the chapters both scholars and practitioners adopt interdisciplinary approaches that move beyond traditional analyses of ESC rights In doing so they clarify and illuminate multiple aspects of the law by bringing together the different aspects of ESC rights restating the challenges they face and assessing the progress that has been made in expanding their adoption

A Commentary on the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child Sharon Detrick, 2023-12-18 This book provides a commentary on the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child which was adopted by the General Assembly of the United Nations on 20 November 1989 Part One contains a general introduction to the Convention on the Rights of the Child and deals with matters such as the drafting history the contents direct application horizontal effects limitations the Committee on the Rights of the Child and the Convention s final provisions Part Two contains an article by article commentary the aim of which is not to give an interpretation of the precise nature and scope of States parties obligations but rather to identify the materials or sources which provide guidance in that regard In the identification of such materials attention has been paid to the general rules of treaty interpretation as set forth in the Vienna Convention on the Law of Treaties

International Development Law Petra Minnerop, Rüdiger Wolfrum, Frauke Lachenmann, 2019-04-18 This volume brings together articles on international development law from the Max Planck Encyclopedia of Public International Law the definitive reference work on international law It provides an invaluable resource for scholars students and practitioners of international development law giving an accessible thorough overview of all aspects of the field Each article contains cross references to related articles and includes a carefully selected bibliography of the most important writings and primary materials as a guide to further reading The Encyclopedia can be used by a wide range of readers

Experienced scholars and practitioners will find a wealth of information on areas that they do not already know well as well as in depth treatments on every aspect of their specialist topics Articles can also be set as readings for students on taught courses

Children in the International Political Economy G. Kent, 1995-09-13 The first line of responsibility for children lies with their parents but what if the parents fail to look after their children Who else is involved and what should they do Children in the International Political Economy examines the moral responsibilities of different individuals and agencies towards children and argues that some responsibilities should be codified as concrete legal duties If all else fails children must look to the international community for help Thus international agencies should recognize specific obligations to look after the well being of children around the world

Collected Courses of the Academy of European Law / Recueil des cours de l'Académie de droit européen Academy of European Law Staff, 2013-06-29 Your invitation to me as the President of the European Court of Human Rights to conclude this year's study programme on the protection of human rights in Europe by delivering the prestigious Winston Churchill lecture is a great honour not only for me personally but for the European Court of Human Rights as a whole and I should like to thank the European University Institute and its Academy of European Law most warmly for giving me this opportunity You are fortunate to have had the opportunity of following a week long general course on the protection of human rights in Europe given by my colleague and friend Carl Aage Nørgaard the President of the European Commission of Human Rights To speak after him in order to bring to a close your study programme makes my task in some respects easier because I can take it for granted that you now have a clear and comprehensive understanding of the guarantees and the functioning of the European Convention on Human Rights On the other hand it is I must confess not without a certain apprehension that I take the floor at this juncture because I am very well aware of how difficult it is to keep the attention of an audience which has had the privilege of hearing Carl Aage Nørgaard on more or less the same subject

Transnational Legal Processes Michael Likosky, 2002-04 This work comprises 24 linked essays by leading transatlantic scholars in international law and the social sciences examining the sociolegal aspects of multi jurisdictional legal techniques and trans jurisdictional social phenomena The contributors bring a range of disciplinary expertises including anthropology economics law and sociology to bear on key questions raised by transnational legal processes The pieces explore legal developments in multiple territories including Africa Asia Latin America and the United States The volume is designed as a general reader for courses on law and globalisation and related studies The collection is made up of four parts each addressing a central theme in transnational law and legal action law making and compliance human rights commerce and governance The essays discuss such diverse problems as the role of foreign actors in the ethnic conflicts of Kosovo and Rwanda the power the United States and the UK wield over international capital markets and the adaptability of existing public international law to deal with the challenges wrought by globalisation documents of human rights Ioanna Kuçuradi,2020-01-01 The most significant achievement of 20th century is probably the importance ascribed to the idea of human rights And perhaps the most significant endeavour of the world community in the second half of this century is its attempt to codify these ethical demands in declarations covenants and similar instruments expected to have universal validity Yet besides the unscrupulous violence torture and social injustice which continue to prevail in our world we also see gaining more and more ground tendencies to promote demands and practices which constitute unnoticed obstacles to the protection of human rights Is it not the so called herd immunity as a way to fight against a pandemic a violation of the right to life What are our shortcomings The present volume is an attempt to bring into focus one of these shortcomings the lack of clear knowledge of what human rights are The Hunger Report 1995 E.

Messer,P. Uvin,2005-11-04 The Hunger Report 1995 highlights progress during the past five years on the problems of food shortage poverty related hunger maternal child nutrition and health and micronutrient malnutrition It is constructed from papers and discussions presented at the five year follow up to the Bellagio Declaration Overcoming Hunger in the 1990s 1989 Individual essays by hunger researchers monitors and policy makers assess advances in achieving the Bellagio goals which are 1 to end famine deaths especially by moving food into zones of armed conflict 2 to end hunger in half the world s poorest households 3 to eliminate at least half the hunger of women and children by expanding maternal child health coverage and 4 to eliminate vitamin A and iodine deficiencies as public health problems Socio-economic Rights in the
