Seventeenth Century Verse Prose Volume 1:

Seventeenth-century Verse End Prose, Vol. 1: 1600-1660 Helen C. White, Ruth C. Wallerstein, Ricardo Quintana, 1951

Seventeenth Century Verse and Prose Helen C. White, 1970 Anthology of selected 17th century English Writers The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature George Watson, Ian Roy Willison, 1974 Fault Lines and

Controversies in the Study of Seventeenth-century English Literature Claude J. Summers, Ted-Larry Pebworth, 2002

Written by various experts in the field this volume of thirteen original essays explores some of the most significant theoretical and practical fault lines and controversies in seventeenth century English literature The turn into the twenty first century is an appropriate time to take stock of the state of the field and as part of that stocktaking the need arises to assess both where literary study of the early modern period has been and where it might desirably go Hence many of the essays in this collection look both backward and forward They chart the changes in the field over the past half century while also looking forward to more change in the future The Broadview Anthology of Seventeenth-Century Verse and Prose Alan

Rudrum, Joseph Black, Holly Faith Nelson, 2000-08-11 The publication of The Broadview Anthology of Seventeenth Century Verse and Prose is a literary event this comprehensive volume is the first anthology of the period to reflect the breadth of seventeenth century studies in recent decades Over one hundred writers are included from John Chamberlain at the beginning of the century to Elisabeth Singer Rowe at its end There are generous selections from the work of all major writers and a representation of the work of virtually every writer of significance The work of women writers figures prominently with extensive selections not only from canonical writers such as Behn and Bradstreet but also from other writers such as Katherine Philips and Margaret Cavendish who have been receiving considerable scholarly attention in recent years The anthology is broadly inclusive with writing from America as well as from the British Isles Memoirs letters political texts travel writing prophetic literature street ballads and pamphlet literature are all here as is a full representation of the literary poetry and prose of the period including the poetry of Jonson the prose of Bacon the metaphysical poetry of Donne Herbert Marvell and others the lyric verse of Herrick and substantial selections from the poetry and prose of Milton and Dryden While Samson Agonistes is included in its entirety Milton's epic poems have been excluded in order to allow space for other works not so readily accessible elsewhere The editors have included complete works wherever possible A headnote by the editors introduces each author and each selection has been newly annotated The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature

Frederick Wilse Bateson, 1940 The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 2, 1660-1800

George Watson, Ian R. Willison, 1971-07-02 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 2 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries The Variorum Edition of the Poetry of John Donne, Volume 4.2 John Donne, 2021-11-02 This volume the ninth in the series of The Variorum Edition of the Poetry of John Donne presents newly edited critical texts of 25 love lyrics Based on an exhaustive study of the manuscripts and printed editions in which these poems have appeared Volume 4 2 details the genealogical history of each poem accompanied by a thorough prose discussion as well as a General Textual Introduction of the Songs and Sonets collectively The volume also presents a comprehensive digest of the commentary on these Songs and Sonets from Donne s time through 1999 Arranged chronologically within sections the material for each poem is organized under various headings that complement the volume s companions Volume 4 1 and Volume 4 3 The Western Literary Tradition: Volume 1 Margaret L. King, 2020-09-16 This compact anthology provides a thorough introduction to the major works of the Western literary tradition from Antiquity to 1700 It includes excerpts from seventy texts composed in eight ancient and modern languages and in genres as diverse as epic lyric and dramatic verse prose narrative including story romance and novel and non fiction prose including autobiography biography letter speech dialogue and essay Contents include selections from the Hebrew Bible New Testament and works by Homer Euripides Virgil Ovid Saint Augustine Dante Chaucer Machiavelli Montaigne Shakespeare Milton and many more Further distinguishing this collection is the inclusion of works by women writers often overlooked in other literary anthologies including works by Sappho Margery Kempe Marie de France Christine de Pizan and others Margaret L King s clear engaging introductions and notes support an informed reading of the texts while extending reader s knowledge of particular authors and problems of interest See available book previews to view the entire Table of Contents or visit www.hackettpublishing.com for more information The Western Literary Tradition s modest length and cost allow for the use of full length works many of which are available in Hackett Publishing s own well regarded and inexpensive translations and editions alongside the anthology without adding undue cost to a reader s total textbook fees Milton, Authorship, and the Book Trade Stephen B. Dobranski, 1999-08-28 An original study of Milton s authorship and the material production of his texts in relation to the booktrade
