Malaysian Foreign Policy in the Mahathir Era, 1981-2003 Karminder Singh Dhillon, 2009 Summary Malaysia's former Prime Minister Mahathir Mohamad is often seen as the sole author of the country's foreign policy. Malaysian Foreign Policy in the Mahathir Era shows that while Mahathir's personality leadership style, political ideology, and brand of nationalism unquestionably had a deep impact, so too did domestic issues and external forces associated with globalization. The book examines seven major foreign policy initiatives of the Mahathir period: Buy British, Last Anti-Commonwealth Look East, Third World Spokesmanship, Regional Engagement, Islamic Posturing, and Commercial and Developmental Diplomacy. In discussing these topics, the author explains the significance for foreign policy of communal concerns, the regime's need to maintain its own authority in the face of political and social initiatives some rooted in Islam, and its desire to achieve national development. He also discusses external pressures including Japan's regional designs, Singapore's defense posture, and the growing importance of China for the region. The approach breaks away from the elitist decision-making styles and single-factor models usually employed to explain the foreign policy of developing nations and establishes a direct link between domestic politics and foreign policy during the period studied, suggesting that the latter was truly an extension of the former. Publisher description

Middle Power Statecraft Jonathan H. Ping, 2017-11-30 Jonathan Ping's volume establishes a unifying theory for the concept of middle power. MP MPs are states which have an innate form of statecraft and perceived power as a result of their size. The book presents hybridization theory as a basis for analysis, policy development, and prediction of MP statecraft and perceived power. A prerequisite to the founding of hybridization theory is the new statistical method of definition which identifies sixteen MPs of Asia and the Pacific. The volume takes a comparative focus on Indonesia and Malaysia to inform and test hybridization theory as well as to provide a historical analysis of Southeast Asia from a statecraft and perceived power perspective. It offers researchers and scholars of international relations and international political economy a theory that can be applied to the practical study of all middle-sized states while middle-sized states can apply the same theory to enhance their own ability to re-create their state.

Cultural Politics and Asian Values Michael D. Barr, 2012-11-12 Cultural Politics and Asian Values looks at the political, cultural, and religious background of East and Southeast Asian societies and those of the West with a view to seeing how they are affecting contemporary national and international politics, democratization, the international human rights discourse, NGOs, and globalization. The book surveys the political history and pre-history of the Asian values debate, taking it up to the era of Megawati Sukarnoputri, Chen Shui-bian, and Kim Dae-jung. In chapters on Confucianism, Buddhism, Islam, Christianity, and liberalism, Barr explores the histories and conceptual essences of the world religions involved in or affected by the debate.

Governance and Public Sector Reform in Asia Anthony Cheung, Ian Scott, 2003-08-29 Based on new field research, this book assesses the current state of governance and public sector reforms in eleven Asian countries and jurisdictions especially in the wake of the recent regional financial crisis that seriously affected some of them It analyses reform efforts comparatively against a backdrop of governance problems and seeks to establish whether these efforts represent a substantive shift in attitudes towards reform or whether they serve simply to reinforce existing practices The authors explore a number of important themes that are central to governance and public sector reform issues These include the role of the state the success or failure of organizational reforms corruption the applicability of the new public management model in the Asian context and the governance values and reform models promoted by regional and international agencies The Malay Dilemma Revisited M. Bakri

Musa,1999-08-24 The Malay Dilemma Revisited is a critical and balanced analysis of Malaysia's preferential race policy and its impact on the nation's delicate race dynamics and economy Unlike America's affirmative action Malaysia's version is far more aggressive and pervasive and has been remarkably successful in creating a sizable and stable Bumiputra indigenous group middle class The price tag is significant distortion of freemarket dynamics and consequent inefficiency Perversely the policy impairs rather than strengthens Bumiputras ability to compete In contrast to quotas and other set aside programs that are the hallmark of the current policy the writer presents an alternative strategy aimed primarily at enhancing Bumiputra competitiveness The proposed approach would not negatively impact the economy nor interfere with the freemarket Equally important it would not arouse resentment from other Malaysians The first objective would be to modernize the nation's archaic educational system to emphasize English mathematics the sciences and technical training Secondly the influences of religious and royal institutions must be curtailed and the rates of urbanization and population growth reduced The primary objective is in enhancing competitiveness not on meeting arbitrarily picked numerical goals and targets The Political Economy of the Asian Financial Crisis Stephan Haggard,2010-10-01 The Asian crisis has sparked a thoroughgoing reappraisal of current international financial norms the policy prescriptions of the International Monetary Fund and the adequacy of the existing financial architecture To draw proper policy conclusions from the crisis it is necessary to understand exactly what happened and why from both a political and an economic perspective In this study renowned political scientist Stephan Haggard examines the political aspects of the crisis in the countries most affected Korea Thailand Malaysia and Indonesia Haggard focuses on the political economy of the crisis emphasizing the longer run problems of moral hazard and corruption as well as the politics of crisis management and the political fallout that ensued He looks at the degree to which each government has rewoven the social safety net and discusses corporate and financial restructuring and greater transparency in business government relations Professor Haggard provides a counterpoint to the analysis by examining why Singapore Taiwan and the Philippines escaped financial calamity Malaysia Cheah Boon Kheng ,2002 Focuses on Malaysia's four Prime Ministers as nation builders observing that each one of them when he became Prime Minister was transformed from being the head of the Malay party UMNO to that of the leader of a multi ethnic nation Each began his political career as an exclusivist Malay nationalist but became an inclusivist Development Models in Muslim Contexts Robert Springborg, 2009-09-30 Recent discussions of the Chinese economic development model the emergence of an alternative Muslim model over the past quarter century and the faltering globalisation of the Washington Consensus all point to the need to investigate more systematically the nature of these models and their competitive attractions This is especially the case in the Muslim world which both spans different economic and geographic categories and is itself the progenitor of a development model The Chinese model has attracted the greatest attention in step with that country's phenomenal growth and therefore provides the primary focus for this book This volume examines the characteristics of this model and its reception in two major regions of the world Africa and Latin America It also investigates the current competition over development models across Muslim contexts The question of which model or models if any will guide development in Muslim majority countries is vital not only for them but for the world as a whole This is the first political economy study to address this vital question as well as the closely related issue of the centrality of governance to development
