Marie Dagoult 1805-1876:

The New Biography Jo Burr Margadant, 2000-09-04 This collection offers new perspectives on the lives of eight famous women in nineteenth century France. Their stories are used as a starting point through which the contributing authors experiment with what is called the new biography.

The Older Liszt Peter G. Coleman, 2023-01-01 Franz Liszt is well known for his early years as super star pianist who excited audiences throughout Europe but his later life is also of great interest. In his final 25 years he sought to achieve his life's aims of promoting new forms of music and giving stronger witness to his Christian faith while continuing to support his stalwart life partner Princess Carolyne. However he was to face unexpected problems in the continued negative reception of his music and recrimination in his closest relationship. Drawing on detailed analysis of Liszt's correspondence from his fiftieth year onwards Peter G. Coleman approaches his later life as a case study of an older person grappling with a succession of often disturbing life experiences. These included the deaths of two of his children, political upheaval and war within Europe and a growing realisation of his own past failings. Liszt suffered frequent bouts of depression but never ceased composing music nor steadfastly heeding Christ's command to bear one's cross. This sensitive treatment of an extraordinary individual will appeal to the scholar and general reader alike.

The Feminist Encyclopedia of French Literature Eva M. Sartori, 1999-07-30 The earliest known literary productions by women living in Europe were probably written by French writers. As early as the 12th century women troubadours in the south of France were writing poems. French women continued writing through the ages, their number increasing as education became more available to women of all classes. And yet of the great number of works by women writers who preceded the current feminist movement very few have survived. A few writers such as Marie de France, George Sand and Simone de Beauvoir became part of the canon. But critics, mostly male, had judged the works of only a few women writers worthy of recognition. As part of the feminist move to reclaim women writers and to rethink literary history, scholars in French literature began to take a new look at women writers who had been popular during their lifetimes but who had not been admitted into the canon. This reference book provides extensive information about French women writers and the world in which they lived. Included are several hundred alphabetically arranged entries for authors, literary genres such as the novel, poetry and the short story, literary movements such as classicism, realism and surrealism, life cycle events particular to women such as menstruation and menopause, events and institutions which affected women differently than men such as revolutions, wars and laws on marriage, divorce and education. The volume spans French literature from the Middle Ages to the present and covers those writers who lived and worked mainly in France. The entries are written by expert contributors and each includes bibliographical information. The entries focus on each writer's awareness of how her gender shaped her outlook and opportunities, on how categorizations, structures and terms used to describe literary works have been defined for women and the ways in which women writers have responded to these definitions. The volume begins with a feminist history of French literature and concludes with a selected general bibliography and a chronology of women writers Existentialism and Contemporary Cinema Jean-Pierre Boulé, Ursula Tidd, 2012-09-01 Simone de Beauvoir's work has not often been associated with film studies which appears paradoxical when it is recognized that she was the first feminist thinker to inaugurate the concept of the gendered othering gaze This book is an attempt to redress this balance and reopen the dialogue between Beauvoir's writings and film studies The authors analyse a range of films from directors including Claire Denis Michael Haneke Lucille Hadzihalilovic Sam Mendes and Sally Potter by drawing from Beauvoir's key works such as The Second Sex 1949 The Ethics of Ambiguity 1947 and Old Age 1970 The Age of Chopin Halina Goldberg, 2004-05-07 This multidisciplinary collection addresses Chopin's life and oeuvre in various cultural contexts of his era Fourteen original essays by internationally known scholars suggest new connections between his compositions and the intellectual literary artistic and musical environs of Warsaw and Paris Individual essays consider representations of Chopin in the visual arts reception in the United States and in Poland analytical aspects of the mazurkas and waltzes and political literary and gender aspects of Chopin's music and legacy Several senior scholars represent the fields of American Western European and Polish history Slavic literature musicology music theory and art history Dictionary of Pseudonyms Adrian Room, 2014-01-10 Substantially revised and enlarged this new edition of the Dictionary of Pseudonyms includes more than 2 000 new entries bringing the volume's total to approximately 13 000 assumed names nicknames stage names and aliases The introduction has been entirely rewritten and many previous entries feature new accompanying details or quoted material This volume also features a significantly greater number of cross references than was included in previous editions Arranged by pseudonym the entries give the true name vital dates country of origin or settlement and profession Many entries also include the story behind the person's name change Uncanonical Women Wendy Greenberg, 2023-12-14 In English here is presented for the first time an examination of the text and context of five nineteenth century French women poets Elisa Mercoeur 1808 1835 Marceline Desbordes Valmore 1786 1859 Louisa Siefert 1845 1877 Louise Ackermann 1813 1890 and Louise Michel 1830 1905 will demonstrate that in spite of mentoring by various literary historic or even family figures these writers found their own voices A striking example is Louisa Siefert who in spite of bold intertextuality displays an unmistakably feminine persona whose originality poignantly draws the reader's attention These poets had many obstacles of overcome as woman identified poets For example Louise Ackermann's own husband did not want her to write and for this reason she remained silent during her who years of marriage Louise Michel is a different case as an analysis of the short poem Bouche close Le Livre du Baigne 1873 1880 will demonstrate In short Uncanonical Women explores a crescendo of poetic voice from the initial timid solicitations of Elisa Mercoeur to the bold self sufficient defiance of Louise Michel The implication of my original findings that uncanonical poets can surpass cultural marginalization is that the book will target both a traditional and modern readership Major these and clear language and tools that delineate identifiably personal style of true writers and the poetic persona of each is unique Mercoeur in ambition Desbordes Valmore in domesticity Siefert in anguish Ackermann in pessimism and Michel in leadership

What Killed the Great and Not So Great Composers? Joseph W. Lewis, Jr., M.D., 2010-04-23 From a personally assembled database of 13 859 classical musicians What Killed the Great and not so Great Composers delves into the medical histories of a wide variety of composers from both a musical and medical standpoint Biographies of musicians from Johann Sebastian Bach of the Baroque period to Benjamin Britten of the Modern era explore in depth their illnesses and the impact their diseases had on musical productivity Other chapters referenced to specific composers are devoted to such diverse ailments as deafness mental disorders sexually transmitted diseases surgery and war injuries to name a few A unique section of statistics and demographics analyzes various aspects of composers lives such as their longevity related to contemporaneous nonmusical populations the incidence of various illnesses they experienced over the centuries and the type of medical problems suffered by the so called top 100 classical musicians Although a precise and complete accounting of the great composers ailments may never be possible a general understanding of the medical problems experienced by these unique individuals nevertheless can heighten one s appreciation of their creative processes despite the hardships imposed by their physical and mental illnesses Although some individuals surrendered to their disabilities for a variety of reasons others were able to rise above their infirmities and produce the wonderful music mankind has enjoyed through the centuries

A World to Win Sven-Eric Liedman, 2018-05-01 This essential Karl Marx biography expertly weaves the complex personality of the legendary thinker through the turbulent passage of global history The first biography to give equal weight to both the work and life of Karl Marx A World to Win follows Marx through childhood and student days a difficult and sometimes tragic family life his far sighted journalism and his enduring friendship and intellectual partnership with Friedrich Engels Building on the work of previous biographers Liedman employs a commanding knowledge of the 19th century to create a definitive portrait of Marx and his vast contribution to the way the world understands itself He shines a light on Marx s influences explains his political and intellectual interventions and builds on the legacy of his thought Liedman shows how Marx s masterpiece Capital illuminates the essential logic of a system that drives dizzying wealth grinding poverty and awesome technological innovation to this day Compulsively readable and meticulously researched A World to Win demonstrates that Marx s work remains the bedrock for any true understanding of our political and economic condition even two centuries after his death

The Second French Republic 1848-1852 Christopher Guyver, 2016-06-09 This book follows the story of the Second French Republic from its idealistic beginnings in February 1848 to its formal replacement in December 1852 by the Second Empire Based on original archival research The Second French Republic gives a detailed account of the internal tensions that irrevocably weakened France s shortest republic During this short period French political life was buffeted by strong and often contrary forces universal manhood suffrage fear of socialism the President Louis Napoleon Bonaparte and the political ambitions of the military high command for the restoration of the monarchy

Franz Liszt, His Circle, and His Elusive Oratorio Xavier Jon Puslowski, 2014-09-09 Many scholars concert pianists and classical music fans deem Franz Liszt the preeminent pianist of the nineteenth century In Franz Liszt His Circle and His Elusive Oratorio Xavier Puslowski engages in a detailed study of the links between Liszt his contemporaries and his milieu Drawing on Liszt's famous Saint Stanislas Oratorio as a focal point Puslowski brings together the history of the Romantic period in classical music and the intersection of key figures and historical events in his story of Liszt's achievements told from a distinctly historicist perspective Readers get a new view of Liszt as Puslowski brings together a remarkable cast of characters Friend and rival Frederic Chopin stands tall as a symbol of Poland's fight for independence the remarkable French people's poet Pierre Beranger makes his entrance virtuoso violinist Niccolò Paganini takes center stage later in Liszt's life the indefatigable French composer Hector Berlioz and the domineering Richard Wagner assume their roles in this musical drama and finally two of Poland's premier violinists Karol Lipinski and Henryk Wieniawski stand side by side with Russian pianist Anton Rubinstein as the story of Liszt's influence reaches across national boundaries and time itself to make its presence felt

Ingres and His Critics Andrew Carrington Shelton, 2005-10-03 This book examines the critical writing and journalistic reportage on Jean Auguste Dominique Ingres from the time of his renunciation of the Salon in 1834 until his large retrospective at the 1855 Universal Exposition the crucial middle decades of his career This massive body of writing demonstrates how Ingres shaped his career in the rapidly evolving art world of mid nineteenth century Paris Enjoying the benefits of his affiliation with the Academy the artist also employed certain modes of presentation most notably the single artist exhibition and illustrated monograph through which he distanced himself and his work from the embattled world of artistic officialdom

French Women Writers Eva Martin Sartori, Dorothy Wynne Zimmerman, 1994-01-01 Marie de France Mme De S vignon and Mme De Lafayette achieved international reputations during periods when women in other European countries were able to write only letters translations religious tracts and miscellaneous fragments There were obstacles but French women writers were more or less sustained and empowered by the French culture Often unconventional in their personal lives and occupied with careers besides writing as educators painters actresses preachers salon hostesses labor organizers these women did not wait for Simone de Beauvoir to tell them to make existential choices and have projects in the world French Women Writers describes the lives and careers of fifty two literary figures from the twelfth century to the late twentieth All the contributors are recognized authorities Some of their subjects like Colette and George Sand are celebrated and others are just now gaining critical notice From Christine de Pizan and Marguerite de Navarre to Rachilde and H l _ne Cixous from Louise Labé to Marguerite Duras these women speak through the centuries to issues of gender sexuality and language French Women Writers now becomes widely available in this Bison Book edition
