Hays,2013-11-07 A master of short story novel and nonfiction prose Ernest Hemingway has been the subject of countless books articles and biographies The Nobel prize winning author and his work continue to interest academics whose studies of his personal life are frequently intertwined with examinations of his writing In Fifty Years of Hemingway Criticism noted scholar Peter L Hays has assembled a career spanning collection of essays that explore the many facets of Hemingway his life his contemporaries and his creative output Although Hays has published on other writers Hemingway has been his main research interest and this selection constitutes five decades of criticism Arranged by subject matter these essays focus on the novels The Sun Also Rises A Farewell to Arms For Whom the Bell Tolls and The Old Man and the Sea as well as the short stories The Undefeated The Killers Soldier s Home and A Clean Well Lighted Place Other chapters explore Hemingway s relationship with F Scott Fitzgerald teaching Hemingway in the classroom and comparing Hemingway s work to writers such as Eugene O Neill Ford Madox Ford and William Faulkner When first published some of these essays offered original views and insights that have since become standard interpretations making them invaluable to readers Easily accessible by both general readers and academic scholars Fifty Years of Hemingway Criticism is an essential collection on one of America s greatest writers Never Sniff a Gift Fish Patrick F. McManus,2024-08-06 This collection of humorous essays from an outdoor life columnist are amusing even for those who d never dream of lifting rod or rifle Kirkus Reviews From the author of They Shoot Canoes Don t They and other celebrations of life in the wild a collection of wry tongue in cheek tales of life in the great outdoors captures the whimsical trials and tribulations of hunting fishing and camping Everybody should read Patrick McManus The New York Times Book Review Patrick McManus is a treasure The Atlantic A style that brings to mind Mark Twain Art Buchwald and Garrison Keillor People The funniest writer around today Atlanta Journal Constitution McManus captures the innocence most of us lose when we become grown up and reading him you can t help recalling similar times and events in your own life Booklist Best Books for Children, Preschool Through the Middle Grades Christine Bell Gilbert,1981 Disagreement Bryan Frances,2014-08-25 Regardless of who you are or how you live your life you disagree with millions of people on an enormous number of topics from politics religion and morality to sport culture and art Unless you are delusional you are aware that a great many of the people who disagree with you are just as smart and thoughtful as you are in fact you know that often they are smarter and more informed But believing someone to be cleverer or more knowledgeable about a particular topic usually won t change your mind Should it This book is devoted to exploring this quandary what should we do when we encounter disagreement particularly when we believe someone is more of an authority on a subject than we are The question is of enormous importance both in the public arena and in our personal lives Disagreement over marriages beliefs friendships and more causes immense personal strife People with political power disagree about how to spend enormous amounts of money about what laws to pass or about wars to fight If only we were better able to resolve our disagreements we would probably save millions of lives and prevent millions of others from living in poverty The first full length text book on this philosophical topic Disagreement provides students with the tools they need to understand the burgeoning academic literature and its often conflicting perspectives Including case studies sample questions and chapter summaries this engaging and accessible book is the perfect starting point for students and anyone interested in thinking about the possibilities and problems of this fundamental philosophical debate

The Goat Fish and the Lover's Knot Jack Driscoll, 2017-04-03 Beautifully crafted prose from one of Michigan's most original voices Elmore Leonard said about Jack Driscoll's stories The guy can really write And in The Goat Fish and the Lover's Knot he once again demonstrates in every sentence the grace and grit of a true storyteller The ten stories are mostly set in Michigan's northern lower peninsula a landscape as gorgeous as it is severe If at times the situations in these stories appear hopeless the characters nonetheless and even against seemingly impossible odds dare to hope These fictional individuals are so compassionately rendered that they can hardly help but be in the hands of this writer not only redeemed but made universal The stories are written from multiple points of view and testify to Driscoll's range and understanding of human nature and to how the heart in conflict with itself always defines the larger more meaningful story A high school pitching sensation loses his arm in a public school classroom during show and tell A woman lives all of her ages in one day A fourteen year old boy finds himself alone after midnight in a rowboat in the middle of the lake with his best friend's mother Driscoll is a prose stylist of the highest order a voice as original as the stories he tells Lovers of contemporary storytelling will revel in Driscoll's skill and insight on display in this unique collection
