Inhaltsangabe Introduction As the Black African writers have taught us we must dance our word for in human speech as in dance lies an offering to speak and to write is also to offer oneself to the other it is to be reborn together This quotation by M Rombaut locates African literature close to the performing arts According to his statement African literature seems to transcend the conventional European conception of writing which is conceiving literature as something planned and permanent The idea of a literary performance in African writing places the author much closer to the story teller who is dependent on his audience and trying to keep in touch with them By processing their feelings in his performance he gives expression to a common consciousness In contrast to the Western author who often wants to stand apart from his society African authors tend to aim their participation in the formation of a shared identity This paper tries to find out how authors from the framework of East Africa conceive of cultural identity Basically I will proceed in two steps part A is dedicated to the development of a pattern within which the complex issue of identity can be adequately discussed in an East African context In Part B I will then apply this discussion scheme to three novels which as I will explain are representative for East African writing in far as this term is justified Part A starts off from some basic observations about identity on the foundation of which I want to deduce the structure of my analysis I will argue that identity is based on one's observation of the environment and on the influence of outsiders All this is to some extent true for two concepts individual and cultural identity The latter develops when a group of individuals feels or is ascribed a common bond apt to correspond to several individual self concepts These individuals may then share a feeling of home which can act as a physical but also mental commitment Departing from these ideas I will show that four issues might be interesting in dealing with cultural identity which can be expressed by some central questions 1 Identity imposed and adopted In how far can others influence our identity 2 Identity rediscovered and reinvented To what extent does our history work on identity 3 Identity displaced How does our feeling of physical or mental bond to a physical or mental space I will call home work on identity 4 Identity integrated How

Tournier Coetzee Sor Juana In s de la Cruz Cintio Vitier Domingo del Monte Ram n de Palma Pablo Armando Fern ndez Hubert Aquin Anne H bert Homer Proust Balzac and Robbe Grillet provide the literary voices that invite these scholars to embark on their own quests into subjects as diverse as the relationships between texts authors and readers the initiatic journey spirituality and enlightenment female autobiography and identity oppression imperialism and postcolonial discourses not to mention the history of the quest itself The result is a rich tapestry of thought provoking insights into the inexhaustible connections between literature and quest Organizational Identity Mary Jo Hatch, Majken Schultz, 2004-03-18

Identity: Quest and Questions Raisun Mathew, 2022-08-27 This academic edited volume analyses and interprets the constantly altering meaning s and expression s of identity in the context of rising tensions and conflicts caused by society s dominant power structures on vulnerable and victimised groups The question of identity that arises in a person gets into conflict with the social structures that complicate the notion at every instant of developing newer definitions of existence in the multifaceted world These social constructs either directly or indirectly employing persuasion or coercion and through manoeuvre or manipulation develop to deviate from the expected normative identity possessed to knowingly or unknowingly embrace the other identity The freedom to continue in one s own identity or freely transit between identities without the stains of society s constructs is critical thus resulting in the debates and questions raised by on for identity It is equally important to understand the theoretical and conceptual underpinnings of the notion of identity that influence and get influenced by the connected spheres of gender dysphoria patriarchal ascendance cultural diversity and construction uncertainties and conflicts of diaspora alterity and entrapment migration and displacement caste oppression vulnerability and victimisation state apparatuses and subalternity Through multifarious themes and topics of discussion related to exploring the notion of identity this book converges the diverse perspectives on various situational existences of people Thus an elaborate and wider angle on the transitions and formation of identity is captured to decipher the relevance and significance of identity The Crafting of Chaos Hildegard Kuester, 1994 In this study of the Canadian novelist Margaret Laurence recent narratological models provide the theoretical framework for a textual analysis that aims at complementing previous thematic critiques The chief focus is on The Stone Angel and The Diviners which the conclusion then presents in the context of the other novels in Laurence s Manawaka cycle Consideration of the published works is rounded off with genetic comparison of the novelist s typescript drafts and an evaluation of the manuscript notes kept in the archives of McMaster and York Universities The central structural principle of The Stone Angel is its dovetailing of past and present scenes Temporal arrangement reflecting the frequency and duration of Hagar s memories reveals the hold of memory over the central character and her attempts to suppress her fear of mortality Hagar as narrator manipulates character presentation and description to her own advantage In a basically oppositional structure her need for control is reflected in the neat ordering of the narrative The verbal texture of the novel serves to establish a value system that insists on the superiority of imported culture over Western Canadian forms The Diviners shares a number of narrative similarities with The Stone Angel but the latter's formal rigidity has yielded by the time Laurence writes her last novel to the concept of multiplicity characters time planes perspectives and narrative voices including metafictional commentaries Textual coherence is secured via narrative strategies including typography generational paradigms repetition parallelism intertextuality and tropological patterning that render the novel readable and present experience as ordered in a time of cultural flux and personal crisis

Marvelous Journeys Margaret Heady, 2008 Marvelous Journeys explores the transition from a modernist to a postmodernist consciousness in twentieth century Caribbean writings on identity that is reflected through a corresponding evolution in the use of the marvelous as a literary tool For the three novelists who are the focus of this study Jacques Stephen Alexis Alejo Carpentier and Simone Schwarz Bart the discourse of the marvelous offers a uniquely Caribbean vehicle for capturing an elusive Caribbean essence as well as for coming to terms with the seemingly contradictory demands of a Parisian intellectual formation and an authentic Caribbean sensibility This book engages with recent debates in criticism and theory and will appeal to a broad spectrum of readers interested in Francophone literature Caribbean studies and literary and postcolonial theory It contributes to the burgeoning field of Caribbean literary studies by adopting a transcultural approach to a neglected but increasingly important area of study the circulation of ideas and influences among the Hispanic and Francophone Caribbean islands and the African and European continents
