Quest For Understanding Arabic And Islamic Studies In Memory Of Malcolm H Kerr:

Quest for Understanding Samir Seikaly, Ramzī Ba'labakkī, Peter Dodd, 1991 This is an exploration of the Muslim past and the Arab present It was written in memory of Malcolm Kerr who was shot allegedly by the Islamic Jihad in Beirut in 1984 Kerr was a highly respected scholar of Middle East studies Quest for Understanding Malcolm H. Kerr, 1991 This is an exploration of the Muslim past and the Arab present It was written in memory of Malcolm Kerr who was shot allegedly by the Islamic Jihad in Beirut in 1984 Kerr was a highly respected scholar of Middle East studies Islamic Art and Archaeology in Palestine Myriam Rosen-Ayalon, 2016-09-16 Despite political upheavals under Muslim domination in the Middle Ages Palestine was a center of great artistic activity recognized for its incredible dynamism Its unique contribution to the Islamic macrocosm however never became the subject of extensive study Numerous archeological excavations on this relatively small geographic area reveal the existence of extremely well preserved monuments of high architectural quality and exceptional religious value This is what Myriam Rosen Ayalon exposes in this thorough introduction to Palestinian Islamic art and archeology In chronological order she presents here for the first time the multifaceted and long lasting achievements of Islamic art in Palestine filling the gap of years of neglect on the subject In Synchrony with the Heavens, Volume 1 Call of the Muezzin David King, 2004-02-01 This is the first investigation of one of the main interests of astronomy in Islamic civilization namely timekeeping by the sun and stars and the regulation of the astronomically defined times of Muslim prayer The study is based on over 500 medieval astronomical manuscripts first identified by the author now preserved in libraries all over the world and originally from the entire Islamic world from the Maghrib to Central Asia and the Yemen The materials presented provide new insights into the early development of the prayer ritual in Islam They also call into question the popular notion that religion could not inspire serious scientific activity Only one of the hundreds of astronomical tables discussed here was known in medieval Europe which is one reason why the entire corpus has remained unknown until the present A second volume also to be published by Brill deals with astronomical instruments for timekeeping and other Nasser at War L. James, 2006-10-02 From his 1956 Suez triumph to the 1967 defeat President Nasser computing devices of Egypt dominated the Arab revolution Drawing on new Arabic material this history casts a fresh light on Nasser's era and legacy of conflict and provides an essential background to developments in the contemporary Arab world Arabic Theology, Arabic Philosophy Richard M. Frank, 2006 In the course of his career Professor Richard M Frank of the Catholic University of America produced a hugely significant corpus of works on the intellectual activity in Classical Islam known as Kalam which he argued should be rendered as speculative theology He also wrote on the Qur an on the Arabic and Syriac philosophical tradition and argued vigorously for a new reading of the famous religious scholar and theologian al Ghazali d 1111 as a devotee of the cosmology of Ibn Sina d 1037 In this volume fourteen scholars many of them contemporaries of Professor Frank engage with his legacy with important and seminal works which take some of his ideas as their points of departure The book is divided into six sections the Our an Paths to al Ash ari Al Ash ari and the Kalam Christian Falsafa Avicenna and Beyond and Al Ghazali on Causality There are major articles on Qur anic emendations and Arabia and Late Antiquity on the Arabic Plotinian Tradition on Syriac Philosophical Vocabulary and an important reading of the Greek Arabic translation movement in terms of the practical and exact sciences There are seminal studies of atomism with valuable translations of complex theological passages previously untranslated of the Christian philosophy of Yahya ibn Adi of a late Mu tazili argument for the existence of God and a hitherto unedited section on optics by Ibn Mattawayh These are complemented by important close readings of Avicenna's epistemology and his Metaphysics together with a major new survey of the Avicennan tradition in the madrasas of the Islamic East The volume ends with two discussions of the perennial question of al Ghazali s theory of causality In addition the volume contains an autobiographical piece by Professor Frank and a complete bibliography of his published works Religion and State L. Carl. Brown, 2001-08-20 If Westerners know a single Islamic term it is likely to be jihad the Arabic word for holy war The image of Islam as an inherently aggressive and xenophobic religion has long prevailed in the West and can at times appear to be substantiated by current events L Carl Brown challenges this conventional wisdom with a fascinating historical overview of the relationship between religious and political life in the Muslim world ranging from Islam's early centuries to the present day Religion and State examines the commonplace notion held by both radical Muslim ideologues and various Western observers alike that in Islam there is no separation between religion and politics By placing this assertion in a broad historical context the book reveals both the continuities between premodern and modern Islamic political thought as well as the distinctive dimensions of modern Muslim experiences Brown shows that both the modern day fundamentalists and their critics have it wrong when they posit an eternally militant unchanging Islam outside of history They are conflating theology and history They are confusing the oughtand the is he writes As the historical record shows mainstream Muslim political thought in premodern times tended toward political quietism Brown maintains that we can better understand present day politics among Muslims by accepting the reality of their historical diversity while at the same time seeking to identify what may be distinctive in Muslim thought and action In order to illuminate the distinguishing characteristics of Islam in relation to politics Brown compares this religion with its two Semitic sisters Judaism and Christianity drawing striking comparisons between Islam today and Christianity during the Reformation With a wealth of evidence he recreates a tradition of Islamic diversity every bit as rich as that of Judaism and Christianity The Byzantine-Islamic Transition in Palestine Gideon Avni, 2014-01-30 Using a comprehensive evaluation of recent archaeological findings Avni addresses the transformation of local societies in Palestine and Jordan between the sixth and eleventh centuries AD Arguing that these archaeological findings provide a reliable though complex picture Avni illustrates how the Byzantine Islamic transition was a much slower and gradual process than previously thought and that it involved regional variability different types of populations and diverse settlement patterns Based on the results of hundreds of excavations including Avni s own surveys and excavations in the Negev Beth Guvrin Jerusalem and Ramla the volume reconstructs patterns of continuity and change in settlements during this turbulent period evaluating the process of change in a dynamic multicultural society and showing that the coming of Islam had no direct effect on settlement patterns and material culture of the local population The change in settlement stemming from internal processes rather than from external political powers culminated gradually during the Early Islamic period However the process of Islamization was slow and by the eve of the Crusader period Christianity still had an overwhelming majority in Palestine and Jordan The Monastic Landscape of Late Antique Egypt Darlene L. Brooks Hedstrom, 2017-11-23 This book traces changing perceptions of Egypt's monastic landscape through an analysis of archaeological and documentary evidence from late Israel's Clandestine Diplomacies Clive Jones, Tore T. Petersen, 2013-11-01 Provides fascinating insights into how Mossad leaders such as Yaacov Nimrodi Meit Amit and Reuven Shiloah conducted secret diplomatic missions to Turkey Syria Jordan Iran and elsewhere from before the founding of Israel to the present Cultural Anthropology of the Middle East ,1992 During the last two decades the number of anthropologists conducting research in the Middle East has increased considerably Together they have produced an abundance of valuable studies often based on prolonged periods of ethnographic fieldwork Cultural Anthropology of the Middle East A Bibliography offers a comprehensive survey of their results The first volume published in 1992 covered publications which appeared between 1965 and 1987 The second volume brings the bibliography further up to date listing publications between 1988 and 1992 and adds some 260 titles which were published up through 1987 As in the first volume the majority of the titles are annotated Islamic Astronomy and Geography David A. King, 2022-02-13 This volume of 12 studies mainly published during the past 15 years begins with an overview of the Islamic astronomy covering not only sophisticated mathematical astronomy and instrumentation but also simple folk astronomy and the ways in which astronomy was used in the service of religion It continues with discussions of the importance of Islamic instruments and scientific manuscript illustrations Three studies deal with the regional schools that developed in Islamic astronomy in this case Egypt and the Maghrib Another focuses on a curious astrological table for calculating the length of life of any individual The notion of the world centred on the sacred Kaaba in Mecca inspired both astronomers and proponents of folk astronomy to propose methods for finding the gibla or sacred direction towards the Kaaba their activities are surveyed here The interaction between the mathematical and folk traditions in astronomy is then illustrated by an 11th century text on the gibla in Transoxania The last three studies deal with an account of the geodetic measurements sponsored by the Caliph al Ma m n in the 9th century a world map in the tradition of the 11th century polymath al B r n alas corrupted by careless copying and a table of geographical coordinates from 15th century Egypt hunt along with musicians dancing girls and naked bathing women The traveler is transported to the luxurious and erotic world of a mid eighth century Muslim Arab prince For scholars though Qusayr Amra probably painted in the 730s or 740s has proved a mirage its concreteness dissolved by doubts about date patron and meaning This is the first book length contextualization of the mysterious monument through a compelling analysis of its iconography and of the literary sources for the Umayyad period It illuminates not only the way of life of the early Muslim elite but also the long afterglow of late antique Islamic Art and Architecture 650-1250 Richard Ettinghausen, Oleg Grabar, Professor Emeritus of Islamic Art and Architecture Oleg Grabar, Marilyn Jenkins, 2003-07-11 This richly illustrated book provides an unsurpassed overview of Islamic art and architecture from the seventh to the thirteenth centuries a time of the formation of a new artistic culture and its first medieval flowering in the vast area from the Atlantic to India Inspired by Ettinghausen and Grabar's original text this book has been completely rewritten and updated to take into account recent information and methodological advances The volume focuses special attention on the development of numerous regional centers of art in Spain North Africa Egypt Syria Anatolia Iraq and Yemen as well as the western and northeastern provinces of Iran It traces the cultural and artistic evolution of such centers in the seminal early Islamic period and examines the wealth of different ways of creating a beautiful environment The book approaches the arts with new classifications of architecture and architectural decoration the art of the object and the art of the book With many new illustrations often in color this volume broadens the picture of Islamic artistic production and discusses objects in a wide range of media including textiles ceramics metal and wood The book incorporates extensive accounts of the cultural contexts of the arts and defines the originality of each period A final chapter explores the impact of Islamic art on the creativity of non Muslims within the Islamic realm and in areas surrounding the Muslim world
