Questions Of Cultural Identity:

Questions of Cultural Identity Stuart Hall, Paul du Gay, 1996-04-04 Why and how do contemporary questions of culture so readily become highly charged questions of identity The question of cultural identity lies at the heart of current debates in cultural studies and social theory At issue is whether those identities which defined the social and cultural world of modern societies for so long distinctive identities of gender sexuality race class and nationality are in decline giving rise to new forms of identification and fragmenting the modern individual as a unified subject Questions of Cultural Identity offers a wide ranging exploration of this issue Stuart Hall firstly outlines the reasons why the question of identity is so compelling and yet so problematic The cast of outstanding contributors then interrogate different dimensions of the crisis of identity in so doing they provide both theoretical and substantive insights into different approaches to understanding identity
