Questions Of Ethics In Counselling And Therapy:

Questions of Ethics in Counselling and Therapy Carol Shillito-Clarke, 2000 Six counselling professionals bring their experience and knowledge to questions of ethics in counselling and therapy dealing with issues such as confidentiality competence and professional conduct in a clear and accessible style Ethical Issues in Counselling and Psychotherapy Practice Poornima Bhola, Ahalya Raguram, 2016-10-20 This edited volume comprehensively examines the critical ethical challenges that arise in the practice of counselling and psychotherapy It translates philosophical positions and professional ethical guidelines in a way that can be applied to practice The various chapters focus on specific ethical issues that emerge in working with a range of different client groups for example children couples and families While some ethical imperatives are common across the board others could be more closely associated with certain client groups Practitioners might experience uncertainty in working with vulnerable client groups for example lesbian gay transgender intersex LGBT clients or persons who report intimate partner violence Several chapters raise questions provide information and additional resources to enhance ethically informed practice Chapter contributions also highlight the ethical dilemmas that might be unique to certain contexts for example private practice schools and consultation liaison settings This volume also addresses contemporary and relatively less understood playing fields like digital ethics related to therapist client interface in the internet space and the navigation of ethical dilemmas in the newly emerging field of employee assistance programmes which address mental health needs in the corporate sector Written by experienced practitioners of psychotherapy and culturally contextualized this is a valuable resource for academics and practitioners interested in psychotherapy and counselling

The Ethical and Professional Practice of Counseling and Psychotherapy Len Sperry, 2007 In addition to providing foundational information about ethical codes and legal statutes this new text advocates for counseling personnel to view ethical issues as challenges for personal and professional growth Written in an accessible concise and easy to read style this book endeavors to broaden the traditional focus of ethical study to include topics that students and practicing clinicians will find consistent with their own personal strivings and professional needs While covering the traditional core precepts of professional ethics in considerable detail confidentiality informed consent boundaries and the use of power and competency and professional responsibility it also advocates for counseling personnel to view ethical issues as challenges for personal and professional growth And it includes a number of critical topics that counselors and therapists face or will face in daily practice These include organizational ethics virtue ethics and an expanded view of multicultural ethics with a focus on community values as well as on religious and spiritual issues This new book includes a special chapter in the appendix that emphasizes ways in which counselors and therapists can grow and achieve excellence in their personal and professional lives Unique and essential coverage of organizational ethics OE is addressed making readers aware of how organizational dynamics can exert such powerful influence on ethical decision making Ch 4 10 14 Unique coverage of the ethical considerations involving spiritual and religious issues as well as the use of alternative interventions in counseling and psychotherapy are covered including the common lawsuits brought against counselors and therapists using spiritual and alternative interventions Ch 3 A unique section in the appendix describes the psychological and philosophical basis of ethical decision making for readers who want and need a more in depth discussion

EBOOK: Forms Of Ethical Thinking In Therapeutic Practice Derek Hill, Caroline Jones, 2003-10-16 This is a good valuable addition to the literature on ethics in the therapeutic practice Sexual and Relationship Therapy Most books about ethics focus either on the origins of ethics or on the application of ethical thinking to a single form of therapy This book sets out to span a range of very different forms of therapy and explores the similarities and the differences between the ethical thinking of the practitioners concerned By looking at ethical issues in different therapeutic settings the reader is challenged to reconsider the working assumptions which underpin familiar therapeutic practice Readers of Forms of Ethical Thinking in Therapeutic Practice are offered the unique opportunity to gain insights into the ethical thinking of experienced practitioners offering strikingly different services to their clients and working in contrasting contexts Essential reading for all practitioners in counselling and the therapies students trainers supervisors and providers of therapeutic services

Ethical and Professional Issues in Counseling R. Rocco Cottone, Vilia M. Tarvydas, 2003 Expanded revised and more reader friendly the second edition of this well researched book again provides its exceptional coverage of the philosophical foundations of counseling This is one of the most comprehensive thorough and readable books on the market today After a thorough discussion of ethical principles and standards the authors conscientiously examine ethical issues as they manifest themselves within several specialty areas family counseling and school counseling for example They again include their highly praised compendium of ethical codes ideal for study by future counselors or as a reference for practitioners This book addresses high interest topics such as genetics eugenics and managed care It examines the variables and nuances of counseling clients of various ethical and cultural backgrounds It also covers everything from office layout to maintaining records from setting fees and billing to handling disagreements computer assisted counseling online forums and computer assisted assessment For professionals in the field of counseling
