What Girls Need Marisa Porges, PhD, 2020-08-04 A powerful book about how we can raise girls to become bold ambitious women Adam Grant What do girls really need to succeed Children today face an uncertain future and parents and teachers can't fully predict what's in store for their daughter and sons But one thing is clear Our kids need a new set of skills to succeed Girls in particular must nurture essential traits to fully flourish Students hit the ground running today entering a school system that carries high expectations on their way to a college application process that is more demanding than ever After school young women enter a competitive job market still complicated by sexism and the possibility of harassment But the ways we define leadership are also changing and the women stepping into those roles are mapping new paths to inhabiting traits like grit resilience audacity and self confidence What Girls Need shows how parents and educators can foster these critical twenty first century skills in our girls and help them to recognize and nurture their inherent strengths to not just thrive but also find joy and purpose as they come of age in our ever evolving world As a student at the all girls Baldwin School outside of Philadelphia Marisa Porges grew up in a community designed to produce strong independent women After graduating from Harvard she fulfilled her childhood dream of flying jets off aircraft carriers for the U S Navy and served as a counterterrorism expert in Afghanistan and a cybersecurity advisor in the Obama White House Then in 2016 in an unexpected move for someone whose ambitions had taken her so far from home Porges returned to head the Baldwin School In doing so she saw how small moments in her early education gave her the tools she needed to excel in a man s world Combining compelling research personal stories and practical advice on timely questions Porges delves into hot button subjects like how to harness girls voices and boost girls self esteem and shows how little things have a big impact when nurturing vital skills like competitiveness collaboration empathy and adaptability What Girls Need empowers us to support the next generation of women so they can confidently hold their own no matter what the future has in store Duncan Hines Louis Hatchett,2014-03-27 This delightful biography offers conclusive proof that Hines was not only a real human being but an American culinary hero The Weekly Standard Duncan Hines may be best known for the cake mixes baked goods and bread products that bear his name but many people don t know that he was a real person and not just a fictitious figure invented for the brand America s pioneer restaurant critic Hines discovered his passion while working as a traveling salesman during the 1920s and 1930s a time when food standards were poorly enforced and food safety was a constant concern He traveled across America discovering restaurants and offering his recommendations to readers in his bestselling compilation Adventures in Good Eating and the success of this work and his subsequent publications led Hines to manufacture the extremely popular food products that we still enjoy today In this biography Louis Hatchett explores the story of the man from his humble beginnings in Bowling Green Kentucky to his lucrative licensing deal with Procter Gamble Following the successful debut of his restaurant guide Hines published his first cookbook at age fifty nine and followed it with The Dessert Book culinary classics including recipes from establishments he visited on his travels favorites handed down through his family for generations and new dishes that contained unusual ingredients for the era Many of the recipes served as inspiration for mixes that eventually became available under the Duncan Hines brand This is a comprehensive account of the life and legacy of a savvy businessman and an often overlooked culinary pioneer whose love of good food led to his name becoming a grocery shelf favorite
